Today it is still going strong. Clear in color, it has quite a deep garnet core. The nose is very seductive with black fruit, leather, scorched earth, a hint of lavender all beautifully defined and quintessentially Margaux. The medium-bodied palate has exquisite balance, the acidity nicely judged, still a little masculine and "solid" compared to the subsequent vintages under Paul Pontallier, yet fresh and vital. Sure, there is a grittiness and a touch of rusticity towards the finish, but all in all, this represents a great 1978 Left Bank and a signpost that the First Growth was back on the right track after a dismal run of vintages during the 1970s. It had a delicious nose of older red fruits, musk, wet leather, animal, truffles, roses, and faint caramel fully mature in a wonderful way on the fruit but t 'n a totally integrated - fruit definitely in charge, here good flavors to match the nose and surprisingly firm still on the palate rich mouthfeel with brown and red, mature flavor profiles and a glazed sweetness absolutely delicious now one hour later, after I returned to the scene of the crime after driving my guest home, Justin found it "dried out," and he was right the wine has a shelf life of about an hour, before its redeeming qualities start to disappear. FINEST BURGUNDY FROM A LONGTIME COLLECTOR

These sixty-one selections come to us from an avid collector and drinker who has been at it for thirty years! This extremely successful investor sparked his love of wine on a business trip to Bordeaux, but he has shifted his focus to Burgundy, often having bought directly from the producers. The Red Burgundy offerings go back to the 1990's, with stars like 1993 Leroy Vosne Romanee Aux Brulees and 1999 Les Beaux Monts, 1999 Rousseau Gevrey Chambertin Clos St. Jaques, and 1991 Ponsot Clos de la Roche VV! Marching into the 2000s and 2010s are distinguished names such as 2002 Meo Camuzet Richebourg, 2014 Comte Liger-Belair Vosne Romanee Aux Reignots and 2007 Echezeaux, 2002 Dujac Bonnes Mares, 2009 Roumier Bonnes Mares, and 2000 Rouget Vosne Romanee Cros Parantoux! White Burgundy beckons with eight stellar lots of Leflaive, including a bottle of 1999 and magnum of 2002 Chevalier Montrachet, alongside Coche-Dury Les Rougeots and Les Perrieres, and additional gems from Ramonet and Raveneau! Don't miss Champagne from Krug and Egly-Ouriet and a single bottle of the legendary 1962 Unico. All wines professionally stored.

The bouquet offers startling delineation with red cherries, crushed strawberry, wet limestone and rose petals. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and immensely concentrated, with a broad attack, lovely acids and a formidable reserve of creamy old-vine fruit, structured around a chalky chassis of tannin that evokes the great old Burgundies of yesteryear. Concluding with a long and expansive finish, this is still a young wine, and another two decades of aging won't be a problem. "Very fresh, bright medium yellow. Knockout mineral-saturated scents of lemon cream, lime oil, acacia flower, vanilla, crushed stone, nut oil and iodine. Sappy and vibrant but at the same time utterly seamless, offering a compelling combination of refinement, concentration (especially impressive in light of the year's full yields) and acid balance. The wine's outstanding mineral tension is intensified by its brisk acidity--or is it the other way around? This is an exhilarating and truly exceptional grand cru but I would not describe it as an easy drink. Finishes with powerful crushed-stone salinity and a rising whiplash of flavor. A real cellar treasure and my favorite wine of the tasting, still with a long life ahead of it. The '99s at Domaine Leflaive have always stood out for their ripeness and richness but today this wine is even more impressive for its adamant minerality. THE COLLECTION OF BRIAN SHETH

We are proud to present wines from the Collection of Brian Sheth, an accomplished leader in business, technology, private equity, and philanthropy. In addition to his financial accolades and recognition, including membership in Fortune's 40 Under 40 in 2015, Brian has mentored hundreds of entrepreneurs, executives, and investors, while serving as board chairman for dozens of companies. He and his family also manage the Sheth Sangreal Foundation, supporting efforts to protect and repair the natural world, mitigate the effects of poverty, and expand educational opportunities in central Texas and around the world. This selection represents just a glimpse of Brian's extraordinary cellar! He caught the wine bug early through extensive travels and quickly gravitated to the pinnacles of Burgundy and Bordeaux, with Coche-Dury, DRC, Rousseau, and Pétrus among his favorites, yet he also loves discovering rising producers. Often on trips to Europe, he returns with cases straight from the source. Now, as he makes room for new acquisitions, he releases 105 remarkable selections from custom-built home storage in Texas and California. Highlights include ten offerings of DRC, alongside White Burgundy treasures from Leflaive, Coche-Dury, Ramonet, and PYCM. Bordeaux royalty takes center stage with twelve bottles of 2000 Pétrus, legendary 1982 Mouton, six bottles of 1990 Margaux, and 1982 Latour! Collectors will also find bottles and magnums of 1996 Lafite, as well as 1982 La Mission Haut-Brion, 1982 Cheval Blanc, and 2000 Ausone!! From Spain comes none other than Vega Sicilia Unico 2005, while California greets shine with Bond, Colgin, and Schrader. Samples from this collection have been outstanding without exception—bid with confidence!

"...boasts a dense, saturated purple color, as well as a tight but strikingly complex nose of violets, crushed stones, and black and blue fruits. The wine's high tannin is nicely complemented by dense, concentrated, purely delineated fruit that cascades across the palate with intensity, but no heaviness. Sappy, fresh aromas of boysenberry, cassis, minerals, bitter chocolate and espresso, with complicating notes of underbrush and earth. Extremely pure and penetrating, with fruit of steel and a powerful mineral underpinning. Finishes with strong, firm tannins and great persistence. Essence of Ausone..." (95+pts IWC)

133 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1982

St. Emilion

2bn, 4ts, 1wrl, 1lbl, 1scc, 1nc, 2sdc

"Revealing considerable amber in its dark plum/garnet color, this intensely fragrant 1982 is somewhat of a paradox in that the front end suggests full maturity, but the mid-palate, finish, and overall texture denote a closed wine. A gorgeously sweet entry displays flavors of caramel, roasted coffee, jammy red and black fruits, coconut, and smoke. It is fat and full-bodied, with considerable tannin, structure, and muscle in the finish. Flamboyantly rich and precocious early in life, it is going through an awkward stage where the tannin is present, but it is also sexy, juicy, and formidably-structured. When the 1982 Cheval Blanc's component parts become totally in sync, it will be capable of meriting a three-digit rating." (99pts)

133A Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1998

St. Emilion

"The 1998 Cheval Blanc, a blend of 65% Merlot and 35% Cabernet Franc, is deep garnet-brick in color and absolutely explodes with scents of exotic spices, incense, dried roses, cigar box and licorice, with a core of Crème de cassis and dried cherries plus touches of black tea and dusty earth. Medium to full-bodied, it fills the mouth with rich, plushly textured fruit and then POW it hits the mid-palate with an explosion of Chinese five spice and floral perfume sparks, leading to an epically long finish. This cannot fail to impress and can easily cellar for another 30 years or more." (100pts)

It was very spiny and dry and truly a classy wine, underrated by 1982 First Growth standards." (96pts JK)

"A thick, unctuously-textured wine with massive richness as well as abundant notes of black fruits, truffles, creosote, scorched earth, smoke, and camphor, a colossal mouthfeel, a layered texture, incredible depth of fruit and glycerin, and copious, but well-integrated tannins that are largely concealed by the incredible amount of fruit. An old school La Mission, it is a tour de force that should continue to age effortlessly for another 40+ years." (100pts)

144 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 1998

Graves

"A candidate for the wine of the vintage from this somewhat forgotten year, consumers should be seeking out wines from the Right Bank and Graves as 1998 was a great vintage in those appellations. La Mission's 1998 exhibits a healthy, opaque blue/purple color with no lightening at the edge. Thirty minutes of aeration brings forth a sensational bouquet of chocolate, cedar, truffles, graphite, blackberries, cassis and incense. La Mission's so-called scorched earth/charcoal/hot rocks characteristic has not yet appeared. Full-bodied with superb purity, a multilayered texture, sweet tannin, good acidity and a fabulously long finish, this great, young La Mission-Haut-Brion's finest days are yet to come." (98pts)

"The 1990 Lafite has turned out far better than my early assessment. While it still possesses some firmness, and performs like a late adolescent in terms of its evolution, it boasts gorgeous aromas of cedar, tobacco leaf, cassis, and lead pencil shavings. 148 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 1996

Pauillac

1x12 bottle owc

"Tasted three times since bottling, the 1996 Lafite-Rothschild is unquestionably this renowned estate's greatest wine. As I indicated last year, only 38% of the crop was deemed grand enough to be put into the final blend, which is atypically high in Cabernet Sauvignon (83%). This massive wine may be the biggest, largest-scaled Lafite I have ever tasted. It will require many years to come around...the wine exhibits a thick-looking, ruby/purple color, and a knock-out nose of lead pencil, minerals, flowers, and black currant scents. Extremely powerful and full-bodied, with remarkable complexity for such a young wine, this huge Lafite is oozing with extract and richness, yet has managed to preserve its quintessentially elegant personality. This wine is even richer than it was prior to bottling. It should unquestionably last for 40-50 years." (100pts)

It possesses extraordinary concentration and unctuousity, with a thick, fat texture oozing notes of cedar wood, tobacco, coffee, and over-ripe fruit. "The 1996 Château Margaux, a blend of 82% Cabernet Sauvignon, 12% Merlot, 4% Petit Verdot and 2% Cabernet Franc, must be a strong contender for wine of the vintage. It offers everything you desire from this First Growth. It is blessed with breathtaking delineation and freshness on the nose, understated at first and then blossoming with mineral-infused black fruit, hints of blueberry, crushed stone and violet. The palate is perfectly balanced with filigree tannin, perfect acidity, a wine where everything seems to be in its right place. Blackberry, crushed stone at the front of the mouth, just a touch of spice towards the finish that shows supreme control. This is a Margaux that seems to light up the senses. The finish is dense, structured and quite firm though there is nary a hard edge to be found and while this too cannot rival the other worldly 1999, 2001 will one day be thought of as a genuinely excellent vintage for La Tâche. "Hints of mocha, vanilla, maraschino, and almond paste lend a confectionary note to generously rich cassis and raspberry, while Latakia tobacco, peat, clove, black pepper, star anise, and cumin contribute commune-typical Vosne-Romanée personality in spades. The high-toned, sweet themes continue inner mouth, with intimation of heliotrope, rowan, and lily perfume, while the wine's smoky, spicy elements seem to descend into a low-register undertone of roasted red meats and forest floor. As this opens to the air, a subtly sweet-saline suggestion of lobster shell reduction adds richness and succulence. Strikingly creamy in feel, this La Tâche nevertheless possessed a fresh berry edge that helps convey vibrancy to a finish that practically glows in your mouth, offering another of those Burgundian paradoxes of light and dark.."(96pts)

