SCOTCHTHE MACALLAN SELECT RESERVE 52 YEAR 1946

As coal was scarce in post-war conditions, the 1946 stills were fired entirely with peat. The Macallan hangs its hat on the Six Pillars ethos – the estate, curiously small stills, exceptional casks, sherry seasoning, natural coloring, and mastery in distilling. Notably absent from the Six Pillars is anything to do with peat or smokiness. Bottled in the late 90s, the Select Reserve range contains just two releases, both from this brief era of high peat, but bottled at extreme ages of 52 and 51 years. The releases are looked at as a sort of proof-of-concept that led to the lauded Fine & Rare series, comprised of dozens of releases.

BOOKER'S 30TH ANNIVERSARY BOURBON

A massive bourbon, released in celebration of 30 years of Booker's in 2018. Booker Noe, Jim Beam's grandson, originally bottled some straight-from-the-barrel whiskies as personal gifts, but in 1988 released a tiny run of 1000 bottles publicly. Typically released somewhere between six and eight years of age, batches are selected and named at a roundtable including Booker's son and current Jim Beam Master Distiller Fred Noe along with several whiskey writers. Legend has it that the panel provided a whiskey for the 30th anniversary, using entirely 16-year whiskies distilled by Booker's hand. However, Fred Noe thought the blend was incomplete and enlisted his son Freddie to adjust the blend to honor his late father. Ultimately, the final blend comprises 70% nine-year whiskey and 30% sixteen-year whiskey bottled at a whopping 125.8 proof, sealed under silver wax and packaged in boxes using reclaimed wood from Beam's Warehouse E.

ROCK HILL FARMS SINGLE BARREL BOURBON 100 PROOF

Rock Hill Farms is one of the Buffalo Trace family of whiskies, named for farmland close to the distillery site along the Kentucky River. It is a single-barrel bourbon, belonging to the Mashbill #2 family – along with Blanton's, Ancient Age, Elmer T. Lee and another seldom-seen bourbon, Hancock's Reserve. Bottled at 50%, it was the highest-proof offering from the Mashbill #2 family until Blanton's Gold was released. While not considered "high rye," there is a healthy dose of rye in the mash, believed to be around 15%, which lends spice to the finish to balance the upfront creaminess and chocolate notes present in this family of bourbons.

THE ART OF DRINKABILITY (LOTS 1001-1014)

This exceptional collection was sourced through a combination of top retail channels and exclusive mailing lists, assembled by a highly educated and deeply engaged collector with a sharp eye for what is truly "cool" and compelling today. A true Dionysian acolyte, the collector's philosophy centers on wines meant to be enjoyed at their most expressive, prioritizing pleasure and nuance over mere trophy status. All bottles were stored in a temperature-controlled personal cellar in NY inspected by Zachys specialists.

FRENCH CLASSICS (LOTS 1015-1024)

This collection highlights some of France's most celebrated labels, with a particular emphasis on Champagne and Bordeaux. The wines were carefully sourced from respected Northeast retailers and leading auction houses, including Zachys, and stored in a temperature-controlled personal cellar in the tri-state area. This collection presents an excellent opportunity for collectors seeking well-aged French classics such as '61 Beychevelle, '96 Comtes de Champagne Rosé, or '85 Krug.

TIME-POLISHED BEAUTY (LOTS 1030-1051)

Before I get lost in the details, make sure to check out the Roumier mags! Now, let's dig in...beautiful color on the Leflaive 90's 1er Cru bottlings, several magnums of Bonneau du Martray CC from the esteemed '96 vintage, top historic vintages of Haut-Brion, Cheval Blanc, Pichon Lalande and others. So many perfectly aged Yquem!

Most of these wines were bought on release decades ago. The consignor purchased many of the bottles from a well-known NYC retailer in the 80's and 90's and has some of the original purchase records. The wines were stored in a temp-controlled cellar for most of their years until being transferred to professional storage.

TOP SCORING SASSICAIA (LOTS 1052-1056)

This beautifully curated lineup brings together five vintages of the legendary Sassicaia, all sourced directly from Zachys and stored with Zachys. The collection is pristine, with all bottles housed in original wooden cases—most still banded. Star power is undeniable here, led by the flawless 100-point 2016 vintage. It's joined by the knockout 98+ point 2019 and 2015, plus a highly rated 2013 that adds even more depth to the mix. A dream set for collectors who love impeccable provenance with a little swagger.

