   Pessac-Leognan
   2009 Bottle (2)
   2009 Magnum (1)
   Estimate: $2,000-$2,600
   Starting Bid: $1,600

PROPERTY OF ONE OF OUR FAVORITE RETURN CONSIGNORS IN NEW YORK.

Every few months this passionate collector drips out incredible offerings, often in wooden case, all of which have been purchased on release and carefully stored in a temperature- and humidity-controlled cellar.

2  Chateau Cos d’Estournel 2009
   St. Estephe
   Bottle (12)
   “It boasts an inky/black/purple color along with an extraordinary bouquet of white flowers interwoven with blackberry and blueberry liqueur, incense, charcoal and graphite. The wine hits the palate with extraordinary purity, balance and intensity as well as perfect equilibrium, and a seamless integration of tannin, acidity, wood and alcohol. An iconic wine as well as a remarkable achievement, it is the greatest Cos d’Estournel ever produced.”
   (100 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #199, Feb. 2012)
   Estimate: $2,000-$2,600
   Starting Bid: $1,600

3  Chateau La Fleur Petrus 2009
   Pomerol
   3lsl
   Bottle (12)
   “Even with considerable youthful characteristics, this stunning, open-knit 2009 is quite approachable. This fabled terroir sandwiched between Petrus and Lalleur (hence the name) generally produces one of the more elegantly-styled Pomerols, but in 2009 it offers an extra dimension of flavor intensity as well as more texture and concentration. It reveals a super-seductive perfume of mocha, loamy soil, herbs, black cherries and black currants, truffles and licorice, full body and velvety tannins. The overall impression is one of intensity, power, glycerin and richness as well as undeniable elegance and laser-like focus.”
   (97pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #199, Feb 2012)
   Estimate: $2,000-$2,600
   Starting Bid: $1,600

4  Chateau La Mission Haut Brion 1982
   Pessac-Leognan
   1bn, 4lbsl, 1nl, 1lwasl
   Bottle (7)
   “One of the handful of perfect wines of the vintage, the La Mission still possesses a remarkably dense ruby/purple color with only a slight garnet and lightening at the edge. The fruit-dominated aromatics reveal lots of cassis, blueberry, scorched earth, black truffle, incense, graphite and high-class, unsmoked cigar tobacco-like notes. Still exhibiting remarkable concentration, enormous body, silky sweet tannin, and no perceptible acidity, the 1982 remains fresh, delineated and super-compelling.”
   (100 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #202, Aug. 2012)
   Estimate: $5,500-$7,500
   Starting Bid: $4,250

5  Chateau Latour 2002
   Pauillac
   Bottle (6)
   “The wine of the vintage? There are only 10,000 cases of this extraordinarily rich, dense 2002 that is as powerful as the 2003 (even the alcohol levels are nearly the same, 12.85%). It is dark ruby/purple to the rim, with notes of English walnuts, crushed rocks, black currants, and forest floor, dense, full-bodied, and opulent, yet classic with spectacular aromatics, marvelous purity, and a full-bodied finish that lasts just over 50+ seconds.”
   (96 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #158, Apr. 2005)
   Estimate: $2,400-$3,250
   Starting Bid: $1,900

6  Chateau Lynch Bages 1990
   Pauillac
   Bottle (3)
   “This magnificent Lynch Bages has been drinking well since the day it was released and it continues to go from strength to strength. The biggest, richest, fullest-bodied Lynch Bages until the 2000, the fully mature 1990 exhibits an unbelievably explosive nose of black currants, cedarwood, herbs and spice. The majestic, classically Bordeaux aromatics are followed by a full-bodied, voluptuously textured, rich, intense wine with superb purity as well as thrilling levels of fruit, glycerin and sweetness.”
   (99 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #196, Aug. 2011)
   Estimate: $750-$950
   Starting Bid: $600

7  Chateau Montrose 1990
   St. Estephe
   Bottle (3)
   “This wine has an incredibly complex nose of spring flowers, blackberry and cassis liqueur, scorched earth and barbecue spice. It is full-bodied, majestic and opulent, with low acidity and fabulous fruit. It is close to full maturity. The wine should continue to drink well for at least another 30 or more years, but it is showing secondary nuances in the perfume. The wine is absolutely magnificent, broad, savory and mouth-filling. This is one of the all-time modern legends from Bordeaux as well as Chateau Montrose.”
   (100 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #214, Aug. 2014)
   Estimate: $1,400-$1,800
   Starting Bid: $1,100
Chateau Smith Haut Lafitte 2009
Pessac-Leognan
Bottle (12)

“The finest wine ever made by proprietors Daniel and Florence Cathiard, the 2009 Smith-Haut-Lafitte exhibits an opaque blue/purple color in addition to a glorious nose of acacia flowers, licorice, charcoal, blueberries, black raspberries, lead pencil shavings and incense. This massive, extraordinarily rich, unctuously textured wine may be the most concentrated effort produced to date, although the 2000, 2005 and 2010 are nearly as prodigious. A gorgeous expression of Pessac-Leognan with sweet tannin, emerging charm and delicacy, and considerable power, depth, richness and authority...” (100 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #199, Feb. 2012)

Estimate: $1,900-$2,600
Starting Bid: $1,500

Chambertin 2005
Clos de Beze, B. Clair
Bottle (4)

“The most complete wine here with a spicy, earthy, gamy and strikingly elegant if presently reserved nose of musky black cherry fruit aromas that introduce rich, sweet and mouth coating flavors that explode on the strikingly long finish. This is a classy thoroughbred of a wine with superb complexity, impeccable balance and huge length, all delivered with both grace and power. Be prepared to be patient however as this will need plenty of time.” (95pts Allen Meadows, Burghound #29, Jan 2008)

Estimate: $1,300-$1,700
Starting Bid: $1,000

Corton 2009
Renardes, Leroy
1crc, 2ssos due to overfill
Bottle (3)

“The sheer density of fruit here is nothing short of remarkable and the complexity is equally amazing and words cannot really do justice to the breadth of aromas though it is worth noting that there is veritable profusion of the classic sauvage character of a fine Renardes along with notes of plum-like liqueur, earth and a smoky hint. This is a huge and powerful wine with overtly muscular flavors that ooze both minerality and tannin-buffering extract before culminating in a lavish finish of spectacular length. In my view, this is the finest Leroy Renardes since the unbelievable 1999.” (97 pts. Allen Meadows, Burghound.com, Jan. 2012)

Estimate: $5,000-$7,000
Starting Bid: $4,000

Vosne Romanee 2003
Les Beaux Monts, Leroy
(1) 4cm, 2nl, 2scl, 1ssos due to overfill
Bottle (2)

“This too displays noticeable toast and even the barest hint of char that serves as background to the spice, plum, incredibly complex and ripe but refined black fruit aromas that introduce rich, full, sweet and beautifully detailed flavors that offer serious depth, volume and power yet all of this is delivered gracefully and with real purity. This coats and stains the palate on the exceptionally long finish and possesses that “wow” factor.” (93 pts. Allen Meadows, Burghound #17, Jan. 2005)

Estimate: $2,400-$3,250
Starting Bid: $1,900
Vosne Romanee 2009
Les Beaux Monts, Leroy
(2) 3.5 cm, (1) 4cm, 3lscl, 1crc, 5ssos due to overfill
Bottle (5)
“The 2009 Vosne-Romanee Les Beaux Monts bursts from the glass with dazzling fruit that covers every inch of the palate. Sweet dark fruit, spices, tar and leather are some of the notes that flesh out on the stunning, multi-dimensional finish. This is a dazzling wine endowed with tons of class and sheer pedigree. It is not to be missed.” (96 pts. Antonio Galloni, Wine Advocate, Sep. 2011)
Estimate: $8,000-$11,000
Starting Bid: $6,000

Corton Charlemagne 2014
Coche-Dury
Bottle (1)
“This is aromatically all but mute and it required very aggressive swirling to gradually coax the grudgingly nose of wood, mineral reduction, petrol, green apple, white rose and spice elements to reveal themselves. In the same vein as the nose, the dense and well-muscled broad-shouldered flavors are very, very tightly wound while delivering an abundance of minerality on the massively persistent finish. This potentially ranks as the wine of the vintage and that is no small statement given just how good the best 2014 whites are. With all of those justifiably merited compliments though, note well that this masterpiece in the making will not only age effortlessly for years to come, it’s going to need time and I wouldn’t even think about touching a bottle for at least a decade. In a word, brilliant.” (98 pts. Allen Meadows, Bourghound, June 2017)
Estimate: $5,000-$7,000
Starting Bid: $4,000

Masseto 2006
Tenuta dell’ Ornellaia
Bottle (4)
“This is a wine of sheer power, bliss, opulence, infinity and sublime seduction. This Merlot-based masterpiece hits all your senses with the grace of a ballerina and the power of a heavyweight. It is steady on its proverbial feet, but it also glides over the palate with a profound sense of elegance, harmony and rhythm. Among the prized vintages of Masseto, including 2001, 2004 and 2007, this edition is my favorite. The wine delivers an extra sense of tightness or firmness at the back that serves to stitch together its fleshy richness and general sumptuousness. The personality is sunny, expansive, articulate and sophisticated. You’ll remember that the 2006 vintage is celebrated for the elegance of its wines. In the coastal Bolgheri appellation, it is also remembered for the power of its wines. You get the best of both worlds with this stunning creation: elegance and power. These traits are particularly well suited to the versatile grape variety at the heart of this Tuscan all-rounder. This is a true Renaissance wine.” (100 pts. Monica Larner, Wine Advocate, Jan. 2016)
Estimate: $2,200-$3,000
Starting Bid: $1,700

Sassicaia 1999
 Tenuta San Guido
1lbsl
Bottle (5)
“Dense ruby-colored, with a tight personality, the 1999 Sassicaia offers up aromas of smoke, vanilla, and red as well as black currants. Medium-bodied, with high tannin and excellent purity, this elegant, restrained, moderately concentrated effort needs another 2-3 years of cellaring.” (88 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #144, Dec. 2002)
Estimate: $800-$1,100
Starting Bid: $600

Sassicaia 2001
 Tenuta San Guido
2lbsl
Bottle (6)
“The bouquet shows savory tones with cured meat, leather and bresaola. The fruit tones are dried and dark in character with plum, blackcurrant and dried fig. The aromas are evolved and mature. In the mouth, the wine shows thick density with gritty texture. Because this was a warm vintage, the wine showed plush tannins and round fruit flavors upon release.” (88 pts. Monica Larner, Wine Advocate #219, June 2015)
Estimate: $1,100-$1,400
Starting Bid: $850

Dom Perignon Vintage Champagne 1996
Rose
3 in ogb
Bottle (3)
“The 1996 Dom Pérignon Rosé is simply off the charts. What a wine. The 1996 Rosé has begun to fill out rather dramatically. Today it is rich, powerful and totally seductive.” (97 pts. Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Sept. 2010)
Estimate: $900-$1,200
Starting Bid: $700
20  Dom Perignon Vintage Champagne 2002
   Rose
   Bottle (6)
   “I have a distinct feeling the 2002 Dom Pérignon Rosé is still not showing all of its cards. A bit more restrained in its expression than the alluring 2002 Blanc, the Rosé is quite vertical in its structure and overall feel. Hints of cranberry, mint and spice emerge in an exotic, powerful Champagne that deftly balances fruit, acidity and structure. This is a fabulous showing from the 2002.” (97 pts. Antonio Galloni, Vinous, May 2015)

    1nl
    Magnum (3)
    “Graphite, floral, cherry, licorice and tobacco aromas and flavors abound in this firm, muscular red, which stays bright and focused, with a chewy, savory finish. The last vintage of Santo Stefano under the Giacosa label.” (93 pts. Bruce Sanderson, Wine Spectator, Oct. 2014)
    Estimate: $500-$700
    Starting Bid: $400

24  Barolo 2012
    Falletto di Serralunga, B. Giacosa
    Magnum (3)
    “A gorgeous red, featuring all the hallmarks of great Barolo, with cherry, strawberry, floral and tobacco flavors that show hints of tar and licorice. The beefy tannins are there, but they’re not overwhelming, and this glides to a lingering aftertaste of fruit, mineral and savory elements.” (94 pts. Bruce Sanderson, Wine Spectator, Dec. 2016)

27  Abreu Cabernet Sauvignon 2007
    Madrona Ranch
    ogb
    Magnum (1)
    “The 2007 Madrona Ranch is a compelling, creamy-styled red offering an assortment of aromas, including white chocolate, graphite, forest floor, blackberries, cassis and blueberries. Pure, multilayered and super-rich, without any harshness or astringency, this is one of those wines that can be drunk young or laid away for 25+ years.” (98 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #192, Dec. 2010)
    Estimate: $600-$800
    Starting Bid: $475