This was a rich and flavorful red, with chalky flavors and red citrus twits in a limestone way. This was an impressive '88, and the best '88 DRC I could remember having. I guess they are finally hitting their stride! There was great tanning expression on its brighter finish." (96pts JK)

1 bottle per lot $2400-3200

181 Richebourg - Vintage 2007*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"It was sweet and classic '07, fresh and crisp, begging you to drink it," Dr. Love aptly apprised. It was delicious and long with nice, light structure on its finish with a bit of zip and more length than I expected." (94pts JK)

1 magnum per lot $4500-6000

181A Romanée Conti - Vintage 2013*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The kaleidoscopically spicy, floral and complex nose however is a good deal more expressive, indeed almost surprisingly so given that it typically is quite reticent. In the same fashion as the La Tâche one aspect that is immediately clear is that 2013 is an emphatically powerful vintage for RC with its dense, serious and muscular middle weight plus flavors that retain terrific delineation on the extraordinarily pure and refined finish that seems to go on and on." (96pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $12000-16000

182 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2015*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

vlscl

"The 2015 Romanée-Conti Grand Cru is one of the pinnacles of this great red Burgundy vintage, opening in the glass to reveal a bouquet of kaleidoscopic complexity, notes of raspberry and red plum mingling with rose petal, peony, blood orange and spice. On the palate, the wine is silky, medium to full-bodied and stunningly complete, its supremely elegant tannins entirely cloaked in pristinely delicate red fruit. Despite its incredible concentration and persistence, this Romanée-Conti is utterly weightless, and its effortless harmony and unrelenting finish preclude any argument about its benchmark quality." (100pts)

1 bottle per lot $15000-20000

183 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2000*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

3lbsl, 2lwasl

"Full medium red. Pure, complex, perfumed aromas of violet, gunflint, minerals, spices and earth. Sweet but light on its feet, lifted by a note of menthol. Finishes with noteworthy persistence. Tannins are firm and dusty." (91+pts IWC)

3 bottles per lot $6500-8500

184 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2006*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

2lbsl

"The Domaine de La Romanée-Conti's 2006 Romanée-St.-Vivant charts its own mysterious path, dissimilar to that of their Grands-Échézeaux, as well as reflecting the strides in quality that have manifestly been achieved in recent years in this site, more than at any other at this domaine. Iris, buddleia, and musky narcissus-like floral perfume; ripe purple plum and blackberry; sassafras and licorice; along with smoked meat and a hoisin-like amalgam of spices and soy all waft alluringly from the glass. The tannins here are ultra-refined and there is a vintage-typical sense of levity, despite all of the dark intrigue of enveloping black fruits, forest floor, fungal, and carnal flavors that persist on the palate. Here is an uncanny alliance of the sensual and thought-provoking such as only great red Burgundy among the world's red wines can engender, and if this wine doesn't stimulate in you cravings and wonder at once, the fault is doubtless in yourself and not the glass. It seems to marry the brightness and finesse of the 2002 with the texturally richness of the (unexpectedly fine) 2000, two standouts in recent tasting of Romanée-St.-Vivant that I was privileged to attend. But there is much more depth here, and I expect that this wine's beauty will be worth pondering and savoring for at least two decades." (95pts)

2 bottles per lot $3500-5000

185 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2007*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"An ultra elegant, pure and quite delicately fruited and spiced nose that is extremely fresh, floral and expansive that is more layered still as it introduces seductively textured, detailed and gorgeously delineated middle weight flavors that possess laser-like focus if less density than is usually seen with this wine. Indeed, this is rather like a ballerina with limited power and weight but the watch word here is purity, purity and purity. I quite like this but it will strike some as unduly light though I believe the underlying material is present such that it will add weight in bottle as it ages." (94pts BH)

“The 2010 Meursault from Jean-Francois is an absolute master class in winemaking and frankly, this “Village” would outshine many a Premier and Grand Cru. It possesses a crystalline bouquet with lime flower, apricot and that leitmotif of crushed stone. The palate is crisp and taut on the entry. This is a tightly wound, tensile Meursault with real presence and weight in the mouth, fanning out towards the sour lemon-tinged finish that feels so alive. How do they do it? TREASURES FROM THE CELLAR OF TRIBECA GRILL

By David Gordon

As Wine Director at Tribeca Grill since its opening in 1990, I have been fortunate to curate a wine program that has grown organically since we began. Our opening list had only 60 selections, but we were extremely busy and as time went on our clientele demanded more. Owned by famed restaurateur Drew Nieporent, who at the time also owned the wine destination Montrachet down the street, Tribeca Grill gave Managing Partner Marty Shapiro and me an opportunity to expand the wine program to suit our customers' needs and increase revenue. Being co-owned by Robert Deniro and a short list of celebrity investors including Bill Murray, Baryshnikov, Ed Harris, Sean Penn, Lou Diamond Phillips and others certainly helped to put us on the map. But it was the skill of Drew and Marty, as well as our first two executive chefs, Don Pintabona and Stephen Lewandowski, who turned the restaurant into the food and wine destination that lasted almost 35 years. I would humbly add that the dynamic wine program played a big part in the success of Tribeca Grill.

As the list grew, we built the first of our three temperature-controlled wine cellars in the basement of the restaurant. We never moved the wine or warehoused anything off premise. The building was the old Martinson Coffee warehouse built in the 1920's so there was plenty of space to cellar our wines. We had about 20,000 bottles and over 2000 different selections at the cellar's peak. I decided to focus on 3 regions: Rhone, Burgundy and California. Rhone and California provided value wines that matched well with our American grill cuisine. And then over the years and after working many great wine dinners at our sister restaurant Montrachet, with Daniel Johnnes and Tim Kopec, I thought we should include great Burgundy as well. I had a particular love of Chateauneuf du Pape and at its peak, we had over 300 different selections on the list, the most of any restaurant in the world. You will see many classic producers in this collection - DRC, Rousseau, Roumier, Comte de Vogue, Rayas, Bonneau, Chave, Colgin, Marcassin, and Aubert to name a few of the great collectibles! But I am most proud of the fact that all of the wines presented here are eminently drinkable and affordable. They are wines that have aged slowly in our cold cellars and will bring immense pleasure to drink right now.

The vast majority of wines offered here were purchased on release and stayed unmoved in our temperature-controlled wine cellars. The others were purchased at auction or came from other restaurants in our group. There may be a little wear and tear on the labels from many months of inventory, but fill levels are great and the wine was kept properly. The thousands of customers who enjoyed wines from our collection can attest to the provenance and quality of the wines they ordered over the years. It's my privilege to present the wines from The Cellar of Tribeca Grill, a place where I worked and oversaw this wine collection for almost 35 years!

This is the first of a two-part offering, including an extensive web offering October 13-19!

231 Château Pétrus - Vintage 1990

Pomerol

lbsl, cuc, sdc

"The phenomenally rich, well-endowed 1990 Pétrus has been magical from the first time I tasted it in cask. The color is a dense, jammy plum/purple. The wine possesses a knock-out nose of black fruits intertwined with aromas of toasty new oak, caramel, and flowers. Massively rich and full-bodied the 1990 is an extraordinarily rich, seamless wine with layers of flavor, and a finish that lasts for nearly 45 seconds." (100pts)

1 bottle per lot $2600-3500

232 Château Trotanoy - Vintage 2009

Pomerol

"An absolutely prodigious wine, the dense purple 2009 Trotanoy exudes extraordinary notes of minerals, forest floor, sweet black currants and black cherry jam along with floral notes and graphite. Very full-bodied, with silky tannins, fabulous opulence and palate presence, this terrific wine should be at its best in 7-10 years and last for 20 or more. Think of it as a more concentrated, "bigger" version of the extraordinary 1998." (98+pts)

233 Château d'Yquem - Vintage 1986

Sauternes

lwisl, sos, scc, 1x1 Jeroboam owc missing lid

234 Chambertin - Vintage 2019

A. Rousseau

"There is excellent intensity to the full-bodied, concentrated and mineral-inflected flavors that coat the palate with sappy dry extract while delivering excellent depth and persistence on the beautifully balanced and impressively powerful if decidedly compact finale." (98pts VM)

2 bottles per lot $4500-6000

235 Chambertin - Vintage 2020

A. Rousseau

"A distinctly cool and exuberantly fresh nose features reticent wonderfully spiced notes of various dark berries along with forest floor nuances that include humus and earth." (99pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $4000-6000

236 Chambertin - Vintage 2016

Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau

"Here too there is just enough wood in evidence to mention on the gorgeously spiced and intricately layered aromas of essence of red currant, floral, plum, earth and a whisper of the sauvage. Once again the mouthfeel of the notably more imposingly-scaled" (98pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $1800-2400

237 Chambertin - Vintage 2020

Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau

"... has an even more complex bouquet than the Chambertin - a quite profound, quite riveting cornucopia of red berry fruit, sous-bois and crushed stone all delivered with breathtaking delineation." (98-100pts VM)

2 bottles per lot $4000-6000

238 Charmes Chambertin - Vintage 2020

A. Rousseau

"...has a mixture of red and black fruit, beautifully delineated, hints of blood orange and crushed stone percolating through with aeration. The palate is medium-bodied with pliant tannins, perfectly judged acidity..." (94-96pts VM)

3 bottles per lot $1500-2000

239 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2011

A. Rousseau

4lsl

"Bright, dark red. Knockout nose combines dark berries, licorice, spices, violet, game and pepper, plus a whiff of caramel. Sweet, sappy and concentrated, with excellent spicy lift to the flavors of blueberry and black cherry. Mounts impressively on the chewy, tactile back end." (92+pts IWC)

4 bottles per lot $1800-2400

240 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2015

A. Rousseau

2wisl

"The 2015 Clos de la Roche Grand Cru is excellent, opening in the glass with a complex bouquet of red and black cherry, plum preserve, grilled meat, dried ceps and espresso roast, framed by a judicious application of cedary oak (20% new). On the palate, the wine is full-bodied and firmly framed, with unusual depth and concentration for this cuvée, its ample chassis of tannins asserting itself on the firm finish." (93+pts)

241 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2019*A. Rousseau*

3 bottles per lot $1800-2400

242 Gevrey Chambertin - Vintage 2016*Clos St. Jacques, A. Rousseau*

"The 2016 Gevrey Chambertin 1er Cru Clos Saint Jacques, where 20% at the bottom of the vineyard was lost to frost, nevertheless has a wonderful bouquet that blossoms in the glass, quite floral with wilted rose petals, minerals and vivid red fruit. The palate is medium-bodied and a little bit more sinewy than previous years, with good density and vigor but perhaps not with quite the same precision as the Ruchottes on the finish. Perhaps this is one cru from Rousseau that is not quite up there with the 2015, but then again, this wine can produce miracle in bottle..."(93-95pts)

243 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2009*Comte de Vogue4lbsl*