First Growth Verticals

in OWC: 1996-2012

LOTS 1103-1254

The wines in this consignment were purchased directly from négociant and stored professionally thereafter. Conditions are pristine with nearly every lot appearing in owc, many still banded from the winery. This offering is dominated by First Growth Bordeaux, with extensive verticals of Haut-Brion, Lafite, Latour and Mouton. Blockbuster vintages 2005, 2009 and 2010 are heavily represented, punctuating a range spanning 1996 to 2012. Other highlights include Ausone, Margaux and La Mission Haut-Brion.

The Touchstone Collection

LOTS 1270-1724

A collection so big, we had to split between two days of sale!

If you can believe it, this amazing consignment is only a portion of a much larger collection of fine wines. That being said, this selection doesn't hold back! There are original wooden cases of Petrus, including magnums, several lots of The Domaine (also in original woods), three cases of Ponsot's V.V. Clos de la Roche, verticals of SQN, Rousseau, Vega Sicilia, Salon, Voerzio, and even the seldom-seen Tusk Estates. Overall, this is a collection that spans the world of fine wines with perfect touchstones of seemingly every region represented.

Based on the west coast, this collection was assembled by a passionate collector who bought from Zachys and other top merchants over the past 20 years. The wines have all been in professional storage since acquisition and were shipped under carefully monitored, temperature-control specifically for this sale. Bid with the utmost confidence.

DAY 2

FINE & RARE WINES

Lots 1520-2541

Live from The Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York City, 9 AM ET Property Lying in Delaware

THE TOUCHSTONE COLLECTION, CONTINUED
(LOTS 1270-1724)

A collection so big, we had to split between two days of sale!

If you can believe it, this amazing consignment is only a portion of a much larger collection of fine wines. That being said, this selection doesn't hold back! There are original wooden cases of Petrus, including magnums, several lots of The Domaine (also in original woods), three cases of Ponsot's V.V. Clos de la Roche, verticals of SQN, Rousseau, Vega Sicilia, Salon, Voerzio, and even the seldom-seen Tusk Estates. Overall, this is a collection that spans the world of fine wines with perfect touchstones of seemingly every region represented.

Based on the west coast, this collection was assembled by a passionate collector who bought from Zachys and other top merchants over the past 20 years. The wines have all been in professional storage since acquisition and were shipped under carefully monitored, temperature-control specifically for this sale. Bid with the utmost confidence.

BORDEAUX

Château Haut-Brion 1995

*Pessac Léognan, Premier Cru Classé
original wood case
twelve 1.5cm or better*

1520 12 bottles US$4,000-6,000

Château Haut-Brion 2017

*Pessac Léognan, Premier Cru Classé
two 6-pack original wood cases*

1521 12 bottles US$3,600-5,500
1522 12 bottles US$3,600-5,500

Château Lafite Rothschild 1986

*Pauillac, Premier Cru Classé
two bottom neck or better*

"...beautifully defined, still full of energy...It must rank as one of the finest wines from the estate...98." WA 12/16.
1523 2 bottles US$1,300-2,000

Château Lafite Rothschild 1996

*Pauillac, Premier Cru Classé
bottom neck*

"The palate is very well balanced with crisp blackberry and boysenberry fruit, spicier than I recollect, a crescendo of flavors so that it seems understated at first but fans out with a sense of confidence towards the finish...98." WA 10/16.

1524 1 imperial (6L) US$6,000-9,000

Château Lafite Rothschild 2010

*Pauillac, Premier Cru Classé
individual original wood case*

"The palate is medium-bodied with slightly grainy tannins, conveying a sense of symmetry and focus that is second to none...95+." NM 7/18.

1525 1 imperial (6L) US$4,600-7,000

Château Lafite Rothschild 2017

*Pauillac, Premier Cru Classé
two 6-pack original wood cases*

"... scents of crushed blackcurrants, black cherries and warm black plums with touches of yeast extract, charcuterie, cigar box and fertile loam plus a hint of iron ore. POW...the paradoxically ethereal, medium-bodied palate hits you with vibrant, exhilarating black fruit and previously latent floral layers, supported with fantastic freshness and super fine-grained, pixelated tannins, finishing with persistent mineral and perfumed layers. Truly Stunning...97-99." WA 4/18.

1526 12 bottles US$4,400-6,500
1527 12 bottles US$4,400-6,500

Château Margaux 1986

*Margaux, Premier Cru Classé
five bottom neck or better, one top shoulder, one bin-soiled label, four oxidized capsules, multiple importers*

"Yet there is wonderful delineation and focus here. If you seek strictness and classicism in a wine, then this is the place to come, plus there is superb minerality and tension on the ferrous finish...97." WA 12/16.