28  Abreu Cabernet Sauvignon 2013
    Madrona Ranch
    2lbsl
    Bottle (6)
    “The 2013 Madrona Ranch hits the magic three-digit score. It is literally a 30- to 45-year wine in itself. It behaves like a ripe, complex first growth Pauillac, with blackberry and crème de cassis, a touch of licorice, black truffle, pen ink and graphite. Incredibly fragrant, extremely full-bodied, with abundant tannin but also enormous fruit extract and richness, it is an amazing wine and a profound effort from Abreu and Grimes.” (100 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #227, Oct. 2016)
    Estimate: $2,400-$3,250

29 Abreu Cabernet Sauvignon 2014
Madrona Ranch
3lbsl
Bottle (3)
“The 2014 Madrona Ranch Proprietary Red is deep garnet-purple in color and sings of crushed blackcurrants, warm plums and black raspberries with menthol, potpourri, chocolate box and licorice nuances—compelling. The palate is full-bodied, firm and grapy with great freshness, finishing very long with mineral notions. This will be extremely long lived!” (99 pts. Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate, Oct. 2018)
Estimate: $800-$1,100
Starting Bid: $600

30 Abreu Cabernet Sauvignon 2015
Madrona Ranch
3 in ogb
Bottle (6)
“Richly layered, with warmed fig, boysenberry compote and blueberry reduction flavors, all allied to substantial but very creamy and polished tannins. This is infused liberally with espresso-accented toast, letting a light alder hint show on the finish. A gorgeous example of the style.” (96 pts. James Molesworth, Wine Spectator, Oct. 2019)
Estimate: $1,800-$2,400
Starting Bid: $1,400

31 Abreu Cabernet Sauvignon 2006
Thorevilos
ogb
Magnum (1)
“The 2006 Thorevilos exhibits an extraordinary floral aroma backed up by scents of blueberries, blackberries, espresso roast, and an incredible liqueur of rocks-like component. The compelling floweriness, blue and black fruits, and full-bodied richness make this one of the most distinctive and extraordinary wines of Napa.” (98 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #186, Dec. 2009)
Estimate: $475-$600
Starting Bid: $375

32 Abreu Cabernet Sauvignon 2012
Thorevilos
1lbsl
Bottle (6)
“The 2012 Thorevilos is flamboyant, phenomenally concentrated, full-bodied, majestic and totally prodigious. It can be drunk young, but most readers will probably prefer to give it a few years of bottle age and consume it over the following 30+ years.” (99+ pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #221, Oct. 2015)
Estimate: $1,600-$2,000
Starting Bid: $1,200

33 Abreu Cabernet Sauvignon 2013
Thorevilos
1nl
Bottle (3)
“This is always the most floral of the Abreu wines, but it also has what the French call je ne sais quoi, a quality that is hard to pin down. The 2013 defines what Thorevilos is all about, with copious quantities of blueberries, black raspberries, truffles, violets, crushed rock, forest floor notes and oodles of glycerin in its full-bodied, incredibly pure and amazing texture and length.” (100 pts. Robert M. Parker, Jr., Wine Advocate #227, Oct. 2016)
Estimate: $1,100-$1,400
Starting Bid: $850

34 Abreu Cabernet Sauvignon 2014
Thorevilos
Bottle (3)
“Steeped in feel, with a core of fig, blackberry and boysenberry fruit showing a heady edge as this throws off mulled spice, anise, mesquite and Turkish coffee notes. Sage, juniper and alder details are buried deeply on the finish, with the fruit easily holding sway. Massive, but distinctive and very detailed. Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Petit Verdot and Merlot.” (97 pts. James Molesworth, Wine Spectator, Oct. 2019)
Estimate: $750-$950
Starting Bid: $600

35 Abreu Red 2015
Cappella
ogb
Bottle (3)
“The 2015 Cappella should be close to perfection when it is finally released in several years. Inky bluish/purple to the rim, with blackberry, chocolate, graphite, barbecue smoke and forest floor notes, this incredibly rich, pure, structured and powerful wine is multi-dimensional, with huge levels of fruit and glycerin. To say it is a tour de force is almost an understatement. It should have 30-50 years of longevity.” (96-100 pts. Robert M. Parker, Jr., Wine Advocate #227, Oct. 2016)
Estimate: $700-$900
Starting Bid: $550

36 Abreu Red 2012
Las Posadas
Bottle (6)
“The 2012 Howell Mountain is a massive fruit bomb from that high-elevation vineyard. Forest floor, floral notes, lead pencil shavings, licorice, fruitcake, cedar wood and oodles of black fruits soar from the glass and from the palate of this full-bodied, majestic, multi-layered wine. Like most 2012s, it is really strutting it’s stuff. It is still obviously young, but dramatic and flamboyant. This sensational wine should age effortlessly for 25-30+ years.” (99 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #221, Oct. 2015)
Estimate: $1,300-$1,700
Starting Bid: $1,000
37 Abreu Red 2013
Las Posadas
5lbsl
Bottle (6)
“The 2013 Las Posadas Proprietary Red was unreal from barrel, and that extraordinary Midas touch exhibited by Grimes and Abreu has extended to this wine out of bottle, which is a showcase for Howell Mountain and the meticulous viticulture and winemaking of Abreu and Grimes. Inky purple to the rim, with an extraordinary nose of sweet mulberry, intense graphite, scorched earth, smoldering wood charcoal, and massive blackberry and cassis fruit, this intriguing and provocative wine also throws in hints of licorice and black truffle. It is extremely rich, full-bodied, and nearly an out-of-body experience.” (100 pts. Robert M. Parker, Jr., Wine Advocate #227, Oct. 2016)
Estimate: $2,000-$2,600
Starting Bid: $1,600

38 Bond Winery Red 2015
Vecina
owc
Bottle (3)
“Bottled in early 2018, the 2015 Vecina is deep garnet-purple in color, with baked blackberries, black cherries and blackcurrant cordial aromas that leap from the glass with nuances of roses, pencil lead, menthol and mocha. The palate is full-bodied, very fine and incredibly seductive with a solid frame supporting the generous layers, finishing long and exotic.” (98+ pts. Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate, Oct. 2018)
Estimate: $800-$1,100
Starting Bid: $600

39 Bryant Family Cabernet Sauvignon 2016
Bottle (3)
“Composed of 100% Cabernet Sauvignon entirely from the Pritchard Hill estate and aged in 90% new oak, the 2016 Cabernet Sauvignon is deep garnet-purple colored and has a disarmingly profound red roses and red and black currant nose with wild blueberries and yeast extract accents plus tapenade, tilled soil, subtle exotic spices and pencil shavings and the faintest waft of lavender. The palate is ethereal in its weight with a medium to full-bodied supported by firm yet perfectly ripe, grainy tannins structuring the tightly wound savory layers and leading to a very long, fragrant earth finish. So poised, so classy, so Bryant.” (100 pts. Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate, Oct. 2018)
Estimate: $1,300-$1,700
Starting Bid: $1,000

40 Colgin Cabernet Sauvignon 2015
Tychson Hill
owc
Bottle (3)
“The 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon Tychson Hill Vineyard, from a site planted in 1996, is dramatic, profound Cabernet Sauvignon, with plenty of blackberry and blueberry fruit, a beautiful floral nose and graphite. The wine has an enormous full body, but incredibly sweet tannin and that terrific hallmark of 2015 – the sucriness of the fruit and ripe tannin. That doesn’t necessarily mean residual sugar, but just-right ripeness, not overripe or underripe. This beauty will drink well young and continue to mature for at least another 25-30 years.” (98-100 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #228, Dec. 2016)
Estimate: $1,000-$1,300
Starting Bid: $800

41 Colgin Cabernet Sauvignon 2016
Tychson Hill
owc
Bottle (3)
“Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2016 Cabernet Sauvignon Tychson Hill Vineyard has gorgeous floral notions of lilacs, lavender and roses with sandalwood and cinnamon stick sparks over a core of cassis, blackberry pie, kirsch and redcurrant jelly plus a waft of cigar boxes. The full-bodied palate is rich, concentrated, expressive and velvety, offering seamless freshness to lift and entice the mid-palate, finishing very, very long with some savory notions starting to unfold. It is one of those wines that is so unique, expressive and perfect in every way that it sets your heart racing with every sip.” (100 pts. Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate, Oct. 2018)
Estimate: $1,000-$1,300
Starting Bid: $800

42 Colgin Red 2013
Cariad
owc
Bottle (3)
“The 2013 Cariad Proprietary Red Wine, a blend of 50% Cabernet Sauvignon, 28% Merlot, 13% Cabernet Franc and 9% Petit Verdot, shows great intensity, with a slightly more burning ember and scorched earthiness to it, giving it a more Graves-like character compared to the purity of the Tychson Hill. The wine is full-bodied, rich, layered and possibly slightly more tannic and backward than the Tychson Hill, but that could be because it had recently been bottled. It should evolve over the course of 30+ years.” (98 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #221, Oct. 2014)
Estimate: $750-$950
Starting Bid: $600
43 Colgin Red 2016
Cariad
owc.
Bottle (3)
“The 2016 Cariad Proprietary Red Wine is blended of 60% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Cabernet Franc, 12% Merlot and 8% Petit Verdot. Deep garnet-purple colored, it has wonderful purity of black fruits—preserved plums, blackcurrants and black raspberries—with nuances of iron ore, crushed rocks, fertile loam, cedar chest and tobacco leaf. Full-bodied, concentrated, muscular and built like a brick house, it has very firm, grainy tannins and refreshing acidity, finishing incredibly long and mineral. This should be very, very long lived.” (100 pts. Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate, Oct. 2018)
Estimate: $900-$1,200
Starting Bid: $700

44 Colgin Red 2015
IX Estate
owc.
Bottle (3)
“Composed of 62% Cabernet Sauvignon, 19% Cabernet Franc, 15% Merlot and 4% Petit Verdot, the 2015 IX Proprietary Red Estate sports a deep garnet-purple color and nose of smoked meat, blackberries and black currants with suggestions of baking spices, dark chocolate, fertile earth, dried Provence herbs, cardamom and lavender plus a touch of cigar box. Full-bodied, rich, firm and restrained, it has a lovely earthy, soft-spoken style at this youthful stage, promising great things to come over the forthcoming 25-30 years.” (100 pts. Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate #233, Oct. 2017)
Estimate: $950-$1,300
Starting Bid: $750

45 Colgin Red 2016
IX Estate
Bottle (3)
“Deep garnet-purple, it comes strutting out of the glass with flamboyant Black Forest cake, blueberry compote and plum pudding notions plus hints of spice cake, unsmoked cigars, menthol, licorice and dusty soil and accented by wafts of tar and black tea. The palate is full-bodied yet incredibly poised and vibrant with amazing freshness and very fine-grained, very firm tannins. It possesses the most provocative earthy sparks, providing arresting depth to the very long, beautifully perfumed finish. Stunning.” (100 pts. Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate, Oct. 2018)
Estimate: $950-$1,300
Starting Bid: $750

46 Dalla Valle Red 2016
Maya
Bottle (3)
“The 2016 Maya Proprietary Red Wine is blended of 67% Cabernet Sauvignon and 33% Cabernet Franc. Deep garnet-purple colored, it’s a little reserved to begin, soon unfurling to reveal the most incredible array of floral and red fruit layers—kirsch, redcurrant jelly, black raspberries, lilacs, red roses and lavender—with achingly beautiful wafts of cigar box, pencil lead, camphor, cinnamon stick and forest floor. Medium to full-bodied and with fabulous elegance and poise in the mouth, the palate delivers layer upon layer of perfumed black and red fruits with a very firm, finely grained texture and an epically long, mineral-laced finish. “ (100 pts. Bottle (6)
“Medium to deep garnet-purple in color, the 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon charges from the gate with exuberant red and black cherries notes, black currants and mulberries with a beautiful roses and lavender perfume, plus hints of sandalwood and cinnamon stick. Full-bodied, concentrated and downright explosive in the mouth, it is still wearing loads of gorgeous puppy-fat fruit flavors, offering suggestions of the complex, multilayered blockbuster that it will emerge into. The structure deserves its own mention: wonderful, seamless freshness and oh-so-fine, pixelated tannins, with an extraordinary persistence of fruit and mineral nuances. Wow.” (100 pts. Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate #233, Oct. 2017)
Estimate: $1,600-$2,000
Starting Bid: $1,200