"The 2009 Bonnes-Mares is quite big and powerful yet also possesses a seamlessness that is very 2009. Waves of black fruit, spices, menthol and licorice saturate the palate as this large-scaled, dramatic wine opens up in the glass. The Bonnes-Mares boasts a tremendous combination of fruit and sheer structure. The 2009 is more approachable than the 2010 and nearly as dazzling. It will still require quite a bit of time, however, readers need to be patient. Anticipated maturity: 2024-2039."(96pts)

245 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2010*Comte de Vogue6fl*

"Bright, deep red. Crushed blueberry, pomegranate, kirsch and licorice on the very fresh, perfumed nose, lifted by notes of lilac and peony. Suave and seamless on the palate, but with superb energy and lift to the flavors of cherry, purple fruits and spicy oak. Wonderfully juicy, sappy wine with a strong finishing note of blackberry, noble tannins and outstanding rising length. A brilliant Bonnes-Mares."(95+pts VM)

247 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2011*Les Amoureuses, Comte de Vogue6fl, 1stl*

"Tasted blind at the Burgundy 2011 horizontal tasting in Beaune. The 2011 Chambolle-Musigny les Amoureuses from Comte de Vogüé has a quintessential "Amoureuses" bouquet with opulent and generous black cherries and blueberry aromas, distant scents of oak vanillin developing in the glass. This is very floral and perfumed. The palate is medium-bodied with very lithe and supple tannins. The acidity is well judged and it is blessed with a very satin-like, harmonious finish that demonstrates great persistence. This does not quite match up to the example I tasted last year, but I suspect that it will begin to blossom in 2-3 years."(92pts)

Sweet floral notes meld into expressive dark red fruit in this mysterious, evocative Burgundy. There is a weightless intensity to the Musigny that is achingly gorgeous. "A remarkably attractively cool and restrained nose of various red berries, spice and a beautiful array of floral elements complements well the rich and equally cool mineral-tinged big-bodied and overtly muscular flavors. There is a really lovely sense of underlying tension on the clean and pure finish that delivers strikingly good length. This intensely mineral-driven effort is also clean and firm but with slightly better phenolic maturity to the supporting structural elements which should allow this beauty to age successfully for many years to come."(94pts BH)

Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue

"Tasted blind at the annual "Burgfest" tasting in Beaune. The 2012 Musigny Vieilles Vignes Grand Cru from de Vogüé has slightly brighter and more vivacious fruit than J-F Mugnier, and in fact, the two wines seem to go in two different trajectories in the glass, this blossoming and the other becoming more occluded. De Vogüé's Musigny is unashamedly floral in style, very elegant and yet delineated. There is a noticeable estuary scents, mudflats and seaweed, that begin to permeate the fruit. The palate is medium-bodied with very fine tannin, wonderful acidity and succinctly integrated new oak that is barely tangible. It is intense but elegant, long and tender in the mouth. It is a fabulous Musigny, one of the best that the domaine has produced in recent years."(98pts)

"The 2016 Volnay 1er Cru Clos du Château des Ducs was destemmed by hand this year, with five people taking five hours to complete the entire vineyard. Apparently Frederic's great-grandfather did the same in the late 1920s before there were destemming machines. It has an ethereal, brilliantly defined bouquet with disarming pure red berry fruit that, for want of a better expression, are just pure pinoté. 276 Châteauneuf du Pape - Vintage 2009*Château Rayas*

"The 2009 Rayas Châteauneuf du Pape is an awesome example of elegance combined with extraordinary power. The alcohol levels must be between 15.5% and 16%, but the elegance and sublime nature of this wine make it irresistible. Its dense ruby/purple color is followed by an extraordinary bouquet of framboise, black cherry liqueur intermixed with blacker fruits, licorice and a hint of flowers. Pure with terrific layers of fruit concentration (although it's remarkably light on its feet), silky tannins, well-integrated acidity and a stunning personality, this monumental Rayas is breathtaking. "Another insanely good wine that's a legend in the making is the 2007 Châteauneuf du Pape XXL, which is almost all Grenache (there's a splash of Mourvèdre) that spent three years in foudre and barrels before being bottled. Offering a port-like bouquet of blackberry jam, beef blood, black licorice and roasted herbs, it hits the palate with an incredible amount of fruit and texture yet always stays balanced, fresh and lively, with a finish that just won't quit. 306 Colgin Red - Vintage 2003

IX Estate

10hbsl, 6tl, 1wisl, 1ssos

"The 2003 IX Estate Proprietary Red is a blend of 64% Cabernet Sauvignon, 31% Merlot and rest Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot from their steep hillside vineyards. The youngest, tightest, most masculine wine of this quartet, it will benefit from another 5-6 years of cellaring and should have 25 years of life ahead of it. This impressive, blue/purple-colored 2003 behaves more like a 4- to 5-year-old wine than one that is a decade old. It is just beginning to strut its full potential. There is a roasted meaty character to this beauty, along with plenty of cassis, blackberries, blueberries, incense and spring flower notes. It admirably reveals the great terroir Ann Colgin and her husband, Joe Wender, have unlocked high above Lake Hennessy." (96+pts)

312 Château Angelus - Vintage 2006

"...boasts an inky/purple color as well as a sumptuous bouquet of creosote, blueberry pie, espresso roast, blackberries, and graphite. Extremely full-bodied and stunningly rich with a multi-layered texture, sweet tannin, and a 45-second finish, this exceptional 2006 is one of the great wines of St.-Emilion." (95pts)

313 Château Ausone - Vintage 2009

St. Emilion

"A masterpiece in the making, proprietor Alain Vauthier's 2009 Ausone boasts a dense purple color along with notes of powdered chalk, crushed rocks and wild blue, red and black fruits. Extravagantly rich with great minerality, precision and freshness as well as a voluptuous texture (unusual for a baby Ausone), this is an extraordinary wine. Sadly, there are fewer than 1,200 cases ... for the world." (98+pts)

314 Château Ausone - Vintage 2010

St. Emilion

"...struck me as another brilliant, potentially perfect wine, which should come as no shock to people who have been following Vauthier's work over the last decade or more. Backward and intense, this wine offers up notes of crushed chalk/rock minerality interwoven with blueberry, black raspberry and cassis as well as some graphite and vanillin. It is incredibly rich but at the same time precise, fresh and vivacious." (98+pts)

Big, rich, opulent and full-bodied in the mouth, it is laden with bold blue and black fruits, superbly supported by very firm, very finely grained tannins and wonderfully seamless freshness, finishing with long-lingering exotic spice hints." "Was even more perfumed and had a sweet cotton candy edge. It was sweet and almost tropical. Eric found the same buttered popcorn quality that reminded him of 1989. There were charcoal and mineral flavors that were expressive and possessing pop. I did not write down an exact score, but I remember that it was in what I would call the very good zone..."(90-92pts JK)

317 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 1983

Pauillac

1ts, 1vhs, 2stl, 2lscl, 1sdc

"Finally, the 1983 Lafite is beginning to shed its tannin. The wine exhibits a deep ruby/garnet color with only a slight lightening at the edge. The intoxicatingly perfumed nose of lead pencil, pain grille, red and black fruits, minerals, and roasted herbs is provocative. In the mouth, this wine displays considerable body for a Lafite, plenty of power, and a fleshy, rich, sweet mid-palate. Long, elegant, plump, and surprisingly fleshy, this outstanding example of Lafite seems largely forgotten given the number of high quality vintages during the golden decade of the eighties."(93pts)

328 Château Haut Brion Blanc - Vintage 1983

Graves

1ts, 1vhs

"The most recent bottle of '83 Haut-Brion Blanc that I crossed paths with was oddly forward and tropical in profile, but I am sure that this was an off bottle, as every previous example has been absolutely stellar and classic in style. Rather than print a note on a bottle that was so atypical, I have reached back a couple of years for the last pristine bottle of '83 HBB that I tasted. With this previous bottle, the wine was absolutely singing, offering up a deep, pure and à point nose of fig, apple, fresh-culled herbs, petrol, chalky soil tones and vanillin oak. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, crisp and seamless, with a lovely core, impeccable focus and balance and outstanding length and grip on the complex and very classy finish. I note that the '83 Haut-Brion Blanc tips the scales at a cool 12.5 percent alcohol, which is a far cry from the mid-fourteens this wine has been sporting in the last several, less than stellar vintages. This is a classic vintage of this magical wine." (94pts JG)

329 Chambertin - Vintage 2000

A. Rousseau

"The phenomenal aromatic complexity displayed by this wine from cask is still present with relatively tight but not hard frank, direct and robust flavors that have plenty of buffering fat and superb length. As I noted in my original tasting note, this will not compete for the longest lived Rousseau Chambertin yet it is packed, powerful and beautifully complex and is an outstanding wine in any context but particularly so for the vintage. Because there is so much fat, this can be enjoyed now but will clearly offer more fireworks in the future so I would be inclined to let this baby rest for at least another 5 years and longer if you can keep your hands off of it." "This is completely different from the Bèze aromatically speaking as here the nose is brooding and recalcitrant and only aggressive swirling liberates fresh scents of spice, wet stone, game and dark berry fruits. There is outstanding richness to the powerful and impressively scaled flavors that possess an abundance of dry extract that imparts a velvety quality to the mid-palate while also buffering the tightly wound core of firm tannins on the driving mineral-inflected and hugely persistent finish." "A positively kaleidoscopic nose features a wonderful panoply of spice and fruit aromas that offer something new and different with every sniff. The rich, full and utterly classic flavors are a study of the harmonious liaison of refinement and power that culminate in an explosive and driving finish that is even longer than that of the Clos St. Jacques yet it sacrifices nothing in terms of balance, harmony or transparency. A strikingly good wine packed with upside potential. While pronouncements of this sort are always fraught, it's possible that the 2005 Bèze could one day rival the best Rousseau Bèze ever..." Thick, palate staining and remarkably dense with length that I could still taste an hour later. This is massive but not hard or one-dimensional and as remarkable as this is already, the potential for future improvement is uncanny - indisputably one of the greatest wines of the vintage and it wouldn't surprise me at all if one day my score proved to be conservative because it is so rare to find this level of extract." "The 2006 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Reignots shows its class over the 2003 and 2004. It has a glorious, beautifully defined bouquet of raspberry and crushed strawberry fruit laid over scents of cold stone, violets and potpourri. The palate is medium-bodied with a silky smooth texture, very well-judged acidity and a sense of mineralite that this propitious premier cru ought to show. Weightless on the finish, this is a seductive Vosne-Romanée by Louis-Michel and it should drink well over the next two decades."(94pts)

381 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2019

"The 2014 Richebourg Grand Cru is more backward than the Romanée-Saint-Vivant at the moment (the opposite to Hudelot-Noëllat the previous day when it was the other way round). Here, there is a very subtle marine/seaweed influence that tinctures that dark berry fruit. The palate is defined by its very fine tannin, the focus and tension interwoven through every atom of this Richebourg; the finish is surfeit with nervosité and tension so that it slips down the throat (guilty!) with so much ease. Wonderful -- one of the wines of the vintage." (96-98pts)

