Hart Davis Hart is honored to represent the following lots on behalf of a significant and knowledgeable collector. Featured here are historic vintages from the great regions of the world, including notable 1990 vintage Bordeaux, impressive depth of Grand Cru Burgundy from the mid-1990s and beautiful case quantities of Montelena, Joseph Phelps and Heitz Martha's from the 1980s. THE CHAMPION'S CELLAR

Hart Davis Hart is honored to represent this incredible collection of prized wines from an American sports legend and business innovator. After receiving many accolades and winning a national title at the collegiate level, this athlete went on to represent the US at two world championships, each time winning gold. Off the field he combined the pursuit of excellence with his entrepreneurial spirit and became a leading businessman in the sports industry.

That same focus and drive of competing at the highest levels is clear in the collection he amassed over a twenty-five year period, largely purchased on release with many full-case quantities. From impressive parcels of Bordeaux and beautiful vintages of Burgundy to sought-after producers such as Rayas, Salon, Masseto, Stella di Campalto, and Pingus, nothing was overlooked while carefully compiling this collection. Among the many highlights, standouts include two full cases of the powerhouse 1998 Cheval Blanc, three bottles of 2014 Romanée-Conti, six bottles of 2011 Chablis, Les Clos Domaine Raveneau, and four bottles of 1994 Harlan. Please enjoy!

AN IMPORTANT PRIVATE CELLAR

Including an Exceedingly Rare Jeroboam of Romanée-Conti 1999

When I reflect on all the wonderful friendships forged during my long career, this consignor is in the very top tier. Every time I visit his city I'm sure to schedule a lunch or dinner with him. His natural warmth and vigor are infectious, and our conversations always range far beyond wine. His passion has been to acquire the greatest wines with the best possible provenance. To say he succeeded would be a tremendous understatement.

This selection is a modest slice of his vast collection. All wines were carefully acquired from HDH and other trusted sources. The selection of Bordeaux is spectacular, with many of the wines acquired as futures or late releases direct from the châteaux, and most are in original wood. It features a veritable roll call of the greatest wines produced over the last 50 years: Palmer 1961, Pétrus 1971, Cheval-Blanc 1982, Latour 1982, Haut-Brion 1989, and Pétrus 1990 to name a few. Rivaling the Bordeaux are sublime wines from DRC including an exceedingly rare jeroboam of the spectacular Romanée-Conti 1999 and a magnum of Romanée-Conti 2014. All wines have been removed from highly customized home storage that maintains ideal temperature and humidity.

These amazing wines come from one of the most important private cellars in America. The owner has generously shared so many great bottles with me, and I urge you to bid with great confidence.

-Michael Davis

A FURTHER SELECTION FROM THE CHITTENDEN CELLAR

Hart Davis Hart is delighted to present wines from The Chittenden Cellar. This avid enthusiast is a longtime client and friend of HDH, who after years of eager bidding and cellar-building has decided to pare down his holdings. Rest assured that he is left with a massive cellar to enjoy and continues to purchase regularly!

This selection focuses largely on Bordeaux, Burgundy and Italy, though highlights from Champagne, the Rhône Valley, Spain, California and Australia appear as well. Sourcing was done either from HDH auctions, HDH retail, or as futures from other reputable merchants. The wines offered in this auction were removed from one of several commercial storage facilities used to house The Chittenden Cellar and transported to HDH's Delaware warehouse via temperature-controlled truck. Share the enthusiasm of this collector and bid with confidence!