48 Eisele Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon 2016
owc.
Bottle (3)
“The 2016 Cabernet Sauvignon has a deep garnet-purple color. Its nose begins a little reserved, slowly revealing a quiet intensity of freshly crushed blackberries, chocolate-covered cherries and aniseed with compelling nuances of black tea, cigar box, truffles and charcuterie, plus, with coaxing, gentle wafts of red roses and crushed rocks emerge. The medium to full-bodied palate is simply arresting, offering a a myriad floral and earth sparks amidst a black fruit core and with seamless, firm, very fine-grained tannins. Well-knit freshness brings forth layer after layer of delicate nuances on the very long, mineral-laced finish. The team at Eisele, led by Frédéric Engerer (of Chateau Latour) and beautifully orchestrated by winemaker Hélène Mingot, have knocked it out of the park this vintage with this singular expression that both embraces the site’s heritage and reveals parts unknown.” (100 pts. Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate, Oct. 2018)
Estimate: $800-$1,100
Starting Bid: $600
As I predicted last year, the 2013 Harlan Estate is one of their all-time greats, although they have had many of them, starting with the 1991, followed by 1994, 1995, 1997 (although controversial in some circles), 2001, 2002, 2005, 2007, 2010 and 2012. This great first-growth property, with aspirations to produce the finest Cabernet Sauvignon-based wine made in the New World, has given us a wine that has it all in 2013. Dense purple to the rim, with notes of espresso, white chocolate, mocha, blackberry, cassis, and cedar wood, the wine is full-bodied, opulent, but also structured, pure and incredibly long (well past a minute aftertaste). It is probably closest in personality and overall character to the compelling 2001, which is still a youthful wine at age 15. Drink it over the next 50+ years.” (100 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #227, Oct. 2016)

Estimate: $2,200-$3,000
Starting Bid: $1,700

The 2014 Harlan Estate is primarily Cabernet Sauvignon aged a minimum of 24 months in mostly new oak. It displays sweet graphite notes, some mulberry, blackberry and cassis, and touches of scorched earth and hot rocks, which always vaguely suggest something from the Northern Graves region of Bordeaux. However, it has a Pauillac-like structure, density and opulence. This is a wine of terrific fruit intensity and a vintage that’s very forward by Harlan Estate’s standards and already delicious to drink. It’s hard to compare to another vintage of Harlan, given its precociousness and already flattering style.” (96 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #227, Oct. 2016)

“A barrel sample of the 2015 Harlan Estate promises to be a replay of the rather exotic, enormously fruity, exhilarating and decadent 2002 Harlan Estate. It has incredible succrossity, richness, and that blackberry liqueur-like fruit intermixed with camphor and graphite. The wealth of fruit and gerycin in this full-bodied wine is mind-boggling, and it is actually probably going to be drinkable well before the slower maturing 2013.” (97-100 pts. “The deep garnet-purple colored 2016 Harlan Estate comes charging out of the glass, brandishing bold, opulent blackberry pie, warm cassis and blueberry preserves notes with hints of cigar box, Indian spices, crushed rocks and forest floor plus fragrant accents of lavender and black tea. Medium to full-bodied, the palate is built like a brick house, with a solid line of super ripe, grainy tannins and oodles of freshness supporting the layer upon layer of savory and earth-inspired notions, finishing on a lingering mineral note. Impressively structured, incredibly nuanced and possessing all this latent tension, this brazen beauty is set to live for a good 60 years and possibly more!” (100 pts. 56 Hundred Acre Cabernet Sauvignon 2013
Kayli Morgan Vineyard
Bottle (2)
“The perfect 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Kayli Morgan spent 32 months in French oak prior to being bottled unfiltered. Like all of the Woodbridge wines, it can be noted for its inky/bluish purple color, extraordinary fragrance of white flowers, crème de cassis, blackberry and graphite. Totally opulent, I always thought the wine tasted more like the great Pomerols, which are made mostly from Merlot, versus Woodbridge’s 100% Cabernet Sauvignon. But this vineyard has a lot of clay in it that seems to provide a silkiness to the tannins. This is a beautifully balanced, full-throttle and highly extracted wine with no hard edges and a finish of a good 45-50 seconds. The fruit character is still vibrant and intense, despite the 32 months of oak age. Drink it over the next 30 years.” (100 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #227, Oct. 2016)

There is more of this to go around the country – 200 cases. There is not much difference in power, massive extract, richness, length and profound aromatics and flavors, as this is just a prodigious wine. Perhaps the dosage of Merlot gives this more chocolate and espresso than the Pièce De Résistance, but it is a stunningly big, thick, juicy wine that somehow maintains balance and delineation.”

“The 2017 Screaming Eagle is a deeply intriguing, fascinating wine, as it represents just a small portion of the harvest in that only pre-fire lots were used here (and in The Flight). As a result, the 2017 is unusually bright and tightly wound, with a decidedly savory, mineral-infused, old school-leaning personality. I won’t be surprised if the 2017 turns out to be even better than this note suggests, although I also don’t expect I will taste it too often given that the entire production was bottled in magnum.” (96+ pts. Bottle (3)
“Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2015 Grenache E slides beguilingly out of the glass with a powerfully evocative, earthy/meaty nose of wood smoke, grilled meats, fragrant soil, truffles and iron ore with a core of kirsch, blackberry pie, Black Forest cake and aniseed plus touches of wild sage, rose hip tea and Indian spices. The palate is full-bodied, surprisingly muscular and built like a brick house with an unbelievable structure of very fine, densely pixilated tannins supporting the generous, multi-faceted layers, finishing with epic length, jaw-dropping texture and tons of cerebral mineral and spice nuances. WOW! ” (100 pts. Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate #243, Jun. 2019)

Bottle (3)
“Deep garnet-purple in color, the 2015 Syrah M starts off a little closed, slowly unfurling to show layer upon layer of savory notes: peppered salami, woodsmoke, marmite and black olives, beneath a profound core of preserved plums, blueberry coults and Chinese five spice with fragrant touches of fenugreek, Sichuan pepper, crushed rocks and mossy bark. Exquisitely textured with firm, rounded tannins, the taut, full-bodied, muscular fruit is laced with seamless freshness, finishing with fantastic persistence. This is a Syrah for the long haul!” (99 pts. Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate #243, Jun. 2019)

Ratsel 16
Bottle (6)
“Produced entirely from estate fruit, the 2016 Syrah Rätsel 16 offers up a brooding bouquet of smoky blackberries, French roast, cassis liqueur and subtle grilled meat, with only hints of all the savory complexity it will show down the line. On the palate, it’s full-bodied, layered and chewy, with a rich chassis of velvety structuring tannins, a deep, super concentrated core of fruit and a long, sapid finish. Like the Grenache Dirt Vernacular, it’s quite expressive and giving in profile by comparison with the firmer, more structural 2015s from Sine Qua Non, but its more brooding profile makes me suspect it has more potential upside with some time in bottle.” (96+ pts. William Kelley, Wine Advocate, Aug. 2018)

“...the 2015 Syrah Trouver L’Arene was made using 34% whole cluster and has a deep purple-black color with intense cassis, black plums and black cherries scents plus hints of anise, violets, sage and tar, with wafts of savory/smoked meat suggestions. Full-bodied, this voluptuous beauty is seriously singing in the mouth, belting out vibrant red and black fruit flavor layers, all framed by very fine, rounded, ripe tannins and a wonderful freshness, finishing with persistent perfumed fruit and a spring in its step.” (100 pts. 96  Sine Qua Non White 2017
Tectumque
Bottle (6)
“...offering up with seducing notes of tangerine peel, tropical fruits, paraffin wax and honeycomb with a floral undercurrent—orange blossom and honeysuckle—followed by a waist of allspice. The palate is full, rich and wonderfully creamy with compelling, juxtaposing phenolic grip. (Manfred thinks this phenolic attribute comes from the tiny Petit Manseng berries with very thick skins. These berries also lend a lot of natural acidity.) Possessing a very fresh, laser-fine line of vivacity, it finishes very long and incredibly fragrant. Given the structure, intensity and nature of the flavors, I foresee this aging with all the grace of a great Chateauneuf du Pape blanc and should easily cellar for 15-20+ years. (97+ pts. Chateau Lafite Rothschild 1995
Pauillac
Bottle (1)
“The 1995 Lafite-Rothschild (only one-third of the harvest made it into the final blend) is a blend of 75% Cabernet Sauvignon, 17% Merlot, and 8% Cabernet Franc... It exhibits a dark ruby purple color, and a sweet, powdered mineral, smoky, weedy cassis-scented nose. Beautiful sweetness of fruit is present in this medium-bodied, tightly-knit, but gloriously pure, well-delineated Lafite. The 1995 is not as powerful or as massive as the 1996, but it is beautifully made with outstanding credentials, in addition to remarkable promise.” (95 pts. “Chateau Margaux’s 1994 has always been one of the candidates for the ‘wine of the vintage.’ The wine still has a dense plum/ purple color and a big, sweet nose of black fruits intermixed with licorice, camphor, vanilla, and a hint of flowers. The wine is dense and powerful, but the tannins have softened and do not seem as hard and intrusive as they did in the late nineties.” (91+ pts. Robert Parker, Bordeaux Book 4th Ed., Jan. 2003)

“Deep garnet-black colour. An incredible array of aromas on the nose: blackberry, black cherry, tobacco, espresso, leather, black olive and loam. The palate is absolutely seamless from first impression to finish, effortlessly building layers of complexity in the mouth and leading to a very long, earth and spice finish. I can’t see how this could possibly be improvement so have no alternative but concede perfection.” (100 pts. Lisa Perrotti-Brown, In Asia, May 2009)

“The 1993 is a beautifully made wine which could be considered a sleeper of the vintage. The wine boasts a dark purple color, followed by a sweet, pain grillee, roasted nut, and cassis-scented bouquet that is just beginning to open. In the mouth, the wine may not possess the body and volume of a vintage such as 1990 or 1989, but there is more richness of fruit, a sweet, ripe, pureness to the wine, as well as medium body and outstanding balance.” (90 pts. “Approaching 20 years old, the nose is now open for business but remaining classic in style, a mixture of red and black fruit, hickory, cedar and just a hint of lavender. It is very complex and beautifully defined. The palate is medium-bodied with a slightly herbaceous, undergrowth-tinged opening, the tannins just a little abrasive at the moment, exerting a firmness in the mouth. I feel it is almost as if the palate has not kept pace with the aromatics, requiring more substance to fill out the foursquare finish.” (94 pts. Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #227, Oct. 2016)

Dominus Estate 1990
owc Bottle (6)
“In a blind tasting, both the 1990 and 1991 wines were identified as being French by all eight tasters. I pulled these wines from my cellar to insert as ringers, so I was particularly miffed at not getting their origin correct. In retrospect, I suppose I was somewhat surprised by just how great the 1990 performed in comparison with the profound 1991. I mistakenly thought the 1990 was a Medoc, with its cedary, spicy, tobacco, blackcurrant-scented nose, sweet, full-bodied flavors, high tannin, and low acidity. It is a superb Dominus that may be just beginning to close down. Rich and powerful, it is capable of lasting for 20+ years.” (95 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate, Feb. 1997)

“It exhibits an open knit, opulent, rich, easy-going character with gorgeous levels of earthy, cassis fruit intertwined with scents of herbs, coffee, and chocolate/mocha ice cream. Rich and full-bodied, with thick, viscous flavors and low acidity, this is a forward, exceptionally concentrated, easy to understand Dominus that should drink well for 20 years.” (95 pts. Dominus Estate 1994

“The wine exhibits a dense purple color, and an incredibly fragrant nose of jammy black fruits, spice, smoke, and loamy, truffle-like scents. In the mouth, it is full-bodied, with thrilling levels of extract and richness, but no sense of heaviness or harshness. This seamless Dominus possesses no hard edges, as its acidity, tannin, and alcohol are beautifully meshed with copious quantities of ripe fruit.” (99 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #114, Dec. 1997)

“The 1995 Dominus (6,000 cases produced from a blend of 80% Cabernet Sauvignon, 10% Cabernet Franc, 6% Petit Verdot, and 4% Merlot) is a ripe, plummy, supple, expansively-flavored wine with copious quantities of black currant fruit. Full-bodied and low in acidity, it possesses exceptional concentration and purity.” (93 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #114, Dec. 1997)
Estimate: $750-$950
Starting Bid: $600

Dominus Estate 1996
owc Bottle (6)
“The 1996 Dominus, a blend of 82% Cabernet Sauvignon, 10% Cabernet Franc, 4% Merlot, and 4% Petit Verdot, tips the scales at 14.2% alcohol. Although this offering lacks the power, intensity, and compelling characteristics of the 1991 and 1994, it is not far off the pace of those two monumental wines. A super nose of roasted coffee, chocolate, dried herbs, black fruits and kirsch is both intense and persuasive. The wine displays terrific richness, medium to full body, low acidity, a succulent, opulent texture, and superb purity. This beautifully made 1996 is one of the few wines that has successfully tamed the vintage’s elevated tannin level. It should be relatively drinkable upon its release, yet evolve nicely for two decades. Impressive!” (95 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #120, Dec. 1998)

“The 1998 Dominus’s dark ruby/plum color is accompanied by aromas of licorice, earth, plums, black fruits, and underbrush. While this medium-bodied 1998 possesses good depth, a spicy, open-knit complexity, and ripe tannin, it does not have the size, depth, or dimension of the previous eight vintages. Nevertheless, it is an elegant, Bordeaux-styled red for drinking over the next decade.” (88 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #142, Aug. 2002)