This is an outstanding effort in the context of the vintage." (93pts BH)

"The 2016 Bonnes Mares Grand Cru has a tightly wound bouquet, perhaps missing a little delineation at the moment, a little loamy in style at first. Then with rigorous swirling of the glass, it gets its act together and provides the voluptuousness that signposts a great Bonnes Mares. The palate is medium-bodied with a ripe and generous entry countered by a fine line of acidity. It feels slightly confit in style with a satisfying and long finish that fans out, as if this Bonnes Mares finally slips into fifth gear. Gorgeous." (95-97pts)

On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and still very young (this too was late finishing up its malo and shows still a touch of gas on the backend), with a very soil-driven personality, ripe tannins and excellent length and grip on the youthful and very promising finish." "...is a great wine in the making. The bouquet is pure, sappy and quite expressive, but the palate is still on the primary side and the wine will deserve a fully twelve to fourteen years in the cellar to start to properly stir from hibernation. The nose is a superb blend of red and black cherries, gamebird, a very complex base of chalky soil tones, woodsmoke, spicy oak, mustard seed and a pungent topnote of roses. On the palate the wine is pure, full-bodied, focused and a bit more mineral in personality out of the blocks than the regular Clos de la Roche, with a rock solid core of fruit, fine-grained tannins and stunning length and grip on the very, very promising finish. "The 2016 Romanée Saint-Vivant Grand Cru was the last one to finish its malolactic this year. It has a very pure and focused bouquet, the Malconsorts plus one if you like, sporting outstanding mineralité and tension. The palate is medium-bodied with fine, slightly chalky tannin, conveying plenty of energy and tension, quite sharp in the mouth with a fine bead of acidity and a sustained finish. The plus sign indicates that I am conservative with my score given the late malolactic and it would not surprise me if it steps up a level once in bottle." (93-95+pts)

"The 2014 Clos de la Roche Vieilles Vignes Grand Cru has a corker of a nose: here, a rush of raspberry and Morello cherry infused with limestone and flint aromas. The palate is stately, regal, with filigree tannin and a beguiling sense of symmetry. It bides its time in the mouth before fanning out with effortless ease. This is a fabulous, vivacious Clos de la Roche."(95-97pts)

"A brooding and almost grumpy nose only grudgingly gives up its aromas of poached plum, warm earth, smoked game and once again, plenty of spice nuances. The velvety and opulent big-bodied flavors brim with an abundance of dry extract that imparts a seductive mid-palate mouth but also serves to buffer the remarkably firm tannic spine shaping the powerful and hugely long finish where the only nit is a suggestion of warmth."(97pts BH)

"This is actually somewhat similar to the nose of the Folati res in the sense of having that mineral reduction character so often found in Chablis but as one would expect, the aromas are notably more elegant, refined and complex while being followed by textured, pure, detailed and delineated flavors that are quite reserved and cool at present while culminating in a focused, crystalline and driving finish. This does a slow build from the mid-palate before exploding onto the knockout finish. A Zen wine. "(93-96pts BH)

This is long, tight and linear with huge amounts of dry extract that renders the very firm acid spine almost invisible at present though the finish is clearly shaped by it. "(97pts BH)

"The 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon CCS (14.6% alcohol and 175 cases) is absolutely out of this world. I have given more perfect scores to this cuvée than any of the other Schrader wines. Made from Clone 4 with slight additions of Clone 6 and 337, it is 100% Cabernet Sauvignon, like all these wines from the Beckstoffer To Kalon Vineyard. This wine has a glorious nose of licorice, cedar wood, vanillin, crème de cassis, blackberry and graphite. Super-rich and velvety, with sweet, supple tannins, an opulent full-bodied mouthfeel, and a skyscraper-like finish, this prodigious wine is drinking beautifully, and just now coming into its adolescence. “The 2012 Vosne AC from Domaine Liger-Belair is another absolutely stellar, sappy and soil-driven village wine that is very, very long on silken pleasure and perfume. The really striking nose jumps from the glass in a mix of raspberries, cherries, Vosne spice tones, quail, lovely minerality and a nice base of cedary wood. On the palate the wine is medium-full, pure and very intensely flavored, with a sappy core of red fruit, excellent minerality, modest, velvety tannins and a very long, focused and tangy finish. This wine is going to age beautifully, as it is extremely well-balanced, but it is going to be so seductive out of the blocks that I would fully expect that ninety percent of the production will have been drunk up with great enjoyment before the wine has seen three years in bottle! High class AC.” (90pts JG)

"The 2012 Vosne-Romanée Clos du Château had been bottled in late September as Louis-Michel wanted to keep the freshness. The 0.83-hectare clos lies within the village itself, just above from La Colombiere. It has a refined bouquet, very focused with subtle forest floor notes infusing the vibrant red and black fruit, before offering a touch of dried rose petal. The palate is medium-bodied with superb focus and harmony. This is utterly seductive, gliding across the mouth, seamless and feminine. 502 La Tâche - Vintage 1999

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

1lsl

"Tasted at the La Tâche vertical at The Square. Having not tasted the La Tâche 1999 since it had been bottled, I was intrigued to see how it was developing. Monumentally, is the correct answer. First and foremost this is a seriously long-term La Tâche that is maturing at a glacial pace. Indeed, I left most in my glass and waited for it to open. An hour later and it was firing on all cylinders. It is blessed with an incredibly intense, powerful nose that loses its broodiness with aeration and eventually unveils a crystalline set of mineral-soaked aromatics that sport a decadent, almost exotic floral note wilted violets and potpourri. The palate has a quite astonishing structure, but it is more the symmetry that makes this one of the greatest vintages of recent years. It unfolds with daring passion to reveal layers of plush but focused dark plum and cassis fruit that just seem to flow and flow on the never-ending finish. It is a multifaceted, multidimensional masterpiece that really needs another decade in bottle."(100pts)

"A 2006 DRC La Tâche made everyone stand up and take notice. This was a deep wine showing lots of skin, with that cedary goodness on top of fruit that smelled addictively good. There was almost a drug-like euphoria to the La Tâche. This was a full and long wine, with a finish that was fine and polished despite lingering on and on. There was forest in the house, or this was a house made out of an entire forest, as its breadth and depth impressed us all. Spicy and sexy, La Tâche is always special."(96pts JK)

"This is perhaps even more floral than the Richebourg and every bit as spicy on the ultra-pure, cool and remarkably elegant mix of red and blue pinot fruit, red currant and wild red berries that are openly mineral-inflected. As with all of the DRC '10s, the equally stony flavors and supporting tannins are extremely fine and while there is ample power and vibrancy, the palate feel is all silk and satin. To be sure, this is a big wine with impressive concentration but this is definitely not cut from the same cloth as say the 2005 or 2009 versions are. "The restrained and markedly cool nose displays an impressive variety of floral and spice hints that add a sense of elegance to the stunningly complex ripe dark berry fruit and plum aromas. While this is almost always a muscular and at times even robust wine young, in 2010 it offers a truly remarkably sophisticated mouth feel because like the RSV, the tannins are refined and fine-grained. Moreover, there is the same knockout complexity that the nose displays on the intensely mineral-driven finish and overall, this is a complete wine of simply fantastic length."(96pts BH)

"Candor forces me to admit that mere words won't begin to do a wine like this justice so I will simply state that the Mugnier Musigny is a compelling candidate for wine of the vintage honors, which is saying something significant in such a gifted vintage like 2005. An incredibly complex and kaleidoscopic nose features a dazzling array of aromas, particularly violet and rose petal nuanced with anise, clove and cinnamon that merges seamlessly into sweet, pure and ultra refined full-bodied flavors that are harmonious and deep, with a driving tension that forces everything into striking relief yet the palate impression is pure velvet on the immensely long finish. Moreover, it delivers one of my favorite aspects of great burgundy, which is power without weight but in this case, the '05 Musigny is an enormously powerful wine but not especially weighty. In short, this is flat out brilliant and is a wine that you will definitely want in your cellar."(99pts BH)

The flavors are bigger if not finer with serious power and weight on the rich, full and driving finish that possesses an exuberant underlying sense of energy, all wrapped in a core of rock solid but ripe and balanced tannins. "The 1999 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru is a spectacular white Burgundy that numbers among the greatest recent vintages of this legendary wine, wafting from the glass with notes of preserved citrus, toasted sesame, buttered popcorn and gingerbread, showing more and more complexity as it unwinds in the glass. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and concentrated, with wonderful tension at the core, its glossy texture underpinned by a bright line of acidity that carries through the penetrating, searingly intense and unrelenting finish. This Corton-Charlemagne's sheer length marks it out as one of the high points of this tasting. Les Combottes, Domaine Leroy

"The 2013 Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru les Combottes has a very complex bouquet with scents of wet limestone and sea spray infusing the red and black fruit. This is almost pixilated. The palate is quite masculine and linear at the moment, very well defined, impressive structure and presence with a very persistent finish that stays in the mouth a minute after the wine has departed." 560 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1988*Vieilles Vignes, G. Roumier*

ltl, lbsl, cuc

"A rarity of rarities was next, the 1988 Roumier Bonnes Mares Vieilles Vignes. It was similar to the "regular" except it was deeper and more concentrated. Someone bickered about that 1988 dryness,' but I was completely smitten. I was lost in the depths of this wine's soul. So deep and so concentrated kept appearing in my notes. This was an epic, WOW wine."(99pts JK)

561 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2001*Coche-Dury*

2lstl, 2cuc, 2sdc

"A myriad of spices and anise-spiked pears are found in the highly expressive nose of the 2001 Corton-Charlemagne. Medium to full-bodied, with levels of dry extract that would tip the scales, and a supple, fleshy character of intense width and power, this wine is amazing. Magnificently supple, yet focused, boisterous, yet refined, thick, yet balanced, it possesses a finish that easily lasts for over a minute. Moreover, it has all the ear-marks of perfection. This velvety-textured wine is jam-packed with minerals immersed in pear syrup, copious spices (including clove, ginger, and juniper berries), as well as a distinctive note of apple sauce. It is layered, opulent, and sexy, while remaining nuanced and seamless. Wow!..."(98-100pts)

"An incredibly densely fruited nose also only grudgingly offers up notes of stone, tangerine peel, white flowers, green apple and plenty of spice and soft wood nuances. There is an almost painful intensity to the equally concentrated and overtly powerful broad-shouldered flavors that brim with dry extract that simultaneously coats the palate while buffering the extremely firm acid spine on the incredibly long finish."(97pts BH)

"Good deep red. Unusually closed and less exotic than usual on the nose for this cuvée, hinting at crushed raspberry and Oriental spices, with notes of leather, mocha and minerals emerging with air. Concentrated and sweet, boasting a wonderfully sappy core of raspberry and mineral flavors. The very supple tannins arrive quite late and spread out to dust the palate. There is a cool and restrained mouth feel that is very sophisticated as the supporting tannins are quite fine grained and the almost pungent minerality adds lift to the satin-textured finish that is markedly austere at present. This is saline and quite dry in the best sense of the term."(89-92pts BH)

