THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 2025, 8:00AM ET | LOTS 1 – 1100

Lots 2, 19, 66, 150, 192, 194, 196

It goes without saying that we at Hart Davis Hart have had the pleasure of selling the finest wine in the entire world from the most important cellars, boasting unimpeachable provenance. Still, the Bowen Collection stands apart. The selection of wines from Burgundy, California, Rhône, Piedmont and Champagne in this offering enters the realm of the all-time greatest cellars we have encountered and will humble even the most seasoned collector.

The Bowen Collection hails from a longtime collector and friend of HDH, who has consigned multiple times over the course of more than fifteen years. Beginning in the 1990s this New England gentleman acquired wines from reputable merchants and auction houses, avidly tasting, learning and applying the utmost scrutiny to his purchases. The Bowen Collection is held in a state-of-the-art refrigerated cellar at 48 to 50°F with 78 to 82% humidity.

A measured and intellectually curious connoisseur, The Bowen Collector has homed in on the producers at the top of their games throughout the twentieth and twenty-first centuries, resulting in a deep but very focused cellar. Favorite producers well-represented here include the first growths and premier right bank Châteaux such as Cheval Blanc and Pétrus; d'Yquem; Mugnier, Roumier, Bachelet, Dujac, Mugneret-Gibourg, DRC and Ramonet; Guigal, Chave, Chapoutier and Rayas; Bartolo Mascarello and Giacomo Conterno; Caymus, Heitz, Joseph Phelps and Ridge; and Penfolds. Of the nearly 7,000 bottles in this selection, more than half hail from Burgundy. 525 of those are made by Jacques-Frédéric Mugnier. 370 more are from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, including a complete vertical of La Tâche 2011-2021. The range of Charmes-Chambertin, Vieilles-Vignes, Denis Bachelet spans 1985-2017. Nearly a century of Château Cheval Blanc is available, as are ten vintages of Château Pétrus. The spectacular 1961 vintage in Bordeaux can be found from 19 different châteaux.

Moving away from sweeping statements, the singular highlights are stunning: six bottles of 1961 Château Latour à Pomerol, a dozen 1961 Château Palmer. Eight bottles of 1969 Chambertin, Armand Rousseau; DRC Richebourg from 1971; 1953 and 1962 La Romanée, Maison Leroy; six bottles of 1991 Clos Saint-Denis, Vieilles Vignes, Domaine Ponsot. Twelve bottles of 1990 Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Château Rayas, and a magnum of 1961 Hermitage, La Chapelle, Jaboulet. A full dozen bottles of 1974 Heitz Cellar Cabernet Sauvignon, Martha's Vineyard, and another six in magnum.

No auction in recent memory has held so many individual wines which could be considered the nec plus ultra; viewed altogether, The Bowen Collection is nothing short of epic. We invite you to explore this once-in-a-generation offering and bid with confidence.

END OF SESSION I

Paul Hart
Chairman & CEO
Hart Davis Hart Auction Co.

The first week of November is shaping up to be monumental at HDH. Friday's Auction of Finest and Rarest Wines is a spectacular finale—the 1500+ lots in this sale are wildly impressive. The refrain I'm hearing from everyone at HDH involved in preparing these collections for sale is just how many show-stopping wines there are. Frankly, as I put the finishing touches on the catalog, I'm having the same reaction. The level of quality and rarity in the wines found in this auction is incredible.

We are proud to feature the very best cellars in the world, and I will preview just a handful here. Hailing from a frequent consignor, A Collection of Significance (lots 1101-1340) exemplifies a true passion for collecting over the course of decades. Highlighted are a depth of DRC as well as myriad large formats from d'Angerville, Dujac, Comtes Lafon, Roulot, and Chave. The Cobblestone Collection (lots 1375-1694) also represents a repeat consignor and longtime, generous client of HDH and features three magnums of 1999 Chambolle-Musigny, Les Amoureuses, George Roumier and a bottle of 2014 Bâtard-Montrachet, Domaine d'Auvenay among an exceptional array of Burgundy and Bordeaux.

The Falcon Cellar (lots 2061-2198) is remarkable for its intense focus on premier Bordeaux vintages, with deep runs of top growths from 1996, 1998, 2000 and 2003. We're delighted to offer wines from The Collection of Former U.S. Ambassador Ron Weiser (lot 1844-1981), which will support the Breast Cancer Research Foundation and includes Bordeaux and Champagne curated by the Ambassador over many decades. Finally, we are honored to introduce The Villalobos Cellar (lots 2353-2551), representing Miami-area collector Richard Villalobos's lifelong passion for wines. Bordeaux enthusiasts will delight in large formats of First Growths, alongside twelve-bottle offerings of 1989 Haut-Brion and 2000 Mouton.

Please reach out if you would like to know more about any of the wines or collections featured in this auction. We look forward to seeing you from the podium on November 6th and 7th. Happy bidding!