“It is an opaque purple-colored wine with spectacular ripeness, purity, and potential. Dense, full-bodied, with a chocolatey, toasty, mineral, and blackcurrant-scented nose, this wine has a rich, full-bodied, chewy texture nicely buttressed by ripe tannin. In addition, the wine reveals more noticeable tannin in the finish, particularly when it is compared to the 1992 or 1994. This is another 20-25 year wine.” (95 pts. “What can I say about the 1994? I have tasted the wine for three consecutive years, and each time it satisfied all of my requirements for perfection. The opaque purple color is followed by spectacular aromatics that soar from the glass, offering up celestial levels of black currants, minerals, smoked herbs, cedar wood, coffee, and pain grilé. In the mouth, this seamless legend reveals full body, and exquisite layers of phenomenally pure and rich fruit, followed by a 40+ second finish.” (100 pts. “This is an impressive effort from Opus One. The wine, a blend of 95% Cabernet Sauvignon, 2% Cabernet Franc, 2% Merlot, and 1% Malbec, possesses a dark ruby/purple color, followed by a generous, complex nose of lead pencil, toasty oak, violets, and black currants. In the mouth, there is a beautiful texture, soft, generous, low acid, full-bodied richness, and a stunningly proportioned, rich, intense finish. The influence of 18 months in new French oak casks gives the wine a subtle oaky note in addition to giving it excellent delineation. Because of the wine’s softness and generosity, it can be drunk now as well as over the next 18-20 years.” (92 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #114, Dec. 1997) precision, elegance and purity here with strikingly complex and refined flavors that are supple on the mid-palate but quite firm on the finish. There is the barest trace of warmth but it’s a background note and this is superbly classy juice. The ‘01 RSV laid to rest the now dated notion that this wine isn’t at the same level as the rest of the range here and this hammers home the point with authority. A great wine of enormous class and style and it is perhaps the freshest wine in the range in 2003.” (94 pts. Allen

“Although the 1995 remains tight and closed, it reveals classic Bonneau characteristics of roasted herbs, beef blood, cherries, cassis, licorice, and earth. These wines often taste as if someone took one of the old Grenache vines, threw it in a Cuisinart, liquefied it, added a bit of brandy, and then bottled it. This is classic Chateauneuf du Pape, the likes of which are increasingly difficult to find.” (93pts Robert M. Parker Jr., RobertParker.com, Dec. 2002)

Chateau Lafite Rothschild 1986

“...The 1986 Lafite-Rothschild continues to offer an exquisite bouquet at 30 years of age. This is beautifully defined, still full of energy, with copious blackberry, clove, leather and graphite aromas that seem to gain momentum in the glass. The palate is extremely well balanced with a crystalline quality, filigree tannin, perfectly pitched acidity, a quintessential Lafite-Rothschild with a sense of energy and focus undiminished by time. This finish displays immense purity and refinement, one of the most mineral-driven Lafites that I have encountered, whilst the aftertaste seems to linger for over one minute. It must rank as one of the finest wines from the estate.” (98 pts. Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #228, Dec. 2016)

Chateau Latour 1996
Pauillac
lscl, nl
Bottle (1)
“A spectacular Latour, the 1996 may be the modern day clone of the 1966, only riper... An opaque purple color is followed by phenomenally sweet, pure aromas of cassis infused with subtle minerals. This massive offering possesses unreal levels of extract, full body, intensely ripe, but abundant tannin, and a finish that lasts for nearly a minute. Classic and dense, it displays the potential for 50-75 years of longevity.” (99 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #129, June 2000)

“Consistently scoring between 98-100, the superb 1982 Margaux may be slightly bigger, bolder, and more masculine than vintages produced over the last 15-20 years. Its dark plum/purple color is followed by notes of melted tar intermixed with sweet cassis and floral undertones. Very full-bodied and dense for a Chateau Margaux, with a slight rusticity to the tannins, it boasts blockbuster power, richness, and impressive aromatics.” (98 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #183, June 2009)

Chateau Margaux 1986
Margaux
3lscl, 1wasl, 1sdc
Bottle (4)
“A magnificent example of Chateau Margaux and one of the most tannic, backward Margauxs of the last 50 years, the 1986 continues to evolve at a glacial pace. The color is still a dense ruby/purple with just a hint of lightening at the rim. With several hours of aeration, the aromatics become striking, with notes of smoke, toast, creme de cassis, mineral, and white flowers. Very full-bodied, with high but sweet tannin, great purity, and a very masculine, full-bodied style, this wine should prove nearly immortal in terms of its aging potential.” (98 pts. Robert Parker, Bordeaux Book 4th Ed., Jan. 2003)

Chateau Margaux 1995

“This still broods seriously, with dark plum, currant and blackberry fruit, studded with charcoal, singed tobacco and cedar notes and backed by a serious grip of roasted earth. The gorgeously long finish is driven by old-school tannins, with the smoldering edge going on and on. A brick house of a Margaux, with more charcoal than graphite, more austerity than elegance and more power than refinement.” (97 pts. James Molesworth, WineSpectator.com, 2014)

A CELLAR SLICE FROM ONE OF OUR WINE COLLECTING HEROES.
Seldom do we see a wine collector like the one where this collection originates. He has a meticulous, hard-nosed, accept-nothing-but-the-best way of life that guided him in his business career as well as his tenure in creating his $12,000,000 wine cellar. With him, everything begins with research and preparation, to be certain that the wines that end up in his collection are the best of the best and originate strictly from the finest sources. This collection just scratches the surface of what this client has to offer but as our first official partnership with him, we couldn’t be more excited. The provenance of this collection is unbelievable. Bottles with time-defying fills and conditions that get ones bidding hand to stay in the air. Wines like gorgeous bottles of 1966 Haut Brion, magnums of 1993 JF Mugnier Musigny and Les Amoureuses and 2004 Harlan—and so, so much more. All wines stored professionally in Westchester, NY. This collection is as good as it gets.

Chateau Cheval Blanc 1995
St. Emilion
Bottle (4)
“A pretty, attractive Cheval Blanc, the 1995 contains a higher percentage of Merlot in the final blend than usual (50% Merlot/50% Cabernet Franc). This wine has not developed as much fat or weight as its younger sibling, the 1996, but it appears to be an outstanding Cheval Blanc with an enthralling smoky, black currant, coffee, and exotic bouquet. Complex, rich, medium to full-bodied flavors are well-endowed and pure, with surprisingly firm tannin in the finish. Unlike the sweeter, riper 1996, the 1995 may be more structured and potentially longer-lived.” (92 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #115, Feb. 1999)

Chateau Cheval Blanc 1996
St. Emilion

“The elegant, moderately weighted 1996 Cheval Blanc reveals a deep garnet/plum, evolved color. Quintessentially elegant, with a complex nose of black fruits, coconut, smoke, and pain grille, this medium-bodied wine exhibits sweet fruit on the attack, substantial complexity, and a lush, velvety-textured finish. It is very soft and evolved for a 1996.” (90 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #122, Apr. 1999)

Chateau Haut Brion 1995
Pessac-Leognan

“...a deep ruby/purple-colored wine with a tight but promising nose of burning wood embers intermixed with vanilla, spice box, earth, mineral, sweet cherry, black currant, plum-like fruit, medium to full body, a high level of ripe but sweet tannin, and a finish that goes on for a good 40-45 seconds.” (96 pts. 174 Chateau Haut Brion 1996
Pessac-Leognan
6lbsl
Bottle (9)
“While in some vintages La Mission Haut-Brion and Haut-Brion can be close in quality, that is not the case in this vintage. The 1996 Haut-Brion, a blend of 50% Merlot, 39% Cabernet Sauvignon and 11% Cabernet Franc is clearly on a higher plane than the La Mission. There is something much more expansive and complete on the nose: greater depth of fruit, more harmonious with scents of underbrush, tar, black olive and this bottle perhaps less ‘feral’ than I have noticed on previous examples. The palate is very well balanced with dark cherries, sous-bois and cedar. This is one vintage where I think the Cabernet Franc plays an important role and lends more complexity. This is a 1996 that has retained and built upon beguiling freshness and it will continue to evolve with style and panache.” (95 pts. Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #227, Oct. 2016)
Estimate: $2,800-$3,750
Starting Bid: $2,200

175 Chateau Haut Brion 1997
Pessac-Leognan
Bottle (2)
“This light to middle-weight Haut-Brion exhibits an evolved, sweet red and black currant nose with notions of scorched earth, minerals, and tobacco. Although not big, it exhibits fine ripeness, harmony, and elegance, velvety tannin, and sweet fruit presented in a charming, open-knit, evolved format.” (89 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #128, Apr. 2000)
Estimate: $550-$750

176 Chateau Haut Brion 2003
Pessac-Leognan
1wasl
Bottle (11)
“The blockbuster 2003 Haut-Brion (13% alcohol) possesses extremely high tannin, but that component is well-concealed by a cascade of mulberry, blackberry, cherry, and plum-like fruit. There is even a hint of figs under the blue and red fruit spectrum. While broad and ripe with a sweet, glyceral mouthfeel as well as a long, powerful, persistent finish, it retains its elegance and nobility.” (95 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #164, Apr. 2006)

177 Chateau La Mission Haut Brion 1996

“A backward, somewhat austere, muscular style of La Mission Haut-Brion, the color is still a dense, opaque ruby/purple and the aromatics shut down but promising, offering up black fruit, a hint of chocolate, and some sweet oak. The wine is a brawny, muscular, full-bodied La Mission that is going to take some time to reach its apogee.” (90 pts. Robert Parker, Bordeaux Book, 4th Ed., Jan 2003)

“One of the wines of the vintage, the 2000 has barely budged in its evolution since it was bottled and released in 2002. After ten years in bottle, it still reveals a dense opaque purple color along with a potentially sensational bouquet of blueberries, black currants, graphite, asphalt and background oak. Extremely powerful, full-bodied and superbly concentrated with good acidity and high but round tannins, this massive La Mission-Haut-Brion should take its place among this estate’s most hallowed vintages when it hits full maturity in another one to two decades.” (100 pts. 182 Chateau Lafite Rothschild 1998
Pauillac
Bottle (7)
“A blend of 81% Cabernet Sauvignon and 19% Merlot, this wine represents only 34% of Lafite’s total harvest. In a less than perfect Medoc vintage, it has been spectacular since birth, putting on more weight and flesh over the last year. This opaque purple-colored 1998 is close to perfection. The spectacular nose of lead pencil, smoky, mineral, and black currant fruit soars majestically from the glass. The wine is elegant yet profoundly rich, revealing the essence of Lafite’s character. The tannin is sweet, and the wine is spectacularly layered yet never heavy. The finish is sweet, super-rich, yet impeccably balanced and long (50+ seconds).” (98 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #134, Apr. 2001)
Estimate: $3,750-$4,750
Starting Bid: $3,000

183 Chateau l’Angelus 2000
St. Emilion
Bottle (7)
“Approaching perfection, this wine is inky, bluish/purple-colored to the rim, offering up notes of incense, blueberry and blackberry liqueur, licorice, graphite and spring flowers. A touch of roasted espresso bean is also present. The wine has great concentration, a magnificent, full-bodied mouthfeel, stunning purity, and well-integrated acidity, tannin, alcohol and wood. This beauty seems to be in mid-adolescence with at least 25-30 years of life ahead.” (99 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #220, Aug. 2015)

It’s the quality of the tannins that’s impressive here. What a great and beautiful wine. Should improve for many years to come” (96 pts. James Suckling, Wine Spectator, 2009)

Starting Bid: $1,300

186 Chateau Latour 1995

193 Chateau Margaux 1999
Margaux
Bottle (2)
“The sexy, dark plum/purple-colored 1999 Margaux is already revealing complex aromatics. This surprisingly charming and round offering is reminiscent of a vintage such as 1985. Although neither a blockbuster nor a heavyweight, it grows in the mouth revealing tremendous length as well as purity. Administrator Paul Pontallier prefers it to the more austere 1998, as do I. This is an archetypical Chateau Margaux of richness, finesse, balance, and symmetry.” (94 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #140, Apr. 2002)

196 Chateau Mouton Rothschild 1998
Pauillac
nl
Bottle (3)
“Like many of its peers, the 1998 has filled out spectacularly. Now in the bottle, this opaque black/purple-colored offering has increased in stature, richness, and size. A blend of 86% Cabernet Sauvignon, 12% Merlot, and 2% Cabernet Franc (57% of the production was utilized), it is an extremely powerful, super-concentrated wine offering notes of roasted espresso, creme de cassis, smoke, new saddle leather, graphite, and licorice. It is massive, with awesome concentration, mouth-searing tannin levels, and a saturated flavor profile that grips the mouth with considerable intensity. This is a 50-year Mouton, but patience will be required as it will not be close to drinkability for at least a decade.” (96 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #134, Apr. 2001)

“Backward, powerful, and extremely tannic, the dense purple-colored 2003 Mouton-Rothschild, a blend of 76% Cabernet Sauvignon, 14% Merlot, 8% Cabernet Franc, and 2% Petit Verdot, fashioned from yields of 28 hectoliters per hectare, with a finished alcohol of 12.9%, improves dramatically with aeration. With full-bodied, meaty, powerful, dry flavors as well as a huge finish, this high class wine should be at its finest between 2012-2040+.” (95+ pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #164, Apr. 2006)