1528 6 bottles US$2,400-3,600

Château Margaux 1996

*Margaux, Premier Cru Classé
original wood case

Petrus 2009

Pomerol

*Lots 1533 & 1534: 3-pack original wood case
Lot 1535: individual original wood case*

"Full, rich, plushly textured and oh-so-decadent, it reveals layer upon layer of spice box, black fruit and ferrous notions, finishing long and fragrant...100." WA 3/19.

1533 3 magnums (1.5L) US$18,000-28,000
1534 3 magnums (1.5L) US$18,000-28,000

Lots 1533 & 1534

Château La Mission Haut-Brion 2017

*Pessac Léognan, Cru Classé
two 6-pack original wood cases*

"...crushed blackcurrants, blackberries and chocolate-covered cherries with suggestions of cigar box, bay leaves, Indian spices and dusty soil. Medium to full-bodied with very firm, grainy tannins and a racy backbone supporting the taut, muscular fruit, it has bags of mineral and earthy suggestions layering the very long finish...95-97."

WA 4/18.

1536	12 bottles	US$2,200-3,200
1537	12 bottles	US$2,200-3,200

The Legendary Collection of Rob Caine

The Cellar of a Passionate Perfectionist

LOTS 1769-2303

On February 11th, 2011, the wine-collecting world first experienced The Legendary Collection of Dr. Robert Caine. At the time, it was undoubtedly the most spectacular single auction offering of Burgundy to come to market. Thirty-year verticals of Montrachet from Domaines Ramonet and Lafon, over 100 lots of Coche-Dury, and 90 lots of DRC. The quality and quantity, breadth and depth were, at the time, unheard of in these producers. Dr. Caine's obsessive focus on only the best is the hallmark of his collection. Nearly fifteen years to the day and those same top-tier producers are offered again in quantity and with the exceptional provenance and original packaging only seen from this legendary collector.

As always, each bottle in this offering has a reason and a purpose. There are no mistakes nor whimsical acquisitions here. Every bottle has been vetted and sourced with only the best provenance. The same traits that made Rob a brilliant surgeon and now a successful real estate developer are reflected in this collection. There is a passion and attention to detail that is unmatched. Pay close attention to the following pages for insider information from Rob's wealth of knowledge for some these unique bottlings.

Over the last decade, since working on the original single owner sale, all of us at Zachys have gotten to know Rob and Linda and taste many bottles from their collection. Their generosity is only matched by the quality of wines in their cellar. We are not alone in these thoughts. In the catalogue for Dr. Caine's 2011 offering, Allen Meadows of Burghound.com said, "It's rare to be able to say that I have never had a poor bottle from someone's collection but in this case, it's true, I have never had a substandard bottle served by Rob...to not have had an oxidized bottle is necessarily due to his judicious sourcing and insistence on impeccable provenance. To the extent that my experience is representative, you can buy Rob's wines with confidence."

An Interview with the Passionate Perfectionist, Dr. Rob Caine.

*"Essentially
every bottle has a story."*

- Rob Caine

Your first major auction with Zachys was almost 15 years ago, and it still looms large in the annals of wine auction history as one of the greatest offerings of Burgundy, especially white Burgundy, ever sold. What made you decide to put some more of your collection up for sale?

"My last major sale, in 2011, took place at the time that my wife Linda and I were downsizing our home after our three sons had 'left the nest.' After the sale I added commercial storage and continued to grow my collection. Fifteen years later, our emphasis has changed. Over the past two years we have been thrilled to welcome our first three grandchildren - two in New York and one in San Francisco. Linda and I are now more focused on bicoastal grandparenting and spending a bit less time on wine."

Looking back across both auctions, how do you see this offering in relation to your first sale with Zachys—what has changed in your collecting, and what has stayed exactly the same?

"The similarities predominate. My collecting interest has remained entirely Burgundy. This sale is very much a cellar thinning, reflecting the substantial quantities of wine that I have accumulated. It is my good fortune to receive wonderful allocations from many sources and, in large part, the wines being offered simply reflect a reduction in the quantities of these wines in my cellar."

It doesn't take a particularly shrewd bidder to notice that your offering in this auction is 100% Burgundy. When did you decide to focus your collecting on this region specifically, and why?

"My first intensive experience with wine took place in 1989, when Linda and I participated in a group bicycle tour of Burgundy. I was captivated by the wines and became determined to learn as much as possible upon my return home. The Washington, DC area, where I resided, was very fertile ground for wine education. There was an international focus with all the embassies, great wine retailers, and a group of enthusiasts who were generous sharing their knowledge and their wines. I was truly fortunate to open and enjoy bottles with some wonderful mentors - a happy circumstance which continues to this day."