"...phenomenally dense and muscular It is immune to oxidation! Moreover, it has a level of concentration that represents the essence of the Mouton terroir as well as the high percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon it contains. Cassis, cedar, spice box, minerals, and vanillin are all present, but this opaque black/purple Pauillac has yet to reveal secondary nuances given its youthfulness. It exhibits huge tannin, unreal levels of glycerin and concentration, and spectacular sweetness and opulence. Nevertheless, it demands another decade of cellaring, and should age effortlessly for another seven or eight decades. I have always felt the 1982 Mouton was perfect, yet this immortal effort might be capable of lasting for 100 years! The fact that it resists oxidation is a testament to just how youthful it remains, and how long it will last."(100pts)

574 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1986*Pauillac1bn, 1ts, 2lstl*

"Clearly the youngest looking, most opaque and concentrated wine of the group, it tastes as if it has not budged in development since I first tasted it out of barrel in March, 1987. An enormously concentrated, massive Mouton-Rothschild, comparable in quality, but not style, to the 1982, 1959, and 1945, this impeccably made wine is still in its infancy I suspect the 1986 Mouton-Rothschild requires a minimum of 15-20 more years of cellaring; it has the potential to last for 50-100 years!..."(100pts)

Smooth and creamy on the palate, the 2006 is all about texture. There is a real feeling of density and weight in the 2006, qualities I expect to see grow with time in the bottle. All the elements fall into place effortlessly. The 2006 has been nothing short of magnificent both times I have tasted it. Comtes de Champagne remains the single best value (in relative terms) in tête de cuvée Champagne. I suggest buying a case and following it over the next 20-30 years, which is exactly what I intend to do. There is little doubt the 2006 Comtes de Champagne is a magical Champagne in the making." Lot: 632

638 Hermitage - Vintage 2013*J.L. Chave*

"Solidly built, with a serious bolt of smoldering charcoal through the core of dark cherry, plum and blackberry preserves. Lots of bay, sage and leather fill in the background, though the dark fruit easily keeps the upper hand. Superior drive and a long sanguine echo define the finish." (95pts, WS)

2 magnums per lot $1000-1400

639 Chambertin - Vintage 2017*A. Rousseau*

"...is present on the ultra-fresh and incredibly spicy though even more restrained nose that reflects notes of red berries, the sauvage, earth, floral and exotiCôtea wisps." (97pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $1600-2200

640 Chambertin - Vintage 2012*Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau*

"A highly spiced and exceptionally fresh, ripe and airy nose mixes a wide variety of mostly red berry fruit aromas though there are background notes of plum, cassis, lavender and oak. The broad-shouldered flavors possess a seductive texture thanks to the copious amounts of dry extract that push the very firm tannic spine to the background. I very much like the concentration here as well as the vibrancy and this is very, very dry in the best sense of the term, indeed it is presently almost crisp yet the very dense supporting tannins are clearly quite ripe." (97pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $1500-2000

641 Chambertin - Vintage 2014*Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau*

"A brilliantly discreet spicy nose consists of sandalwood, essence of black cherry liqueur, violets and a hint of the sauvage. There is seriously good size, weight and power to the imposingly scaled flavors that display almost painful intensity on the driving, explosively long and very firmly structured finish where a pleasing bead of minerality appears which helps to add lift to the finish." (97pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $1600-2200

642 Gevrey Chambertin - Vintage 2009*Clos St. Jacques, A. Rousseau*

"We had some Clos St. Jacques action next, starting with a rich and sweet 2009 Rousseau Gevrey Chambertin Clos St. Jacques. This was full of honey and sweet and ripe, showing the characteristic of the 2009 vintage in Burgundy very clearly. There was still tension to it despite its succulence. It was clearly a great Rousseau with rich, decadent, saucy red and purple fruit flavors." (96+pts JK)

1 bottle per lot $1100-1500

642A Chambertin - Vintage 2005*A. Rousseau*

"I was frankly quite surprised to find the Chambertin almost as expressive and every bit as broad aromatically as the Bèze as the nose is equally kaleidoscopic if featuring a more deeply pitched set of fruit aromas and more earth. The flavors are bigger if not finer with serious power and weight on the rich, full and driving finish that possesses an exuberant underlying sense of energy, all wrapped in a core of rock solid but ripe and balanced tannins. Like the potential of the Bèze, this too has a chance to ascend as one of the top vintages ever typified by such years as '34, '49, '52, '62, '66 and '91. Arguably the Chambertin of the vintage." (99pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $3000-4000

642B Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1995*G. Roumierlwisl*

"This was the first time that I had tasted the 1995 Bonnes Mares Grand Cru from Christophe Roumier. It is said that he did nothing wrong in this vintage and this splendid bottle attests to that (though another bottle was slightly corked). It has a bouquet that clearly evinces Grand Cru quality: a complex, nuanced aromatic profile of red cherries, blueberry, cold stone and iris, all delivered with quite brilliant delineation. The palate does not disappoint. It has exquisite poise, supremely fine tannin and delivers that opulence and lusciousness you expect from Bonnes-Mares. The only fault is that you will finish your glass too quickly and the current market value. Those with bottles in their cellar ... I am jealous. Tasted September 2016." (97pts)

1 bottle per lot $2400-3200

642C Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2012*Aux Malconsorts, Hudelot-Noellat1x1 jeroboam owc*

"Bright medium red. Less expressive and perfumed than the Suchots, with blacker fruit aromas complicated by strong minerality. More taut and dry in the mouth too, showing an almost inky quality to its black fruit, mineral and pepper flavors." (92-94pts VM)

1 Jeroboam per lot $1600-2200

642D Musigny - Vintage 2002

J.F. Mugnier

lwisl, nl

"An explosive, beautifully layered and nuanced nose of black cherries, crushed red and black fruits followed by rounded, elegant, intense and penetrating flavors that show better precision and more obvious structure than the Amoureuuses. I especially like the intensity and this builds from the mid-palate to a finish that completely coats the mouth and lasts for minutes. A superb wine that should age for years." (94pts BH)

643 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 1999

Cros Parantoux, H. Jaye

lscl, ssos

"Ooh la la, ah oui oui. The 1999 Jaye Vosne Romanée Cros Parantoux redefined the word sexy. Martine hailed it as a wild beast,' and Gil observed, gunpowder and Chinese black oolong tea.' There was an ocean of fruit here; one had to swim through it to find structure on its shores. This was 1999 at its finest. The pitch was insane, shattering my nose as if it was meant to be an ear drum, and its perfume lingered like memories of a perfect home-cooked meal from Mom. While adolescent, its creamy, purple fruit said it was ready for the draft, and its nose was described as fireworks, 'a chameleon,' and spearmint.' Thierry hailed it as brighter, better and fresher' than the great 1990, a bold statement, indeed. Its flavors were dessert-y without being sweet decadent, exotic, hedonistic, take your pick. Gil observed, caramel Crème brulee,' and beef and citrus tried to join the party. This wine was bordering on pornographic, and we were all...in awe :)." (98pts JK)

"The 2006 Dom Pérignon Rosé is every bit as captivating as it was last year, maybe even more so. At times powerful, but in other moments finessed, the 2006 constantly changes in the glass, revealing a different shade of its personality with every taste. Perhaps most importantly, the 2006 seems to have gained a level of precision and pure sophistication it did not show last year, when it was quite a bit less put together. Back then, the 2006 was a wine of tremendous potential; today that potential is starting to be realized. Quite simply, the 2006 Dom Pérignon Rosé is a magical Champagne. Don't miss it." (97+ pts VM)

The voyage begins in Champagne with twelve-bottle parcels of 1996 Dom Pérignon Cœnothèque and Rosé in OGB with perfect provenance, joined by Krug, Cristal, and La Grande Dame. From there, we travel to Bordeaux for legendary treasures featuring 1989 Haut-Brion, full cases of 2000 Lafite, 2005 Haut-Brion, and 1982 Mouton in OWC, alongside 2020 Pétrus and an imperial of 1982 La Mission Haut-Brion! Ancient marvels await as well, including 1904 Lafite, 1953 Margaux, and 1964 Vieux Château Certan!! All roads lead to Burgundy, where DRC takes the spotlight with Romanée-Conti from 1991, 2006, and 2011, complemented by Rousseau, Leroy, Dujac, and Méo-Camuzet. White Burgundy enriches the offering with Leflaive, Coche-Dury, and Raveneau. Our travels continue to the Rhône with rarities such as 1991 Chave Cuvée Cathelin and Guigal's iconic "La La's"! Spain offers the impeccable 1994 Vega Sicilia Único, while Italy delights with 2004 Giacosa Barolo Le Rocche del Falletto Riserva, double magnums of Monteverdine Le Pergole Torte in OWC, and sultry selections from Soldera, Ornellaia, and Gaja. The adventure concludes in California, where a broad array of selections, many in OWC, showcases Harlan Estate, Shafer Hillside, Bond, Scarecrow, Dominus, and BV Private Reserve dating back to 1967. This extraordinary tour across the world's greatest wine regions offers riches for every collector's cellar!

"The aromatics unfurl with a sense of ease prioritizing finesse over power: beeswax, linden, lemon thyme and fresh pear. The palate is exquisitely balanced with fleeting glimpses of Seville orange and apricot. But there is more about the tension, the effortlessness and that it just rolls out across the finish like a huge Turkish rug. This is the kind of wine that exhausts superlatives." (97+pts)

"There was one more white to be had, and what a white it was: the 1982 Chave Hermitage Blanc. "Now, you are speaking my language," I cooed to Jean-Louis. Both Sebastien and I were in awe of this spectacular white. Its yellow hues were not only in fruit but also in straw and wax. There was a dust of the earth in its nose that balanced perfectly with its fruit. It was still fresh despite being 36 years old; this was a white wine still on the rise! Its richness permeated my mouth, and its minerals made me smack my lips. This was a golden goose of a wine, sparkling in its nose with musk and fruit, and shining even more on the palate with its delicious flavors and balance. Bravo." (97pts JK)

 “...phenomenally dense and muscular It is immune to oxidation! Moreover, it has a level of concentration that represents the essence of the Mouton terroir as well as the high percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon it contains. Cassis, cedar, spice box, minerals, and vanillin are all present, but this opaque black/purple Pauillac has yet to reveal secondary nuances given its youthfulness. It exhibits huge tannin, unreal levels of glycerin and concentration, and spectacular sweetness and opulence. Nevertheless, it demands another decade of cellaring, and should age effortlessly for another seven or eight decades. I have always felt the 1982 Mouton was perfect, yet this immortal effort might be capable of lasting for 100 years!  “The 1990 Pichon-Longueville Baron has always been one of my benchmark wines, one that never ceases to perform. Now at 27 years of age, it is clearly at its peak, and what a wondrous thing it is. Now showing some bricking on the rim, the bouquet is utterly sublime, with red berries, cedar, touches of graphite, crushed rose petals and incense. You just want to become enveloped by these aromas. The palate is perfectly balanced, perhaps not as structured as it once showed since the tannins have mellowed, but what you get is a Pauillac relishing its secondary phase, which is almost Burgundy-like in terms of mouthfeel. Suffused with tension, it gains weight in the mouth toward the slightly tart finish. It is a Pichon Baron that only knows how to give sophisticated drinking pleasure. I once wrote that Pichon Baron is better than many 1990 First Growth, and that is a statement I have no reason to change. Tasted April 2017.”(98pts)