“In a vintage that produced a lot of high acid, emaciated dry whites, Haut-Brion’s 1996 is the wine of the vintage. It displays exceptional concentration, tangy acidity, and gorgeously layered flavors of buttery citrus-like fruit, olives, and smoke. This medium-bodied, concentrated wine is quite backward. It will need a considerable amount of bottle age to shed some of its structure.” (93 pts. Robert Parker, Bordeaux Book 3rd Ed., Dec. 1997)

"The difference between Chambertin and Clos de Bèze is sharply etched in 2004 as this is cooler, bigger, richer and more powerful though less elegant and with a more limited range of spices specifically and aromatic breadth in general. The medium full flavors are reserved, tight, precise and very pure with extraordinarily good punch and precision, all wrapped in a firm, dusty and linear finish. I particularly like the mouth coating quality of the flavors as there is ample dry extract here, which serves to perfectly buffer the firmly tannic spine. Outstanding stuff and while not a truly great Rousseau Chambertin, it’s knocking on the door.” (93 pts. Allen Meadows, Burghound #25, Jan. 2007)

“This too displays noticeable oak influence but it’s a bit more subtle because the wonderfully expressive nose of black pinot fruit and spice aromas offer more of a backdrop for the wood. The flavor profile is intense, seductive and spicy with a wonderfully textured and velvety character to the big, rich, forceful flavors of uncommon depth and astonishing length. I underestimated this marginally from barrel and the ‘02 Riche is long and very stylish and is a clear notch up from the otherwise extremely impressive Clos de Vougeot.” (94pts Allen Meadows, Burghound #17, Jan 2005)

“Still relatively if no longer completely primary with a nose that is the crystalline essence of black cherry pinot sap and leads to massively structured and thick flavors with dense, ripe tannins that are completely buffered by all the extract. This is flat out great and still quite youthful though the initial signs of maturity are now evident. In my view, this is the best de Vogüé Musigny since at least ’71 and is a monument in the making as it will live for 50 years without breathing hard. Multiple, and largely consistent, notes though a few bottles have seemed excessively hard on the dry finish. Still, the two most recent bottles were almost perfect with a silky mouth feel and well-integrated tannins.” (97 pts. Allen Meadows, Burghound, Dec. 2011)

“Massive aromas of red and black fruits and a fascinating array of spices and violets with austere yet regal soil inflected flavors of incredible density. This is arguably 100% pure extract of pinot yet the textural impact does not come across as syrupy or viscous. There is superb balance to go with the serious nature of this wine and it simply reeks class. Wine simply doesn’t get much better. It is Musigny such as this that forcefully puts forth the question as to whether this isn’t the greatest dirt in all of Burgundy (there are of course rebuttals to the question but not many).” (95 pts. A positively brilliant nose of violet and rose petal shines against a background of intensely spiced extravagant red and black pinot fruit nuanced by hints of earth and stone and this minerality continues onto the surprisingly supple flavors that convey a remarkable sense of energy and power on the almost unbelievably intense, focused and structured finish that seems to go on and on without end. And the ’05 VV has what all truly great burgundies have which is that extra dimension of power without weight as this carries terrific punch and power yet delivers that explosiveness with impeccable class and grace.” (99 pts. I really like the purity of expression here on the sappy and mineral-infused finish that has a dusty quality from all of the dry extract that coats the firm tannins. This is a big ’07 built on a base of firm minerality but it remains impeccably well balanced and should live for decades so patience is definitely a virtue if you are a potential buyer.” (95 pts. I love the way Musigny can so effortlessly combine a silky palate impression with serious muscle. This should be quite impressive in time though note that it will need a minimum of 18 to 25 years of cellar time.” (93pts Allen Meadows, Burghound #41, Jan. 2011)

“Always one of the most consistent performers in the Faiveley portfolio, the ’99 Mazis is nothing short of superb with its beautifully dark ruby color and deep, brooding aromas of earth, iron, traces of leather and dried herbs followed by intense, penetrating, full-bodied, rich, slightly wild, gamey flavors all perfectly framed by outstanding fruit/acid balance. Though not quite as detailed and mineral-laden as the equally impressive ’99 Latricières, this too is very long with terrific persistence and simply oozes the unmistakable class and power of a Gevrey grand cru. There is so much pinot baby fat that this is deceptively approachable now but it will age and improve for at least a decade and drink well for another. The mid-palate is still relatively tight with flavors that are so precise that they seem to etch themselves into your palate before joining with a seamless finish that seems to go on and on. Mugnier once told me that this is the finest wine he has ever made and I don’t doubt it for a second. This is “thrill a second” juice that should drink well for another 15 to 20 years, perhaps longer. The word ‘brilliant’ does not seem adequate to describe just how good this wine is.” (97 pts. “As I reported last year, the 1997 Cabernet Sauvignon Madrona Ranch is a perfect Cabernet Sauvignon. It has been in bottle for over a year, and this wine, like all the others, has easily soaked up its aging in 100% new Taransaud barrels. It is a sumptuous, unctuously-textured, fabulously concentrated Cabernet Sauvignon that hits all the sweet spots on the palate, and puts the olfactory senses into overdrive. The wine smells and tastes perfect. 254  Colgin Red 2006
Cariad Bottle (3)
“Meriting the same rating I gave it at its release, the 2006 Cariad is composed of 57% Cabernet Sauvignon, 25% Merlot, 11% Cabernet Franc and 7% Petit Verdot. One of the stars of the vintage, this thrilling, opaque purple-colored wine offers up sweet espresso, jus de viande, blackberry, blueberry, flower and chocolate aromas. A fabulous texture, tremendous purity, sensational brightness and authoritative flavor intensity allied to striking complexity and elegance are the signature of this creative blend from the David Abreu vineyards of Thorevilos and Madrona Ranch.” (98 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #195, June 2011)
Estimate: $600-$800
Starting Bid: $475

255  Colgin Red 2003
IX Estate Bottle (3)
“The 2003 IX Proprietary Red Wine, a blend of 64% Cabernet Sauvignon, 31% Merlot, and the rest Cabernet Franc and a dollop of Petit Verdot, demonstrates how fabulous the fruit from the estate vineyard can be. Beautiful scents of crushed rocks, spring flowers, licorice, charcoal, blackberries, and cassis are stunningly pure and complex. This opulent, intense, well-balanced, compelling, full-bodied wine appears to have softened considerably over the last year.” (95 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #168, Dec. 2006)
Estimate: $475-$600
Starting Bid: $375

256  Colgin Red 2004
IX Estate Bottle (3)
“The 2004 IX Proprietary Red Wine (1,258 cases from a blend of 59% Cabernet Sauvignon, 22% Merlot, 13% Cabernet Franc, and 6% Petit Verdot) is amazing out of bottle. Flamboyant, super-fragrant aromas of graphite, creme de cassis, espresso roast, flowers, and the entire black and blue fruit spectrum jump from the glass of this gorgeous wine. In the mouth, silky tannin and a multi-dimensional, skyscraper-like mouthfeel are offered without heaviness or coarseness. This totally profound wine exhibits what a great site, extraordinary winemaking, and a commitment to excellence can produce.” (98 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #168, Dec. 2006)
Estimate: $500-$700
Starting Bid: $400
257 Colgin Red 2005
IX Estate
Bottle (4)
“My favorite of the 2005 Colgins is the 2005 IX Proprietary Red Estate, a blend of 64% Cabernet Sauvignon, 21% Merlot, and the rest Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot. The good news is that there are 1,500 cases of this blockbuster wine, which has a Bordeaux framework but the exuberance and richness as well as fruit purity of a great Napa wine. Deep purple in color with an extraordinary nose of scorched earth, blueberries, and black currants intermixed with some subtle charcoal notes, spice, box and spring flowers, it is very full-bodied, but beautifully structured and well-delineated. With good acidity despite what is an extremely high pH (3.9), the total acids are reasonable. This is a beauty of harmony, power, and great intensity, but it is light on its feet, and an exceptional example of what this high-elevation hillside estate vineyard is capable of producing.” (97 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #180, Dec. 2008)
Estimate: $850-$1,200
Starting Bid: $650

258 Colgin Red 2006
IX Estate
Bottle (4)
“From the Pritchard Hill Vineyard, the 2006 IX Proprietary Red Estate is a blend of 66% Cabernet Sauvignon, 21% Merlot, 8% Cabernet Franc, and 5% Petit Verdot. The good news is that there are 1,500 cases of this cuvee. It, too, reveals the noble sweetness of tannin, the extraordinary rich, intense mouthfeel, and sumptuous aromas of flowers, burning embers, blackberries, blueberries, spice box, and cedar. With extraordinary intensity, beautiful purity, a texture and flavors that build incrementally on the palate, and a significantly long finish, this is a perfect wine.” (100 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #180, Dec. 2008)
Estimate: $1,300-$1,700
Starting Bid: $1,000

259 Harlan Estate Cabernet Sauvignon 2000
1ml
Bottle (4)
“A Graves-like perfume of roasted coffee, scorched earth, black currants, cedar, and a hint of menthol emerge from this dense dark ruby/purple-colored 2000. Lighter than normal, but medium to full-bodied and elegant, with soft tannin as well as a silky, precocious personality and texture...” (91 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #150, Dec. 2003)
Estimate: $1,600-$2,000
Starting Bid: $1,200

260 Harlan Estate Cabernet Sauvignon 2003
Bottle (3)
“The bottled 2003 Harlan Estate is as good or even better than I had hoped. With a dark ruby/purple color, silky tannin, and abundant quantities of licorice, graphite, chocolate, espresso, black currant, truffle, and earthy characteristics, it comes across like a hypothetical blend of a top-notch Pauillac and Graves.” (95 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #168, Dec. 2006)
Estimate: $1,400-$1,800
Starting Bid: $1,100

261 Harlan Estate Cabernet Sauvignon 2004
Bottle (1)
“The 2004 Harlan Estate is probably the most precocious and accessible Harlan Estate that this perfectionist team has made. Already compelling, the wine has notes of roasted coffee, charcoal, blackberry, spring flowers, and some background sweet, toasty notes. Dense, fleshy, exuberant, even flamboyant by the standards of Bill Harlan, this wine exhibits no jaggedness or rough edges, has relatively high tannins, but they melt away on the palate.” (98 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #174, Dec. 2007)
Estimate: $475-$600
Starting Bid: $375

262 Harlan Estate Cabernet Sauvignon 2005
Bottle (1)
“The 2005 is incredibly youthful at age ten, although certainly drinkable. And who wouldn’t consume it if they had the opportunity? It will benefit from another 5-10 years of cellaring and certainly has 30 or more years left in its evolutionary curve. Gorgeous, and tasting akin to a hypothetical Pauillac blended with a great Pessac-Leognan from Bordeaux comes to mind because of the smoky, subtle barbecue notes, fruitcake, forest floor, graphite and minerality. The wine has stunning fruit and a full-bodied, powerful richness, yet is still nimble on its feet. This is a classic Napa Cabernet Sauvignon from an absolutely magnificent hillside vineyard in the Mayacamas Mountains overlooking the Oakville corridor on the valley floor. This opaque, garnet/purple wine is another tour de force and, once again, proves that Harlan Estate is not only one of the greatest wines of California, but of the world.” (98+ pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #219, June 2015)
Estimate: $475-$600
Starting Bid: $375

263 Harlan Estate Cabernet Sauvignon 2006
Bottle (3)
“The 2006 Harlan Estate has turned out better than I originally predicted. Its dense ruby/purple color is followed by classic aromas of creme de cassis, melted licorice, smoked meats, burning embers, and graphite. It has thrown off some of the tannic clout it displayed last year, revealing great balance.” (96 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #186, Dec. 2009)
Estimate: $1,200-$1,500
Starting Bid: $950

264 Sloan Red 2005
Bottle (3)
“The 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon has an almost La Mission Haut-Brion-like, scorched earth nose intermixed with cassis, coffee, and subtle hints of chocolate and balsamic. The wine is rich, full-bodied, but with great elegance and palate presence, without being heavy. Every wine to date has displayed considerable tannin, but even more concentration and fruit, so it is not an issue of the wines drying out, but rather requiring some patience before the complexity, which is already showing promise, emerges and the wines soften. This is a brilliant 2005 that is certainly one of the top wines of the vintage but needs some time in the bottle.” (96+ pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #180, Dec. 2008)

A BRILLIANT CELLAR FROM A MASTER CHEF.
The following collection comes from the personal cellar of one of the world’s greatest chefs. Gabriel Kreuther, of his eponymous 2-star Michelin restaurant located in the Grace Building along NYC’s 42nd Street, has been a passionate collector of fine wine since his youth. Raised on his family’s farm in Niederschaeffolsheim, a small village in the north of Alsace, Chef Kreuther was raised with fine wine in his blood. During his travails of working in the finest kitchens from Strasbourg to Switzerland to Germany to Washington DC, Chef Kreuther had collected heavily and had stored his wine in each of those places—establishing his vinous ports in a storm to be ready when needed.