THE COBBLESTONE COLLECTION

Hart Davis Hart is thrilled to offer this impressive selection of wines from a repeat consignor and one of our most knowledgeable and generous clients. For decades this oenophile has been learning about, sourcing and tasting the great wines of the world with a focus on France's greatest terroirs. HDH buyers have a unique opportunity to acquire part of this collection with the spectacular lineup that follows. Burgundy is well represented here with wines (including many magnums) from the Côte d'Or's great domaines including D'Auvenay, Coche-Dury, Dujac, DRC, Ente, Leroy, Mugnier and Roumier, amongst others. Other highlights include eleven vintages of Pingus and fabulous offerings of Sine Qua Non, Dana Estates and Penfolds Grange.

The gentleman behind the Cobblestone Collection is well-known for sharing both his wines and his knowledge generously. Even in preparing this selection for the auction, the collector was eager to impart his knowledge about especially rare wines, such as the anecdote that Christophe Roumier considers the Chambolle-Musigny, Les Amoureuses favorite among his 1999s. The HDH team has enjoyed many wines from this collection over the years, and they are consistently superb examples in excellent condition. The wines were either purchased upon release or at auction and stored either professionally or in a temperature- and humidity-controlled private cellar.

A STUNNING COLLECTION OF RARITIES

Please enjoy this offering from an important collector and friend of Hart Davis Hart. As a repeat consignor, HDH has had the good fortune to represent this cellar multiple times over several years. An especially humid cellar coupled with cooler-than-most temperatures allows these wines to shine. Aesthetically, it is not uncommon to find damp-stained labels from this collection. Not to worry, as the levels are exemplary. As a sidebar, we recently shared a magnum of 1982 Lafite Rothschild with mild ullage over dinner. Perfection!

- Ben Ferdinand, Senior Vice President

Proceeds to Support the Breast Cancer Research Foundation

We are honored to include this offering from the vast cellar of former U.S. Ambassador Ron Weiser. Ambassador Weiser is well known for his generosity – he is one of the two largest donors of all time to the University of Michigan and Michigan Medicine – and the proceeds for this selection will benefit the Breast Cancer Research Foundation.

Aside from his love and support for the University of Michigan, one of Ambassador Weiser's great passions in life is wine. His appreciation for wine was instilled by his grandfather, and after finding early success Ron began to focus on collecting. Ambassador Weiser was thoughtful and deliberate in his purchases, enjoying close relationships with Serena Sutcliffe and Michael Broadbent and consulting with them on provenance and conditions before buying from London wine auctions in the 1990s. Ron is a member of Bacchus and has passed on his love of wine to his son.

Champagne and Bordeaux are the featured regions in this selection, with many large formats from both to enjoy. Rosé Champagne is a personal favorite of Ambassador Weiser, and included are magnums of Dom Pérignon Rosé Vintage 1985, 1995 and 1996 as well as Louis Roederer, Cristal Rosé from many vintages. Bordeaux is offered here almost exclusively in large format, beginning with magnums of Château Pichon-Longueville, Comtesse de Lalande from the excellent 1945 and 1947 vintages and touching on every heralded year from the second half of the 19th century. We would be remiss if we didn't point out Penfolds Grange from the 1960s and 1970s, historic bottlings from California and more large formats of Rhône, Burgundy and d'Yquem. Conditions are superb throughout, and the proceeds go to an excellent cause – bid with confidence and enthusiasm!

THE FALCON CELLAR

Hart Davis Hart is pleased to present The Falcon Cellar, hailing from an East Coast Collector. This impressive selection of pristine Bordeaux from heralded vintages is the culmination of an immersive and passionate pursuit with intense focus on selection, storage and record-keeping. The wines here were sourced on release from two highly reputable sources and held in the same large, custom-built cellar since purchase. As the focused, organized nature of the selection might suggest, the owner retained receipts meticulously. Emphasis here is on the best vintages over the course of a decade: multiple case quantities of top Bordeaux from 1996, 1998, 2000 and 2003, with superb vintages from Sauternes, Italy and California rounding out the collection. THE VILLALOBOS CELLAR

We are honored to introduce the following wines to the auction block on behalf of Mr. Richard Villalobos, an established Miami-area collector who has taken painstaking care to assemble a cellar of incredible depth and scope. His wine journey began in the early '70s, when he developed a discerning palate and keen interest in the wines of Bordeaux. The famed La Mission Haut-Brion was a favorite from the beginning, while 1966 Mouton provided an epiphany, which served as the metaphorical bug-bite. Starting out with a single bottle lot of 1969 Pétrus and carrying on through the next four decades with historic vintages from both banks, Bordeaux enthusiasts will find themselves spoiled for choice by the extent of this selection. First Growths in large format – including double-magnums of '95 Latour and Mouton – are among the highlights available, alongside twelve-bottle offerings from either side of the river, notably the prized 1989 Haut-Brion and 2000 Mouton. While Bordeaux is the focus here there are opportunities to be found from all over the great wine regions of the world, including three vintages from Château Rayas, five bottles of 1988 Salon, and an impressive showing from Dalla Valle's flagship Maya.

A prominent member of the Miami wine community, Mr. Villalobos has spent his years collecting with a constant mind towards impeccable sourcing and storage. The bottles on offer here were acquired almost entirely upon release or as futures and stored in pristine, sub-50° temperature-controlled conditions. Bidders should compete with the utmost confidence to bring home a piece of this monumental collection.