684 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2011*Domaine de la Romanée Contiscl*

"...has a fragrant bouquet, perhaps the most refined since Aubert de Villaine and his team took guardianship of the vineyard. Leaving the wine to unfurl over ten minutes, there are subtle ferrous notes that surface with passing moments, hints of wild mushroom infusing the brambly red fruit. The palate is crisp on the entry with hints of bitter cherry and a touch of white pepper." (94pts)

685 La Tâche - Vintage 2001*Domaine de la Romanée Conti4lscl, 2wisvl, 2ssos, 1sps*

"Strikingly extravagant nose of rose petals, oriental spices, pungent tea and leather notes plus ultra elegant pinot fruit. The powerful, chiseled, pure flavors are remarkably detailed, precise and fine with mind bending complexity yet for all the emotional drama of this wine, it remains understated and almost aloof at the moment. The finish is dense, structured and quite firm though there is nary a hard edge to be found and while this too cannot rival the other worldly 1999, 2001 will one day be thought of as a genuinely excellent vintage for La Tâche. In short, aristocratic in every sense." (96pts BH)

686 Richebourg - Vintage 2004*Domaine de la Romanée Contilscl*

"...surprisingly understated and subtle with an intensely floral nose of red and black fruit aromas that are nuanced and beautifully elegant, merging seamlessly into linear, reserved, indeed almost brooding flavors that are as once supple yet precise and detailed, all wrapped in a powerful and muscular finish that delivers striking length there is a gorgeous combination of finesse and power and again, I really like the sense of drive and energy here as well as the first rate balance." While it sounds moderately odd to describe it this way, there is a swagger to the '05 Riche and this will clearly be one very long distance runner..." (97pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $6000-8000

688 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2011*Domaine de la Romanée Contiscl, cuc*

"Discreet wood sets off a wonderfully elegant, airy and ultra-pure dark pinot fruit nose that is perhaps even more reticent and shut down than the La Tâche and only seriously aggressive swirling can reveal stubborn notes of rose petal, spice and menthol influence. The ultra-silky but firm medium-scaled flavors are also blessed with an impressive abundance of dry extract that buffers the prominent but ripe supporting tannins on the moderately austere, deep and palate coating finish. The length here is genuinely amazing, indeed even at this early juncture this is already the longest wine in the range. As it virtually always is at this point in its development, this is an exercise in understatement, poise and controlled power with an unrivaled purity of expression. In sum, this is Zen-like. As to whether it will ultimately be better than the La Tâche in 2011 remains to be seen but for now the two seem to be neck and neck from a purely qualitative perspective." (96pts BH)

689 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2007*Domaine de la Romanée Conti2scl*

"An ultra elegant, pure and quite delicately fruited and spiced nose that is extremely fresh, floral and expansive that is more layered still as it introduces seductively textured, detailed and gorgeously delineated middle weight flavors that possess laser-like focus if less density than is usually seen with this wine. Indeed, this is rather like a ballerina with limited power and weight but the watch word here is purity, purity and purity. I quite like this but it will strike some as unduly light though I believe the underlying material is present such that it will add weight in bottle as it ages." (94pts BH)

Moreover, it has a level of concentration that represents the essence of the Mouton terroir as well as the high percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon it contains. Cassis, cedar, spice box, minerals, and vanillin are all present, but this opaque black/purple Pauillac has yet to reveal secondary nuances given its youthfulness. "Remarkably perfumed nose projects an exotic bouquet of deep, leesy yellow fruit, minerals, honeycomb, smoked meat and flowers, with Asian spices building expanding in the glass. Almost painfully concentrated, offering a surreal parade of orchard and pit fruits, smoked meat, toasted brioche and marrow braced by intensely salty, stunningly incisive minerality. Imagine a Frankenstein's monster of Chablis Le Clos and Clos Ste. Hune-but one with perfect balance, of course-and you get an idea of what I found in my bottle. The energetic, stony character builds exponentially on the finish, which didn't seem to, well, finish. "The 2017 Le Pergole Torte is a wine of pure and total sensuality. I imagine the 2017 is one of those wines that will always offer tremendous pleasure. 737 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 1989

4stl, 1fl

"This continues to be one of the immortal wines and one of the greatest young Bordeaux wines of the last half-century. Consistently prodigious and almost a sure bet to top the scoring card of any blind tasting of this vintage as well as other years, the 1989 Haut-Brion is a seamless, majestic classic, and a tribute to this phenomenal terroir and its singular characteristics. The wine still has a very thick, viscous-looking ruby/purple color, a spectacular, young but awesome smorgasbord of aromas ranging from scorched earth, liquid minerals, graphite, blackberry and black currant jam to toast, licorice, and spice box. The levels of fruit, extract, and glycerin in this viscous, full-bodied, low-acid wine are awe-inspiring. The brilliant symmetry of the wine, extraordinary purity, and seamlessness are the hallmarks of a modern-day legend." (100pts)

"The dense, opaque garnet-colored 1982 Latour reveals slight amber at the edge. Sweet, smoky, roasted aromas in the nose combine with jammy levels of black currant, cherry, and prune-like fruit. It possesses extraordinary concentration and unctuousity, with a thick, fat texture oozing notes of cedar wood, tobacco, coffee, and over-ripe fruit. Low acidity as well as high alcohol (for Bordeaux) give the wine even more glycerin and textural chewiness. The finish lasts forever." (100pts)

- 750 Château Leoville Las Cases - Vintage 1986
St. Julien
lbsl, ssos
"The late Michel Delon always thought that this was the greatest vintage he had produced. We often tasted it side by side with the 1982, because I always preferred the latter vintage. Of course, the two vintages are quite different in style, with the 1986 a monument to classicism, with great tannin, extraordinary delineation, and a huge, full-bodied nose of sweet, ripe cassis fruit intermixed with vanilla, melon, fruitcake, and a multitude of spices. The wine has always been phenomenally concentrated, yet wonderfully fresh and vigorous. The wine still seems young, yet it is hard to believe it is not close to full maturity." - - - - - This limited-edition collectors' case contains two bottles of the 1986 Château Léoville Las Cases Grand Vin, plus one bottle of each of the single grape varieties used in the blend: Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Merlot and Petit Verdot with two château branded glasses, cylinder, funnel and drop stop. Still dark purple-colored, with only a hint of the flamboyant Mouline aromatics, this thick, super concentrated, full-bodied, tannic La Mouline is loaded with fruit, massive, and full-bodied, but still in need of time to fully shed its cloak of tannin."(100pts)

"The 1968 Taurasi Riserva is simply magnificent. Marvelously dense and ethereal, this classy, breathtaking Taurasi offers up a melange of plums, prunes, licorice, herbs, spices and minerals, showing incredible detail and tons of inner perfume. Amazingly, the 1968 comes across is incredibly youthful and vigorous. Today, it looks to be developing along the lines of the 1958, another fabulous vintage here. The finish retains very attractive elements of classicism and sheer tannic clout. The 1968 Riserva can be enjoyed today, but ideally it is best opened several hours prior to being served. In 1968 the Riserva was made from a blend of vineyards in Montemarano, Pian d'Angelo and Castelfranci, three of the most renowned spots for Aglianico. Anticipated maturity: 2010-2030." (97pts)

770 Penfolds Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2004*Block 42*

"It's not known exactly when the Kalimna Block 42 was planted but there are suggestions that the vines existed during the latter part of the 19th Century. They could be the oldest Cabernet vines in the world, although the famous Metala Cabernet vineyard in Langhorne Creek was known to have been planted in 1891 so could very well pre-date Kalimna. Regardless, I've been there and the vines are truly old. Only very rarely does Penfolds release this as a single vineyard wine, when the Cabernet is so fabulous it can't possibly be blended. The 2004 Block 42 Kalimna Cabernet Sauvignon was such a vintage. Matured in 100% new American hogsheads for 13 months, it displays a very deep garnet-purple color and profoundly earthy / gamey aromas over black cherry preserves, creme de cassis plus scents of leather, pencil shavings, Mediterranean herbs, black truffles, underbrush and black olives. The elegant, medium-bodied palate is tightly-knit and led by structure with a high level of grainy tannins, very high acid and a long earthy finish. Approachable now, it should continue to evolve and drink to 2025+."(97pts)

"The 1996 Dom Pérignon OEnotheque offers up layers of pastry, lemon, smoke and toastiness. At first deceptively understated, the wine turns positively explosive and layered on the palate, showing remarkable tension, elegance and power, all wrapped around a seriously intense frame. The balance between fruit and acidity is awesome. This is a marvelous DP OEeno. The OEeno is the same juice as the regular Dom Pérignon, except the OEeno is aged on the cork while the regular DP is aged in crown-sealed bottles. Rose

4x3 bottle ocb's

"Dom Pérignon's 1996 Rosé is one of my all-time favorite Champagnes, but I have never tasted it this way, nor has anyone else in the room. Three bottles of the 1996 Rosé are lined up; a standard fifth, magnum and jeroboam. We are all quite curious to taste the three wines, as they were all released at different times. It is quite common for Champagne houses to vary the level of dosage according to the bottle size and release date, but DP is notoriously tight-lipped on such matters, so it is impossible to know for sure. The jeroboam is opened first. It is tight as a drum. Over the course of several hours, the wine opens up beautifully and by the end of the dinner it is clearly the most intriguing and complete of the three. I wish I owned more of these, but this is the last. The magnum is great right out of the gate. I adore the magnum format for all wines, but Champagne in particular. This is a fabulous showing. The straight fifth is also surprisingly closed at the outset, but then blossoms quickly. At the first tasting, it is the most impressive of the three bottles but as time passes there is much less development here than in the big bottles. What a fascinating comparative tasting (Jeroboam Tasted)." (98+pts VM)

"Remarkably perfumed nose projects an exotic bouquet of deep, leesy yellow fruit, minerals, honeycomb, smoked meat and flowers, with Asian spices building expanding in the glass. Almost painfully concentrated, offering a surreal parade of orchard and pit fruits, smoked meat, toasted brioche and marrow braced by intensely salty, stunningly incisive minerality. Imagine a Frankenstein's monster of Chablis Le Clos and Clos Ste. Hune-but one with perfect balance, of course-and you get an idea of what I found in my bottle. The energetic, stony character builds exponentially on the finish, which didn't seem to, well, finish. The best analogy I can come up with for the intensity, focus and clarity of this Champagne is liquefied barbed wire. 794 Promontory Red - Vintage 2009