Chef Kreuther’s diversity of regions in his wine collection is as manifold as his specialties in the kitchen. From Bordeaux to Burgundy to the Northern Rhone to Italy and to California, there are wines contained in this collection that will be on the top of the list for any and all serious collectors. As this consignment came to fruition, we had arranged for all of Kreuther’s wine cellars spaced throughout the western world to find their way to Heritage’s cellar in North Hollywood. What we found were wines with impeccable provenance and very high fills for their age. There are some faded and well-worn labels in the collection, namely from the wines that were stored in the turnip cellar of his family’s farm in Alsace, but please be assured that what is contained inside is beyond reproach. Bid with high confidence.

266 Marcassin Chardonnay 2000
Marcassin Vineyard
1btl 1lbsl
Bottle (3)
“The surprisingly youthful, light gold/greenish-colored 2000 exhibits a bouquet of mandarin oranges, buttered citrus, brioche, smoke, toast and honeyed pears. This young, full-bodied wine is not yet as complex as some older vintages, but it is bright, vibrant and exuberant.” (96 pts. Robert M. Parker, Jr., Wine Advocate #201, Jun. 2012)
Estimate: $750-$950
Starting Bid: $600

267 Penfold’s Grange 1997
Bottle (2)
“The 1997 Grange (a blend of 96% Shiraz and 4% Cabernet Sauvignon) looks to be a classic Grange, although slightly softer and more forward than the backward 1996. The saturated purple-colored 1997 offers a gorgeously sweet nose of blackberry liqueur, cherries, camphor, chocolate, plums, and mocha. The wine is opulently-textured, extremely soft, layered, and seductive, with Grange’s tell-tale personality well-displayed, but in a seamless, seductive style. This is a superb Grange that can hold its own against the more heralded 1996.” (94 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #143, Oct. 2002)
Estimate: $500-$700
Starting Bid: $400

268 Penfold’s Grange 1999
Bottle (2)
“Dense ruby/purple to the edge, with a bouquet of blackberries, mulberries, and floral-like aromas, and medium to full body, the 1999 has an acid punch, but also tremendous layers of fruit and extract.” (92 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #155, Oct. 2004)

270 Chateau Clinet 1995
Pomerol
Bottle (8)
“Another extraordinary wine made in a backward vin de garde style, the 1995 Clinet represents the essence of Pomerol. The blackberry, cassis liqueur-like fruit of this wine is awesome. The color is saturated black/purple, and the wine extremely full-bodied and powerful with layers of glycerin-imbued fruit, massive richness, plenty of licorice, blackberry, and cassis flavors, full body, and a thick, unctuous texture. This is a dense, impressive offering from administrator Jean-Michel Arcaute. This wine should continue to improve for another 10-25 years.” (96 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #115, Feb. 1998)

Chateau Haut Brion 1993
Pessac-Leognan

“...The color is a surprisingly saturated deep plum/ruby. Some sweet berry fruit intermixed with menthol, graphite, damp earth, and a hint of mushroom emerges in this medium-bodied, very elegant Haut Brion that is still firmly structured but has sweet tannin and surprising length and ripeness.” (90 pts. Chateau Haut Brion 1996
Pessac-Leognan
1lbsl, 1nl

“...While in some vintages La Mission Haut-Brion and Haut-Brion can be close in quality, that is not the case in this vintage. The 1996 Haut-Brion, a blend of 50% Merlot, 39% Cabernet Sauvignon and 11% Cabernet Franc is clearly on a higher plane than the La Mission. There is something much more expansive and complete on the nose; greater depth of fruit, more harmonious with scents of underbrush, tar, black olive and this bottle perhaps less ‘feral’ than I have noticed on previous examples. The palate is very well balanced with dark cherries, sous-bois and cedar. This is one vintage where I think the Cabernet Franc plays an important role and lends more complexity. This is a 1996 that has retained and built upon beguiling fleshiness and it will continue to evolve with style and panache.” (95 pts. Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #227, Oct. 2016)

Chateau l’Eglise Clinet 2008
Pomerol

“A remarkable wine in this vintage, L’Eglise Clinet’s 2008 has a color almost as dark as the barrel sample of 2010. Classic mocha and caramel-infused creme de cassis and black cherry notes, with hints of licorice and loamy soil soar from the glass of this opaque ruby/purple, aromatically compelling wine. Opulent, expansive, and savory, with a broad texture, a full-bodied mouthfeel, terrific purity and a layered finish, this is another big, massive wine that transcends the vintage character, and will probably need 7-10 years of bottle age. It should keep for 20 or more years as well.” (95 pts. Robert M. Parker, Jr., Wine Advocate #194, May 2011).

Estimate: $450-$550
Starting Bid: $350

Chateau Leoville Las Cases 1995
St. Julien
1lbsl

“...The wine boasts an opaque ruby/purple color, and exceptionally pure, beautifully knit aromas of black fruits, minerals, vanillin, and spice. On the attack, it is staggeringly rich, yet displays more noticeable tannin than its younger sibling. Exceptionally ripe cassis fruit, the judicious use of toasty new oak, and a thrilling mineral character intertwined with the high quality of fruit routinely obtained by Las Cases, make this a compelling effort. There is probably nearly as much tannin as in the 1996, but it is not as perfectly sweet as in the 1996. The finish is incredibly long in this classic. Only 35% of the harvest was of sufficient quality for the 1995 Leoville-Las-Cases.” (95 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #115, Feb. 1998)

Estimate: $750-$950

282  Chateau Leoville Las Cases 1999
St. Julien
Bottle (7)
“The 1999 Leoville Las Cases possesses a dense purple color as well as classic aromas of vanilla, black cherries, and currants mixed with subtle toasty oak. The wine is medium-bodied with sweet tannin, yet it remains young, backward, and unevolved (unusual for a 1999). Its extraordinary purity and overall harmony give it a character all its own. This excellent Las Cases will be at its finest between 2006-2022.” (91 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #140, Apr. 2002)

“A blockbuster, dark plum/garnet-colored wine, the 1982 L’Evangile reveals a decadent, extravagantly rich nose of caramelized fruit, plum, licorice, smoked meats, and toffee. This opulent, full-bodied Pomerol caresses the palate with layers and layers of glycerin and fruit. The tannin is barely noticeable in this massive, rich, gorgeous effort. The complexity of the nose alone is worth a special admission price.” (98 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #183, June 2009)

287  Chateau Montrose 1998

“A classic effort, the 1998 Montrose exhibits a dense purple color in addition to a sweet nose of jammy cassis, licorice, earth, and smoke. It is a powerful and full-bodied wine with well-integrated tannin. Given Montrose’s tendency to shut down, it is performing better out of bottle than I expected.” (90pts Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #134, April 2001)

“It is a profound Petrus, and certainly one of the great Petrus’ of the last half century. The wine has a huge nose of cedar, caramel, vanilla, tobacco, fruitcake, and licorice-infused black cherry jam. It is unctuously textured and very full-bodied, with extraordinary sweetness and glycerin, and a layered, viscous finish. This wine should continue to drink well for at least another 20 years.” (99 pts. Robert Parker, Bordeaux Book 4th Ed., Jan. 2003)

Starting Bid: $3,500

290  Chateau Trotanoy 1970
Pomerol
bn
Bottle (3)
“One immediately discerns a deep garnet core, while the first sniff is like hearing the thundering of horses in the distance, presaging a spellbinding bouquet of iodine, macerated dark cherries, a hint of eucalyptus and with time, Japanese green tea (the traditional, “stand your spoon it type”). The palate is full-bodied with a velvety smooth texture, powerful and, I think, with more substance than the impressive 1971. The 1970 Trotanoy has broader shoulders, perhaps not quite the same level of elegance but an enormous length on the opulent, almost marmalade-like finish. There is a faint tang of black olives lingering on the aftertaste. This is a stunning Trotanoy…with still some way to go. “ (96pts Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #231, June 2017)

291 Chateau Trotanoy 1975
Pomerol
2ts,1bn,1hbsl,2bsl
Bottle (3)
“...I was struck by the depth of its color. The bouquet is almost ineffably complex, a mixture of red and black fruit, black truffle (indicating its Pomerol origins), sage and dried rose petals. It was the delineation and sheer confidence of the aromatics that leaves you spellbound. The palate is beautifully structured, very Left Bank in style thanks to its tarry nature, yet bridled with disarming tension and energy from start to finish. There is a twist of sour cherry right on the aftertaste, completing a stunning Trotanoy. I very much doubt I will ever encounter an example of this outstanding Pomerol as good as this again.” (97pts Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #229, Feb. 2017)
Estimate: $900-$1,200
Starting Bid: $700

292 Chateau Trotanoy 1998
Pomerol
Bottle (8)
“The finest Trotanoy since the 1961, this structured, formidably-endowed, deep ruby/purple-colored, full-bodied, super-rich wine exhibits notes of toffee, truffles, and abundant blackberry, cherry, and currant fruit. It cuts a large swath across the palate, and possesses copious but sweet tannin as well as a chewy, muscular mid-palate and finish. This is a compelling effort from one of the great vineyards of Pomerol.” (96+pts. Robert Parker, Bordeaux Book 4th Ed., Jan. 2003)
Estimate: $1,900-$2,600
Starting Bid: $1,500

293 Clos l’Eglise 1998
Pomerol

“A classic Pomerol, the 1998 boasts a superb, complex bouquet of mocha fudge, vanilla, black cherries, roasted coffee, smoke, and berries. The dazzlingly explosive aromatic display is followed by a creamy-textured, medium to full-bodied, beautifully-layered wine with no hard edges. A supple texture leads to a finish with notes of caramel and spice that lingers for over 40 seconds. This is a gorgeous, complex Pomerol.” (93 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #134, Apr. 2001)

Starting Bid: $425

294 Clos l’Eglise 2009
Pomerol

“The 2009 is one of the sexiest wines in Pomerol in this vintage, offering up notes of melted caramel, sweet mocha, blackberry and black cherry fruit, with hints of loamy soil and unsmoked cigar tobacco as well as a touch of white chocolate and some subtle toasty oak. Round, opulent and unctuously textured, with a full-bodied mouthfeel, fabulous purity, and no hard edges, this sumptuous, fleshy, lavishly rich Pomerol can be drunk now and over the next 25 years.” (98 pts. “An expressive and very ripe black berry fruit, spice, mocha, fresh coffee and earthy nose is surrounded by a generous blast of new oak that continues onto the rich, full, concentrated, powerful and sweet flavors that possess superb mid-palate density and huge length. This is an extremely rich wine and because of the influence of the wood, the detail that will very likely come with time in bottle has not yet developed but this is so concentrated yet balanced that it’s only a matter of time. This will live for ages and somewhat surprisingly, this is actually approachable now simply because it is so concentrated yet I suspect that when this finally shuts down, it will stay there for the better part of a decade. In a word, fantastic.” (96 pts. Allen Meadows, Burghound #29, Jan. 2008)

La Mouline, E. Guigal
1wisl
Bottle (2)
“This is one of the most extraordinary wines made in the world. As I have said many times, if I were ever stranded on the proverbial desert island with only one wine to drink, it would have to be La Mouline. A compelling perfume of violets, black raspberries, coffee, pepper, and pain grille soars from the glass. Medium to full-bodied and lush, with a terrific multi-layered texture and outstanding purity, this is a phenomenal example of La Mouline. It possesses enough structure and substance to last for two decades, although it will be delicious upon release.” (96-98 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #121, Feb. 1999)

“Smelling like a raspberry and Port reduction, this manages to let an enormous core of bittersweet chocolate, plum compote, chocolate ganache and exotic spice flavors glide across the palate. Its obvious muscularity strides in on the finish and the flavors echo almost endlessly.” (97 pts. James Molesworth, Wine Spectator, Jul. 2004)

319  Chateauneuf du Pape 2003
Cuvee Marie Beurrier, H. Bonneau
Bottle (5)
“This cuvee has gotten better year by year. It was overly dry, hard, and austere in its youth, but it has filled out nicely, and his incredibly long élevage in old small barrels appears to have concentrated the wines in a way that only Bonneau can achieve, and neither Bonneau nor any modern oenologist can offer an idea as to why these wines turn out so remarkably given the cellar conditions. There are so many unidentified mushroom-like growths sprouting from the walls and, occasionally, on the outside of the barrels. Thank God for such mysteries!” (90-93 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #179, Oct. 2008)
Estimate: $600-$800
Starting Bid: $475

320  Chateauneuf du Pape 1998
Cuvee Speciale, H. Bonneau
3wisl
Bottle (6)
“Bonneau’s 1998 Chateauneuf du Pape Cuvee Speciale is something along the lines of 16.5%-plus natural alcohol with about 4-5% residual sugar. It is an amazing wine that tastes relatively dry, with huge extract of blackberries, roasted meats, and sweet strawberries and cherries intermixed with licorice, smoke and pepper. It makes a massive introduction on the palate and expands vertically, as if it were a skyscraper. It is intense, rich, and compelling, and no doubt capable of lasting 30-40 years.” (96pts Robert M. Parker Jr., Wine Advocate #163, Feb 2006)
Estimate: $3,750-$4,750
Starting Bid: $3,000