You're a wealth of information when it comes to Burgundy. When did you first learn about the wines of Pierre Millemann?

"Actually, I learned about Pierre through an indirect source. Some time ago a friend in Oregon was speaking to me very favorably about OO Wines. Upon investigating further, I learned about the owners' enthusiasm for Burgundy and relationship with Pierre Millemann."

Pierre is an internationally-esteemed wine consultant, having worked with DRC, Coche-Dury, Dujac and Gaja, among others. In recent years, he has produced wines in Burgundy for OO Wines, as well as bottling several cuvees under his own label. These wines are meticulously crafted and highly allocated. I am fortunate to have an excellent source in Burgundy."

I recently had the opportunity to taste at the Domaine, adjacent to his home, with Pierre's wife and daughter. Even by Burgundian standards, the cellar is tiny. The tasting concluded happily with a bottle of Corton-Charlemagne, shared in the kitchen."

There are quite a few 'stories' behind some of these wines. Do you have any favorites?

Essentially every bottle has a story. The magnum of 2019 Hospices de Beaune Mazis-Chambertin, Cuvée Madeleine Collignon, represents the only time that DRC has purchased a barrel from the Hospices de Beaune, and this wine was produced only in magnums. The rarity speaks for itself. The Domaine sold the magnums to support Aubert de Villaine's classical music initiatives in Beaune. When asked if he would ever buy another barrel for elevage at the Domaine, Aubert's answer was a resounding 'no.'

I noticed you've got a bit of Roumier's Bourgogne Rouge in the offering. That's not a wine we see all that often—any idea why?

"I was chatting with Christophe [Roumier] and mentioned to him that it was challenging to find his Bourgogne Rouge. He nodded and said, 'I make about as much Bourgogne as I do Amoureuses.' No wonder it's hard to find!"

The 2005 Vougeraie Musigny (687 bottles made) is another one that caught my eye. Not one you see often in our auctions.

"The 2005 Vougeraie Musigny was first brought to my attention by a friend who told me that it had been recommended to him by none other than Eric Rousseau, whom he knows well. A couple of months ago, at a dinner in Puligny-Montrachet, I was seated next to Pascal Marchand - the maker of the wine. He mentioned that, of all the wines he has made over the past decades, this is one he keeps in his own cellars!"

With all wine, but with the extremely delicate Burgundy in particular, long term cold storage is key. Can you talk a bit about how you've sourced these rare wines, and how you've stored them?

"Since beginning my collection, I have been meticulous about ensuring the highest quality storage possible. My home cellars are carefully monitored and, of course, there are backup generators. My commercial storage - on both the East and West Coasts - meets the same high standards.

Much of my sourcing is Domaine-direct or from the importer. Any bottles purchased at auction are carefully vetted by me and, if there is any question when they arrive, they are returned to the vendor."

What would you like bidders to understand about these wines that may not be obvious from a catalog description alone?

"I am, indeed, passionate about Burgundy. My purchases reflect the wines I love, but, considering the intensity of my passion, sometimes the quantities accumulated are 'over the top.' No wines have ever been purchased for investment or speculation. They have been brought into the cellar to drink and share."

Any last words for bidders who will be participating in this auction?

"Every bottle in this offering was acquired in anticipation of a joyous drinking experience. My hope is that the successful bidders will share this pleasure."

LOT 2046: Millemann Wines & 00 Wines

Pierre Millemann is a world-renowned enologist who has consulted for D.R.C., Coche-Dury and Dujac, among others. The following description is from a British wine retailer:

"A master of oenology with years of experience behind the scenes at world famous wineries like DRC, Coche Dury, Dujac and Gaja to name a few, Pierre began making wines under his own label in 2017, receiving fruit from his long standing relationships with top domains exclusively from Grand Cru vineyards. His wines were hotly anticipated (even before bottling the 2017's) once word of the project got out, and the results have been as expected. These superb wines are classically styled and display incredible harmony, purity and depth, each with a clear sense of its unique terroir, perfectly structured with great ageing potential."

Pierre Millemann also produced wines for 00 winery in Oregon in the early vintages, including the 2019 and 2020 Clos de la Roche and the 2017-2020 Corton-Charlemagne.

THE BEST COLLECTION (LOTS 2534-2539)

A few more prestigious offerings from The Best Collection. Don't miss an opportunity for Jayer, Rousseau, and Roumier from top vintages! These wines were carefully sourced by a local collector and have been stored with Zachys. Most of the Burgundies were bought on release from the Domaine or Burgundy broker and shipped directly to the collector.