1x1 magnum owc

"...is a magnificent Bordeaux-styled red offering up notes of burning embers, scorched earth (not terribly dissimilar from a top Pessac-Leognan such as La Mission Haut-Brion), black fruits, loamy undertones of minerality, and hints of camphor and background oak. Dense, masculine, rich and full, this 2009 is built for the long-term, although for a 2009, the tannins are remarkably well-integrated, giving the wine definition and structure." (97pts)

1 magnum per lot $1000-1400

795 Scarecrow Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2012

1x3 bottle owc

"...included fruit from the 2-acre, old vine parcel that is nearly 70 years of age. It boasts an opaque purple color as well as copious notes of spring flowers, blackberries, black raspberries and wet rocks. The wine's gravelly minerality and spectacular opulence and density make it an instant classic." (98pts)

3 bottles per lot $1500-2000

796 Scarecrow Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2014

1x3 bottle owc

"...has everything one could possibly want in a Cabernet. Inky purple-colored to the rim, with a glorious nose of white flowers, Crème de cassis, hints of blackberry and boysenberry, some licorice and forest floor are followed by an enormously concentrated wine with fabulous purity, a skyscraper-like mid-palate and texture, a length of nearly a minute, and stunning flavors, with flawless integration of acidity, tannin, wood and alcohol." (100pts)

3 bottles per lot $1800-2400

797 Scarecrow Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2017

1x3 bottle owc

"Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2017 Scarecrow opens with notions of warm cassis, baked plums, black raspberries and boysenberries with accents of dried mint, pencil shavings and fragrant soil plus a waft of cast iron pan. Full-bodied, firm and grainy, it has a solid backbone of fantastically ripe tannins and seamless freshness, finishing long and mineral laced." (97pts)

Full-bodied, super concentrated and jam-packed with multilayered black and blue fruits, it has a rock-solid frame of grainy tannins and fantastic freshness, finishing long with tons of exotic spice and savory sparks." St. Emilion

"Deep garnet colored, the 2009 Cheval Blanc offers up profound notions of baked blueberries, blackberry compote and Crème de cassis with suggestions of chocolate mint, new leather and cloves plus a waft of candied violets. Medium to full-bodied, the palate is an exercise in elegance with very classy, super fine-grained tannins, beautiful freshness and layer upon layer of mineral-laced blue and black fruits, finishing long and perfumed." 1 magnum per lot $1200-1600

801 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 2005

Graves

"This is incredible on the nose, showing coffee cake, blackberry, floral, coffee bean and vanilla bean, with Chinese spices. A very complex, full-bodied red, with seamless, hyperpolished tannins that caress every millimeter of the palate. Lasts for minutes. So beautifully balanced, I'm left speechless. Is it even better than the 1989?" (100pts WS)

802 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 2000

803 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 2005

Graves

1x6 bottle owc

"The 2005 La Mission Haut-Brion is pure perfection. It has an absolutely extraordinary nose of sweet blackberries, cassis and spring flowers with some underlying minerality, a full-bodied mouthfeel, gorgeously velvety tannins (which is unusual in this vintage) and a long, textured, multi-layered finish that must last 50+ seconds. This is a fabulous wine and a great effort from this hal-lowed terroir. Drink this modern-day legend over the next 30+ years. Only 5,500 cases were produced of this blend of 69% Merlot, 30% Cabernet Sauvignon and 1% Cabernet Franc."(100pts)

6 bottles per lot $2200-3000

804 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 1996

Pauillac

"Tasted three times since bottling, the 1996 Lafite-Rothschild is unquestionably this renowned estate's greatest wine. As I indicated last year, only 38% of the crop was deemed grand enough to be put into the final blend, which is atypically high in Cabernet Sauvignon (83%). This massive wine may be the biggest, largest-scaled Lafite I have ever tasted. It will require many years to come around...the wine exhibits a thick-looking, ruby/purple color, and a knock-out nose of lead pencil, minerals, flowers, and black currant scents. Extremely powerful and full-bodied, with remarkable complexity for such a young wine, this huge Lafite is oozing with extract and richness, yet has managed to preserve its quintessential-ly elegant personality. This wine is even richer than it was prior to bottling. It should unquestionably last for 40-50 years."(100pts)

2 bottles per lot $1200-1600

805 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 2003

Pauillac

"Dense purple-colored, with classic notes of graphite inter-twined with melted licorice, Crème de cassis, smoke, and flowers, it reveals extraordinary richness, opulence, power, purity, intensity, and viscosity."(100pts)

1 magnum per lot $1400-1800

806 Château Latour - Vintage 2005

Pauillac

1lsl

"Deep and sensual to the core, the 2005 is utterly captivating. All the elements are so seamlessly put together. Graphite, Crème de cassis, licorice, dark spice and lavender infuse the 2005 with so much energy."(100pts VM)

2 bottles per lot $1200-1600

807 Échézeaux - Vintage 2018

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"Subtle but perceptible wood toast frames the very ripe yet again quite fresh aromas of poached plum, dark cur-rant and a broad array of spice elements. There is fine density to the bold medium weight plus flavors that brim with dry extract that buffers the beautifully long and youthfully austere finish that flashes a touch of sweet-ness."(94pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $1800-2400

808 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2015

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

1sl

"This is notably more floral as well as more restrained and what is interesting is that even though the violet-in-flected fruit profile is just as ripe, it runs toward the red side of the spectrum while displaying a similar variety of spice components that includes a hint of sandalwood. This too is impressively constituted but despite the pow-er and concentration the broad-shouldered flavors retain plenty of underlying tension as well as lovely precision before culminating in a massively long, balanced and harmonious if youthfully austere finale where the only nit is a hint of warmth."(95pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $2200-3000

809 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2015

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"The Domaine de la Romanée-Conti 2015 Ro-manée-St-Vivant Grand Cru was showing superbly from bottle, bursting from the glass with a dramatic and expressive bouquet of rose petal, violet, raspberry and spicy red cherry that has already digested its framing of new oak. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ex-pansive and supple, its frame of fine-grained tannins cloaked in a deep core of vibrant fruit and only asserting themselves on the long, penetrating finish."(95pts)

1 bottle per lot $2400-3200

810 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2017

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"A total stunner, the 2017 Romanée St. Vivant Grand Cru is the most expressive wine in the lineup today. Rich, creamy and so wonderfully textured, the RSV simply has it all. The tannins are present, but they are also matched by tremendous fruit density and pure power. Floral and savory overtones grace the lifted, saline finish. Leaving price aside, if I could only have one wine in this range, it would unquestionably be the RSV. The 2017 is a total knock-out. That's all there is to it."(98pts VM)

Domaine du Clos de Tart

"...has an ineffably complex bouquet, not as intense as it showed in barrel yet extremely deep and cerebral, black fruit mingling with forest floor, crushed stone and a touch of sea spray. The palate is perfectly balanced with a deceptively understated entry, before a wave of black and red fruit crashes over the senses. It is framed by supremely fine tannin, the intensity building toward a crescendo as it fans out." (99+pts VM)

"This great first-growth property, with aspirations to produce the finest Cabernet Sauvignon-based wine made in the New World, has given us a wine that has it all in 2013. Dense purple to the rim, with notes of espresso, white chocolate, mocha, blackberry, cassis, and cedar wood, the wine is full-bodied, opulent, but also structured, pure and incredibly long (well past a minute after-taste)."(100pts)

Around 2,100 cases were bottled."(98pts)

829 Promontory Red - Vintage 2014

2x3 bottle owc's

"I knew it was only a matter of time before Davide Cilli would make a wine at Promontory that would represent the maximum expression of this rugged hillside site. The 2014 Promontory has been exceptional in the past, but it has also gained another gear or two over the last year, which is pretty much now standard for these wines. Stun-ningly delineated and precise, with tremendous purity and exceptional balance, the 2014 Promontory dazzles from start to finish. This is an especially translucent style, one that is more about persistence and balance than power alone. Stated simply, the 2014 Promontory is towering achievement from one of Napa Valley's most talented young winemakers. Kudos to the Harlan family and the winegrowing team led by Bob Levy and Cory Empting for creating the framework that allowed Cilli to craft this exquisite, riveting Cabernet Sauvignon."(100pts VM)

Deep garnet-purple in color, the nose is incredibly youthful yet not so shy as some other 2016s at this stage, giving wonderfully intense scents of red currants, black cherries, wild blueberries and violets with nuances of star anise, cinnamon stick, rose hip tea, cigar box and wood smoke plus a touch of beef drippings. Medium to full-bodied, the palate has jaw-dropping elegance and depth, offering up layer upon layer of fragrant red and black fruits plus an extraordinary array of mineral sparks, supported by a rock-solid grainy texture, finishing with epic persistence and an edifying perfume. This is a very different style from the rich, opulently hedonic 2015, yet this wonderfully fragrant, beautifully poised and intellectually compelling 2016 is equally extraordinary." (100pts)

Pomerol

"The 2016 Clinet is a blend of 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Sauvignon that was picked from 22 September for the young vines, the older vines picked 1 and 2 October, finishing with the Cabernet Sauvignon the following day. It was cropped at 49 hectoliters per hectare and matured in 70% new oak and the remainder in second-fill barrels. It has 14.15% alcohol and a record-breaking 94 IPT. It has a very linear bouquet, quite strict and intense with a light iodine and marine scent merging with the black fruit. This is a more "aristocratic" nose for Clinet, sophisticated and one of the most nuanced I have encountered. The palate is medium-bodied with filigree tannin that forms the foundation of a more masculine Clinet, complex and focused with a subtle spiciness coming through on the finish, which fans out with confidence and leaves a disarming, saline tang in the mouth. Yes, this is a magnificent Clinet, cool and mineral-soaked, both cerebral and lip-smackingly delicious." (96-98pts)

"This is one of the most pixelated aromatics I can remember on a Montrose at this stage, featuring blackberry, boysenberry and cedar and real mineralité underneath. The palate is medium-bodied with fine density and wonderful salinity. There is tremendous precision with razor-sharp tannin, and a brightness on the finish that is exceptional. This is a Montrose that will comfortably sit alongside the canon of great vintages from this Saint-Estèphe estate. As my score implies, it's up there with the first growths. Stunning." (99pts VM)

878 Château Pape Clement - Vintage 2016

Graves

1x12 bottle owc

"The 2016 Pape Clement is a blend of 50% Merlot and 50% Cabernet Sauvignon this year, picked from 30 September until 19 October at 48 hectoliters per hectare. The first bottle that I tasted with Bernard Magrez and his team felt a little overdone, but I had a strong suspicion that it was not a representative bottle. A second bottle was more restrained on the nose with blackberries, red plum, a touch of cloves and a light iodine influence. I love the delineation and detail here. The palate is medium-bodied with a graphite-infused entry, plenty of black fruit, saline in the mouth with great depth and cohesion on the long and tender finish. It continues Pape-Clement/Bernard Magrez' move towards a more classic style compared to the previous decade. Tasted four times, once as I mentioned, unnecessarily richer in style, but the other three consistent."(95-97pts)

The 2016 Pichon Comtesse has been riveting on each of the four occasions I have tasted it from barrel thus far, making it easily one of the wines of the vintage. GOLDEN STATE GREATS

This assortment of 145 selections comes from a longtime collector in Houston, Texas, whose passion for wine began with a 1976 trip to Napa and a chance meeting with Warren Winiarski. Since then, annual visits to Napa—first alone, later with his wife, and eventually with his family—have fueled a lifelong focus on California Cabernet Sauvignon. A CPA and lawyer who has run a family business for more than 40 years, this consignor built a climate-controlled wine bunker on his farm outside Houston, complete with a backup generator, to ensure pristine storage. Additional wines have been cellared in professional storage in Napa itself, and all purchases were made directly from wineries or mailing lists, with shipping handled under strict temperature-controlled conditions. Thirty-six lots of Hundred Acre spanning 2013 to 2021 and eighteen lots of Scarecrow from 2007 to 2021 form the backbone of the offering, joined by big names such as Bond, Bryant Family, Colgin, Dalla Valle, Dana Estates, Diamond Creek, Eisele, Harlan, Lail, Levy & McClellan, Promontory, Realm and Ridge. Highly sought-after Sine Qua Non completes the collection. Carefully assembled over decades and maintained in professional storage, this is a tremendous opportunity for California Cabernet lovers and collectors to acquire some of the region's most coveted names at their very best!!