321  Chateauneuf du Pape 1998
Reserve des Celestins, H. Bonneau
1nl
Bottle (3)
“Powerful, full-bodied, alcoholic flavors, redolent with truffle, meat juices, roasted herbs, tar, sweaty saddle leather, plum, and soy, are incredibly complex but also provocative, and no doubt controversial. In the mouth, the wine is fleshy, full-bodied, thick, and juicy, pushing the level of ripeness to the limit.” (96 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #189, June 2010)
Estimate: $1,500-$2,000
Starting Bid: $1,200

322  Chateauneuf du Pape 2005
Reserve des Celestins, H. Bonneau
Bottle (6)
...The 2005 Chateauneuf du Pape Reserve des Celestins was much more open, rounded and sexy than the more austere, angular Marie Beurrier. This is a gorgeous, classic effort by Bonneau that’s overflowing with notions of sweet Grenache fruit, Provençal garrigue, cured meats, beef blood and spice. The aromatics alone are worth the price of admission, and the palate doesn’t lose a beat, with full-bodied richness, a full, layered, concentrated mid-palate and sweet tannin on the finish. Like the Marie Beurrier, the acidity here is elevated, yet in this case, it’s beautifully woven into the wine. It offers serious pleasure now, yet will have no problems continuing to evolve nicely for another 15+ years.” (96 pts. Jeb Dunnuck, Wine Advocate #217, Feb. 2015)
Estimate: $1,900-$2,600
Starting Bid: $1,500

323  Châteauneuf du Pape 2007
Reserve des Celestins, H. Bonneau
Bottle (7)
“...It’s a classic 2007 that has overflowing kirsch, sweet black cherry, garrique, incense and ground pepper aromas and flavors. Sexy, supple and hedonistic, it’s one mouthful of a Châteauneuf that has no shortage of sweet fruit, texture or length. And given this showing, there’s certainly no harm in drinking this in its youth either.” (97 pts. Jeb Dunnuck, Wine Advocate #215, Oct. 2014)
Estimate: $2,400-$3,250
Starting Bid: $1,900

324  Châteauneuf du Pape 2011
Reserve des Celestins, H. Bonneau
Bottle (5)
“Like the Marie Beurrier, the 2011 Châteauneuf du Pape Reserve des Celestins shows the sunny warmth of the vintage with its killer perfume of sweet red and black fruits, pepper, smoked herbs and Provençal garrique. Medium to full-bodied, sexy and with ripe tannin, it’s not a blockbuster, but is about as Provençal as it gets. It will drink nicely right from the get-go and I suspect not shut down.” (93-95 pts. Jeb Dunuck, Wine Advocate #221, Oct. 2015)

326  Ermitage 1989
Le Pavillon, M. Chapoutier
3lbsl
Bottle (3)
“The 1989 Le Pavillon is a prodigious wine. Made from yields of 14 hectoliters per hectare, this parcel of old vines (averaging 70-80 years of age) has produced an opaque black/purple-colored wine, with a hauntingly stunning bouquet of violets, cassis, minerals, and new oak. In the mouth, the similarity in texture, richness, and perfect balance to the compelling 1986 Mouton-Rothschild is striking, only this wine is richer and longer. This extraordinarily well-balanced wine will probably not be ready to drink for at least 5-10 years, but it will evolve for three decades or more.” (100 pts. Robert Parker, Rhone Book, Jan. 1997)
Estimate: $750-$950
Starting Bid: $600

327  Ermitage 1990
Le Pavillon, M. Chapoutier
4lbsl
Bottle (4)
“The 1990 Le Pavillon is as compelling as the 1989. It exhibits slightly less opulence, but more power and weight. Black colored, with an extraordinary perfume of licorice, sweet blackcurrants, smoke, and minerals, it coats the palate with layer upon layer of decadently rich, superconcentrated, nearly viscous Syrah flavors. There is amazing glycerin, a chewy, urceulous texture, and phenomenal length. The tannins, which are considerable when analyzed, are virtually obscured by the massive quantities of fruit.” (100 pts. Robert Parker, Rhone Book, Jan. 1997)

Le Pavillon, M. Chapoutier

“...The 1996 Hermitage Le Pavillon needs at least a decade of cellaring. The wine possesses a saturated black/purple color, in addition to fabulously sweet aromas of blackberries, framboise, blueberries, violets, roasted herbs, and meats. Massively concentrated and full-bodied, with staggering levels of extract, this wine is super pure, with high tannin, good but not intrusive acidity, and a 45-second finish. This is one of the superstars of the vintage in France!” (96 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #121, Feb. 1999)

“Deep, rich and full-throttle, yet still elegant and focused, the 2005 Ermitage Cuvee de l'Oree is 100% Marsanne from the Les Murets lieu-dit and was brought up all in demi-muids. Offering off the hook notes of quince, honeysuckle, liquid rock, orange blossom and sautéed peach, this beauty hits the palate with full-bodied richness, notable freshness and purity, and a crazy long finish. White wine doesn’t get much better, and this beauty will have another two to three decades of longevity.” (99pts Jeb Dunnuck, Wine Advocate #223, Mar. 2016)

337 Krug Vintage Champagne 2000
Clos d’Ambonnay

“An elegant, almost ethereal Champagne, showing a subtle richness and power, with vibrant acidity and a beautifully creamy mousse carrying the finely meshed flavors of Chambord liqueur, singed orange peel, biscuit and spun honey, accented by hints of toasted almond, saline and smoke that gain momentum and echo on the finish.” (95 pts. Alison Nappia, Wine Spectator, Nov. 2015)

339 Vouvray 1947
Le Haut Lieu, Moelleux, Huet
Bottle (2)
“From a legendary vintage (“the most highly respected Loire vintage of the 20th Century” – Richard Kelly), Gaston Huet’s dark amber-clored 1947 Vouvray Le Haut Lieu Moelleux opens with a very clear, intense and concentrated bouquet of super ripe peaches, apricots, and blood oranges mingled with fresh lime and coolish mineral flavors; it is highly elegant and noble in its beautiful balance and intensity. Powerful, sweet, intense and very rich on the palate, this is an absolutely exceptional wine: dense, intense and finesse-full, with firm yet delicate tannins and an endless fruit intensity. There is mind-blowing balance, tension and freshness here. The finish is so pure and salty, so firm and intense that this quintessence of Chenin Blanc should go for another 50 years.” (100 pts. 342 Vega Sicilia Unico 1970
Bottle (1)
“For many years, the 1970 Unico was the greatest Spanish wine that I had ever tasted, and although this was not the same caliber as the previous perfect example, it remains a fabulous wine. It is a blend of 70% Tinto Fino, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon and 10% Merlot and Malbec and aged for ten years in barriques. It has a thrilling Bordeaux-like personality on the nose that is more aloof than other vintages. The Cabernet component in the blend is pronounced, forming the backbone and austerity of this wine. However, you cannot deny its power and its breeding, or indeed its obdurate, masculine finish that demands respect.” (97 pts. Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #202, Aug. 2012)
Estimate: $550-$750
Starting Bid: $425
Lot 344
Dominus Estate 1994
Bottle (4)
“The wine exhibits a dense purple color, and an incredibly fragrant nose of jammy black fruits, spice, smoke, and loamy, truffle-like scents. In the mouth, it is full-bodied, with thrilling levels of extract and richness, but no sense of heaviness or harshness. This seamless Dominus possesses no hard edges, as its acidity, tannin, and alcohol are beautifully meshed with copious quantities of ripe fruit.” (99 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #114, Dec. 1997)
Estimate: $950-$1,300
Starting Bid: $750

Clos Vougeot 1991
Leroy
1lbsl, 1wisl, 1ssos
Bottle (2)
“This has always been a very impressive wine and one that I have watched evolve since the wine’s initial release. The spicy and intensely earthy nose is now highly perfumed, complex and completely secondary though there are no hints of sous bois yet in evidence. There is excellent richness and power to the concentrated, ripe and utterly delicious big-bodied flavors that deliver superb complexity on the ever-so-slightly rustic yet superbly long finish. This is knockout level juice.” (94 pts. Allen Meadows, Burghound, Dec. 2014)
Estimate: $2,800-$3,750
Starting Bid: $2,200

Barbaresco 2008
Costa Russi, Gaja
4cm, ssos, owc
Jeroboam (1)
“The 2008 Costa Russi is absolutely gorgeous. Sweet dark cherries, tar, licorice and new leather are some of the aromas and flavors that take shape in the glass. The 2008 is a firm Costa Russi, with less of the seductiveness of most years, but equally fine balance. Ideally it needs a few more years in bottle, but it is striking. The finish shows terrific intensity. The typical juiciness of the site is framed by the firm tannins of the year. Everything that makes Costa Russi such an engaging wine is here, but in a slightly smaller-scaled package than in the very finest years.” (94 pts. Antonio Galloni, Wine Advocate #197, Oct. 2011)
Estimate: $1,000-$1,300
Starting Bid: $800

Opus One 1983
3.5cm, lcc, ssos, owc
Double-Magnum (1)
“The 1983 Opus One is absolutely impeccable. Dark red cherries, plums, licorice, tobacco and leather meld together in a wine that is all about balance. Soft and engaging, the 1983 is a great choice for drinking now and over the next decade. The 1983 isn’t as huge or structured as some of the other vintages in this vertical, but it is drop-dead gorgeous. Both 1982 and 1983 show the characteristics of wet vintages with large crops that resulted in somewhat compact wines. In 1983 the Cabernet Sauvignon is a bit low for the era at 80%, while the rest of the blend is composed of 13% Cabernet Franc and 7% Merlot.” (92 pts. Antonio Galloni, Vinous, June 2013)
Estimate: $1,300-$1,700

350  Sine Qua Non Grenache 2006
In the Crosshairs
Bottle (2)
“2006 In the Cross Hairs 11 Confessions Vineyard: This is Sine Qua Non’s extended barrel-aged Grenache (meaning that in most vintages since 2003, Krankl has produced two cuvees of Grenache, one aged 18-22 months before bottling, and the other one with extended barrel-aging, in this case 32 months in wood). A blend of 84% Grenache, 12% Syrah and 4% Viognier, all from the 11 Confessions Vineyard in the Santa Rita Hills, this is one of the most extraordinarily elegant Grenaches Krankl has produced. It is an intellectual wine, yet it doesn’t wimp out by any means. It is full-bodied and voluptuously textured, with notes of spice box, licorice and Provencal herbs, copious quantities of black currant and kirsch liqueur, stunning richness and a finish lasting close to a minute. This amazing effort confirms Krankl’s meticulous and nearly obsessively detailed work in both the vineyard and the winery.” (100 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #196, Aug. 2011)

Bottle (12)
“Graham is the undisputed star and kingpin of the 1985 vintage ports. Yes, it is made in a sweeter style than the other ports, but it is a fabulous wine because of a dazzling level of black-cherry fruit, an enormous structure, and staggering depth, dimension, and length.” (96 pts. Barolo 1978
Collina Rionda di Serralunga Riserva, B. Giacosa

“The 1978 Barolo Riserva Collina Rionda was without question the wine of the night. All conversation ceased at the table as we stopped to admire this utterly profound, moving Barolo. Sweet roses, violets, cherries and plums all came together in a Barolo that was at once sensual and powerful. This was a magic, transcendental Rionda; an epic wine for the ages!” (99 pts. 355  Brunello di Montalcino 2007
Il Greppo, Biondi Santi
Bottle (12)
“The 2007 Brunello di Montalcino is gorgeous. The estate’s preference for picking on the early side is one of the factors that help balance some of the fleshiness of the vintage. This is an especially silky, supple Brunello from Biondi-Santi. The overt personality of the year comes through, but not at the expense of the house’s style. Floral notes reappear to frame the elegant, expressive finish.” (94 pts. Antonio Galloni, Wine Advocate #200, Apr. 2012)

“Deep garnet-purple in color, the 2015 Syrah M starts off a little closed, slowly unfurling to show layer upon layer of savory notes: peppered salami, woodsmoke, marmite and black olives, beneath a profound core of preserved plums, blueberry coulis and Chinese five spice with fragrant touches of fennegreek, Sichuan pepper, crushed rocks and mossy bark. Exquisitely textured with firm, rounded tannins, the taut, full-bodied, muscular fruit is laced with seamless freshness, finishing with fantastic persistence. This is a Syrah for the long haul!” (99 pts. Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate #243, Jun. 2019)