"The 2013 could well be the finest they've made to date, and that includes a lot of profound wines. An incredibly complex nose of charcoal embers, blackberry and cassis, some blueberries as well as white flowers, and a touch of forest floor is followed by a full-bodied wine with sweet, well-integrated tannins, a multi-dimensional mouthfeel, and a finish that goes on for close to a minute. This is absolutely remarkable wine powerful, dense, but at the sane time, precise and elegant. It's hard to believe, but I think this wine can probably age and improve for 25-40 years. Don't miss it if you have access to it."(100pts)

"Both 2013s are clearly the finest Eisele wines made under the administration of François Pinault and his top lieutenant, Frédéric Engerer, who also runs the show at Château Latour. The utterly compelling 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon is 100% Cabernet Sauvignon in this vintage and 1,800 cases were made. The wine is off-the-charts great, with an opaque bluish/purple color to the rim, an aroma of pen ink, graphite, blackberry and blueberry fruit, a hint of licorice, camphor and incense. The wine is full-bodied, with extraordinary concentration, remarkable equilibrium and noticeable, but sweet, well-integrated tannin. This is a large-scaled Eisele Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon, but flawless and with no edges. It is an amazing effort and a great achievement from this incredible terroir. "(100pts)

939 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 2005
"The 2005 is incredibly youthful at age ten, although certainly drinkable. And who wouldn't consume it if they had the opportunity? It will benefit from another 5-10 years of cellaring and certainly has 30 or more years left in its evolutionary curve. Gorgeous, and tasting akin to a hypothetical Pauillac blended with a great Pessac-Léognan from Bordeaux comes to mind because of the smoky, subtle barbecue notes, fruitcake, forest floor, graphite and minerality. The wine has stunning fruit and a full-bodied, powerful richness, yet is still nimble on its feet. This is a classic Napa Cabernet Sauvignon from an absolutely magnificent hillside vineyard in the Mayacamas Mountains overlooking the Oakville corridor on the valley floor. This opaque, garnet/purple wine is another tour de force and, once again, proves that Harlan Estate is not only one of the greatest wines of California, but of the world. "(98+pts)

"I wouldn't be surprised to see the 2010 Harlan Estate inch closer to perfection over the next decade. Surprisingly supple for this vintage, while this cuvée is not usually that flamboyant or exuberant in its youth, the 2010 is sensual and performing remarkably well. Its deep purple color is accompanied by notions of charcoal, graphite, camphor, creme de cassis, barbecue smoke and blackberries. "(98+pts)

960 Hundred Acre Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2013

Few and Far Between

"Obviously, the Eisele Vineyard next door is a first-growth quality vineyard, and so is Jayson Woodbridge's 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Few and Far Between. This has some Cabernet Franc (5%-15%), and spends 32 months in barrel. It is an absolutely outrageously great wine from the volcanic rocks and white volcanic ash of these soils in this northeast sector of Napa to the south of Calistoga. The finish goes on for over a minute, as this wine has layers and layers of fruit. If anything, it reminded me of a Château Latour on steroids. A magnificent example, it is one of the prodigious wines of this great vintage for Bordeaux varietals in Napa. The 2013 Few and Far Between already drinks well, but will still be reveling its purchasers 35-40 years from now. The sad thing about the Few and Far Between Vineyard is that it is only a five-acre parcel."(100pts)

Kayli Morgan Vineyard

"The sensational 2003 Cabernet Sauvignon Kayli Morgan Vineyard (100% varietal) is a candidate for wine of the vintage. Although it came in at 15.9% alcohol, it is not the least bit hot or out of balance. The wine boasts glorious levels of creme de cassis fruit and licorice that combine to form the background of a perfumed, aromatic wine with full-bodied richness, a voluptuous texture and both hedonistic and intellectual appeal that are sine qua non. This sensational Cabernet Sauvignon seems velvety, but every one of Woodbridge's wines that I have tasted is velvety from infancy. Yet they age and age as the 2000, a far from ideal vintage, has proven time after time. There is always a Pomerol-like silky texture to these wines, despite the fact they are 100% Cabernet Sauvignon."(98pts)

"Deep, dark ruby. Very dark, slightly high-toned aromas of blackberry, boysenberry, minerals and violet; I would have guessed this wine included some Cabernet Franc (Mega Purple, said general manager Michael Updegraff, tongue in cheek I assume). Very concentrated and intense, with its almost port-like cassis and black cherry flavors leavened by saline minerality. The echoing finish features huge ripe tannins that saturate the sides of the mouth. This wine shows the opulence of the 2012 but a bit more obvious breed and structure. Another classic Napa Valley Cabernet with a lot going on. Incidentally, Updegraff considers this the top Napa Valley Cabernet vintage of his career, which began in 1982."(95+pts VM)

"I knew it was only a matter of time before Davide Cilli would make a wine at Promontory that would represent the maximum expression of this rugged hillside site. The 2014 Promontory has been exceptional in the past, but it has also gained another gear or two over the last year, which is pretty much now standard for these wines. Stun-ningly delineated and precise, with tremendous purity and exceptional balance, the 2014 Promontory dazzles from start to finish. This is an especially translucent style, one that is more about persistence and balance than power alone. Stated simply, the 2014 Promontory is towering achievement from one of Napa Valley's most talented young winemakers. Kudos to the Harlan family and the winegrowing team led by Bob Levy and Cory Empting for creating the framework that allowed Cilli to craft this exquisite, riveting Cabernet Sauvignon."(100pts VM)

1024 Scarecrow Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2010*1x3 bottle owc*

"Tasting the three most recent vintages of the Scarecrow Cabernet Sauvignon was not only a privilege, but also an intellectual and hedonistic turn-on. The 2010 Scarecrow Cabernet Sauvignon (100% Cabernet Sauvignon) is a magnificent wine. Full-bodied and opulent with terrific purity, an intriguing, gravelly, wet stone-like minerality, and a sensational perfume, it has a spectacular finish that lasted over 45 seconds, offering up copious quantities of black currants, black cherries, cedar and vanillin. It is one of the superstars of the vintage. It is accessible now because of the sweetness of the tannins, but make no mistake, there is plenty of structure underlying the luxurious fruit levels. It should drink well for 30+ years."(98pts)

"The practically perfect 2001 Sloan (only the second effort released by Stuart Sloan) is aging magnificently. Made from very young vines planted on the steep hillsides above the Auberge du Soleil in Central Napa Valley, it exhibits a dense purple color with only a slight lightening at the edge as well as a phenomenal nose of burning embers, white chocolate, espresso roast, black currants and graphite. Full-bodied with an expansive, broad, creamy texture as well as a voluptuous finish, the wine has shed a lot of its tannin and is just beginning to hit its plateau of full maturity where it should stay for another 15-25+ years. This is a great terroir and at age ten, the 2001 confirms the accolades I bestowed upon it eight years ago."(99pts)

1048 Sine Qua Non Grenache - Vintage 2004

Into the Dark

"More up-front and open-knit, the 2004 In the Dark (Grenache) checks in as a blend of 84% Grenache, 8% Mourvedre, 7% Syrah and 1% Viognier that comes mostly from Manfred's 11 Confessions Vineyard, yet includes small portions from Alban (10%) and Alta Mesa (9%) Vineyard. Reminding me of Clos Saint-Jean's Sanctus Sanctorum with its incredible bouquet of sweet kirsch, licorice, dried baking spices, graphite and ground pepper, this beauty flows onto the palate with impeccable purity, perfect integration of its fruit, tannin and acidity, and blockbuster length. As is common with this estate's wine, it's the purity paired with serious richness that sets it apart. While still youthful and benefiting from a healthy decadence, I think it's drinking at point and would aim to drink bottles over the coming 4-5 years. It will evolve gracefully for longer, but I see no reason to hold off."(99pts)

1078 Kongsgaard Chardonnay - Vintage 2014

"The 2014 Chardonnay is a knockout, showing loads of structure, with lemon blossom intermixed with subtle pineapple, honeysuckle and crushed rock, giving it a vivid minerality, a full-bodied mouthfeel and a long, long finish. This should drink well for 7-8 years at minimum."(94+pts)

1102 The Flight Red - Vintage 2019

1x3 bottle owc

"The natural concentration of a year with low yields and small berries is very much in evidence. A rush of black cherry, plum, graphite, lavender and blue/purplish fruit builds as this virile, explosive wine shows off its arresting beauty. In a word: impressive."(97pts VM)

1106 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 2009

"Cloves, dark plums, cherries, smoke and graphite add richness and resonance to this powerful, incisive wine. Juicy and exuberant, the 2009 has always had a certain raciness that is impossible to resist."(97pts)

1107 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 2010

1ltl

"I wouldn't be surprised to see the 2010 Harlan Estate inch closer to perfection over the next decade. Surprisingly supple for this vintage, while this cuvée is not usually that flamboyant or exuberant in its youth, the 2010 is sensual and performing remarkably well. Its deep purple color is accompanied by notions of charcoal, graphite, camphor, creme de cassis, barbecue smoke and blackberries."(98+pts)

6 bottles per lot $4500-6000

1108 Screaming Eagle Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2002

sdc

"The 2002 is reminiscent of the 1992, exhibiting a precociousness out of the gate, but capable of lasting 20-25 years. Deep purple-colored to the rim, with a gorgeously pure nose of Crème de cassis with a hint of sweet cherry, licorice, and smoke, this wine is beautifully voluptuous, full-bodied, yet incredibly elegant, with a finish that goes on for close to a minute."(99pts)