“A blend of 81% Cabernet Sauvignon and 19% Merlot, this wine represents only 34% of Lafite’s total harvest. In a less than perfect Medoc vintage, it has been spectacular since birth, putting on more weight and flesh over the last year. This opaque purple-colored 1998 is close to perfection. The spectacular nose of lead pencil, smoky, mineral, and black currant fruit soars majestically from the glass. The wine is elegant yet profoundly rich, revealing the essence of Lafite’s character. The tannin is sweet, and the wine is spectacularly layered yet never heavy. The finish is sweet, super-rich, yet impeccably balanced and long (50+ seconds).” (98 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #134, Apr. 2001)

“The dark garnet-colored 1961 Haut-Brion is pure perfection, with gloriously intense aromas of tobacco, cedar, chocolate, minerals, and sweet red and black fruits complemented by smoky wood. This has always been a prodigious effort (it was the debut vintage for Jean Delmas). It is extremely full-bodied, with layers of viscous, sweet fruit. This wine is akin to eating candy. Consistently an astonishing wine!” (100 pts. Robert Parker, Bordeaux Book 3rd Ed., Dec. 1997)

“This wine remains one of the legends of Bordeaux. It has thrown off the backward, youthful style that existed during its first 25 years of life, and over the last 4-5 years has developed such secondary nuances as cedar and spice box. The creme de cassis, underlying floral note, full-bodied power, extraordinary purity, multilayered texture, and finish of over a minute are a showcase for what this Chateau accomplished in 1982. The wine is still amazingly youthful, vibrant, and pure.” (100 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #183, June 2009)

379 Chateau Lafite Rothschild 1996
Pauillac
Bottle (11)
“The bouquet is classic Pauillac with pencil shavings and sous-bois infusing the black fruit, masculine and a little aloof, yet focused and very well delineated. The palate is very well balanced with crisp blackberry and boysenberry fruit, spicier than I recollect, a crescendo of flavors so that it seems understated at first but fans out with a sense of confidence towards the finish.” (98 pts. Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #227, Oct. 2016)

380 Chateau Latour 1928
Pauillac
ms, bsl, tl, cc, excellent color
Bottle (1)
“The 1928 Latour has been a 20th century icon that has been top of my ‘wish’ list for some time. Lo and behold when it finally appeared it came in magnum format. It is deep mahogany in colour, quite deep for a wine from this decade. It has a beguiling bouquet of cedar, tobacco, crushed rose petals and a hint of mint and then after 90 minutes it develops a noticeable, quite pungent estuarine scents - mudflats, salt marshes in a cold winter’s day. The palate is very refined, perfectly balanced with quite rigid tannins that frame the dark berry fruit, cedar and graphite notes. In tandem with the nose, the marine element becomes more tangible with aeration, hints of Japanese nori and more graphite.” (98 pts. Neal Martin, Vinous, July 2018)

382 Chateau Trotanoy 1971
Pomerol
1hs, 1htms, 2lbsl
Bottle (2)
“I have tasted this vintage several times and it remains one of the best Pomerols in what was a strong year for the appellation. Deep in color, this particular bottle of 1971 Trotanoy has a lovely saline, brine-tinged bouquet that is powerful considering its age. Later it offers up subtle cassis and mint aromas. The palate is very well balanced with superb depth and vigor. It is a little more masculine than previous bottles, and interestingly, there is less flesh than the 1975, which has the upper hand on this occasion. There is a lovely melted finish with tobacco lingering on the aftertaste.” (94 pts. Neal Martin, Wine Advocate #231, Jun. 2017)

“Another breathtaking wine, the 1975 Cabernet Sauvignon is all about texture and structure. Remarkably fresh for a wine of its age, the 1975 is pure magic in the glass. The flavors are dark, rich and authoritative. Like the 1976, the 1975 will continue to thrill those lucky enough to own it for another decade, perhaps longer.” (96 pts. 401 Graham’s Vintage Port 1994
Half-Bottle (24)

“In a port tasting, tasting Graham’s is almost like tasting a big, rich, succulent Merlot after a group of blockbuster, tannic Cabernets. Sweeter and more obvious than many ports, the opaque purple-colored 1994 is fruity, powerful, and rich, with an addictive hedonistic quality...as always, this is a showy, flamboyant port that has the advantage of being slightly sweeter than other 1994s. A great Graham’s.” (96 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #107, Oct. 1996)

Bottle (12)

“My God, this is a wonderful mature Lafite. Served blind chez Rosemary George MW it has a definable Pauillac nose with subtle notes of cedar, sous-bois and a touch of dried blood. It has incredible harmony and purity – a bouquet that has you instantly captivated. The palate does not disappoint: a beguiling sense of natural harmony and delineation, not the weight of Latour nor the femininity of Margaux, but a Lafite aiming for understated sophistication. Delicate cedar and cigar box towards the finish that just goes on and on. This bottle vindicates my first encounter in Bordeaux, when it similarly bewitched its audience. Absolutely sublime.” (96 pts. Neal Martin, Wine Advocate, July 2008)

Bottle (5)
“This wine, which was a medium-weight, charming example in its youth, continues to develop well. Recent bottles have been the finest I have tasted of the 1971 Mouton-Rothschild. The color remains a deep dark garnet with some amber at the edge. The wine offers up a classic Pauillac nose of cedar, black currants, and lead pencil aromas. On the palate, it reveals a savory, sweet, cedarly, curranty flavor profile with good freshness, adequate acidity, and ripe tannin. The wine is fully mature, but is capable of lasting for another 5-10 years.” (88 pts. Robert Parker, Bordeaux Book 3rd Ed., Jan. 1998)

“Deep, bright ruby. Extraordinarily complex, lively nose combines black raspberry, bitter chocolate, nutmeg and an intriguing suggestion of roasted herbs. Amazingly rich and smooth in the mouth; truly explosive fruit offers superb vinosity and snap. Like liquid velvet but with great clarity of flavor. Builds in intensity and seems to grow thicker on the back half. The huge finishing fruit coats the entire palate. Amazing juice.” (96+ pts. Stephen Tanzer, Vinous, Nov. 1999)

“A very Medoc-like Petrus, and somewhat in the style of the wines made during most of the eighties, this dark plum/garnet-colored wine shows plenty of amber at the edge and a sweet nose of melted caramel, licorice, roasted herbs, and sweet curranty and cherry fruit. The wine is medium-bodied, slightly austere, but very complex and elegant. The wine has been fully mature since the early nineties.” (90 pts. Robert Parker, Bordeaux Book 4th Ed., Jan. 2003)

8bn, 3ts, 5wasl, 6wrl, 2sdc
Bottle (12)
“Medium brick-tawny colored, the 1974 Cabernet Sauvignon Private Reserve Georges de Latour gives up intense scents of cherry cola, leather, tilled soil, dried cranberries and preserved plums with subtle nuances of eucalyptus, smoked meats, iron ore and raisin cake. Medium to full-bodied, opulently fruited and packed with spicy dried berries, it has a plush texture, seamless freshness and a long, earthy finish. A riper expression, the alcohol has crept up to 13.5% this year from 12.5% examples made in the 1960s.” (92 pts. Lisa Perroti-Brown, Wine Advocate, May 2019)
Estimate: $950-$1,300
Starting Bid: $750

430 Opus One 1982
1bn, 3cc
Bottle (3)
“This bottle reveals a healthy deep ruby color, and an attractive light intensity nose of herbs and black-cherries ripe nicely complemented by subtle new oak. In the mouth, this is an elegant, medium-bodied wine with good structure, fine concentration, and an overall sense of balance and finesse.” (86 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #84, Dec. 1992)
Estimate: $700-$900
Starting Bid: $550

431 Opus One 1986
Bottle (3)
“Bordeaux-like in structure, this is an impressive showing. Firm tannins wrap around the currant, black cherry, anise, spice and cedar notes. Long, persistent finish.” (94 pts. James Laube, Wine Spectator, Feb. 2000)
Estimate: $700-$900
Starting Bid: $550

432 Opus One 1988
2ts, 2wasl
Bottle (2)
“Medium to deep garnet-brick colour. Savoury/earthy notes of soy, hung meat, sweaty leather, tobacco, truffle, a suggestion of cardamom and a slight medicinal/menthol character. The palate gives a high level of acidity with a medium level of silky tannins and a good concentration of spicy, savoury fruit. Long finish.” (91 pts. Lisa Perrotti-Brown, In Asia, July 2009)
Estimate: $425-$550
Starting Bid: $325

433 Opus One 1990
1vhs, 1hwasl
Bottle (7)
“In a blind tasting, this wine did not fool many tasters when served blind. It was quickly identified as a California wine despite the fact that it is made in a Bordeaux-like style. The wine performed well, exhibiting a deep ruby/purple color, a lead pencil, grapy, spicy oak-scented nose, medium body, a tight, more compact texture than the Bordeaux, as well as more elevated and obvious new oak. Rich and ripe, as well as graceful, it stood out as having higher acidity than the Bordeaux.” (90 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate, Feb. 1997)
Estimate: $1,600-$2,000
Starting Bid: $1,200

434 Opus One 1991
Bottle (9)
“Complex notes of meat, game, dried plum, black olive and dried Mediterranean herbs with a whiff of Brett influence giving notes of sweaty saddles and a distinctive medicinal / band-aid character. The palate is nicely structured with a medium+ level of finely grained tannins and a crisp backbone of acidity fleshed out by ample concentration of evolved fruit flavours. Long finish.” (92 pts. Lisa Perrotti-Brown, In Asia, July 2009)
Estimate: $2,200-$3,000
Starting Bid: $1,700

435 Opus One 1992
Bottle (8)
“The 1992 Opus One, a blend of 89% Cabernet Sauvignon, 8% Cabernet Franc, and 3% Merlot, offers a beautiful dark ruby/purple color, a big, spicy nose of cassis, lead pencil, and smoky oak, round, full-bodied, broad, fat flavors crammed with black fruits, soft tannin, low acidity, and a fleshy, full-bodied finish.” (92 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #99, June 1995)
Estimate: $1,900-$2,600
Starting Bid: $1,500

436 Opus One 1993
1wasl Bottle (2)
1994 Bottle (1)
Estimate: $700-$900
Starting Bid: $550
Opus One 1994
Bottle (12)
“This is an impressive effort from Opus One. The wine, a blend of 95% Cabernet Sauvignon, 2% Cabernet Franc, 2% Merlot, and 1% Malbec, possesses a dark ruby/purple color, followed by a generous, complex nose of lead pencil, toasty oak, violets, and black currants. In the mouth, there is a beautiful texture, soft, generous, low acid, full-bodied richness, and a stunningly proportioned, rich, intense finish. The influence of 18 months in new French oak casks gives the wine a subtle oaky note in addition to giving it excellent delineation. Because of the wine’s softness and generosity, it can be drunk now as well as over the next 18-20 years.” (92 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #114, Dec. 1997)
Estimate: $2,800-$3,750
Starting Bid: $2,200

Robert Mondavi Cabernet Sauvignon 1974
Napa Valley
2bn, 1ts, 1vhs, 2hs, 5htms, 1ms, 6wasl
Bottle (12)
“Mondavi’s regular 1974 Cabernet still reveals a solid, deep, young color for its age, a tight but spicy, earthy, herb, and currantly-scented nose, medium body, a certain leanness, but good freshness, and a straightforward, monochromatic style.” (Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #94, Aug. 1994)
Estimate: $1,000-$1,300
Starting Bid: $800

CAN YOU SAY GROTH?
For decades, Groth has flown under the radar of those who are perpetually chasing the new labels in Napa, along with the cult classics. How has anyone forgotten that '85 Groth Reserve was the very first cult wine?! These lots are NOT consigned by the winery, but this is just about the closest thing to that, and they emerge from one of the greatest cellars I've ever had the privilege to sell.

447  Groth Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon 1986
signed by Nils Venge, #9 of 10 Jeroboams produced, owc
5-Liter (1)
“This wine has drunk exceptionally well since its youth, and it continues to offer a dark ruby/purple/garnet color with no lightening at the edge. The flamboyant nose of jammy black fruits, tobacco, smoky oak, and coffee is intense and enjoyable. Fat, opulently-textured, super-concentrated, and lusty, this large-scaled, rich, multi-dimensional Cabernet Sauvignon is fully mature, but it displays no signs of losing its fruit.” (92 pts. Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #106, Aug. 1996)
Estimate: $500-$700
Starting Bid: $400

448  Groth Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon 1990
2bn 1vhs, 6lbsl, 3nl
Bottle (12)
“Distinctive and has a lot of personality. Packs in ripe currant, black cherry, herb and coffee flavors that are deep and complex. Framed by toasty, buttery oak, it finishes with a broad range of flavors and firm but supple tannins. The winery’s best since the ‘85 Reserve.” (94 pts. Wine Spectator, Nov. 1994)
Estimate: $600-$800
Starting Bid: $475

449  Groth Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon 1990

RETURN OF THE NON-FLOOR SESSION!

All the below lots have been consigned with more valuable lots found elsewhere in this catalog. They would have been part of a November internet sale, but since November was upgraded to a Signature-grade sale, we’ve collected the lower-value, high-level drinking in this portion of the catalog that will be sold in a second online-only session.
