A LIBRARY OF EXCELLENCE

Property of a Longtime Collector and Cherished Friend

This is another selection from one of the most important cellars in North America. I'm privileged to have known this collector since the early days of my auction career in the early 1980s. Those were gregarious times, and we shared countless bottles of remarkable wines. His zeal led him to build an extensive cellar of classic rarities. This offering is such a rich bounty that it's a challenge to mark highlights. On offer is an exceptional range of large formats from top châteaux and a significant Burgundian selection that includes rarities from the likes of DRC, Dujac, Leroy, Vogüé, and Rousseau. Also featured is a broad selection of single-vineyard Côte-Rôtie, Champagne, and Italian classics. Notable highlights include a three-magnum lot of 1996 Montrachet from DRC, and many more. All wines have been carefully sourced and meticulously stored, and I urge bidders to take note of this exciting group.

WINES TO BENEFIT THE NATIONAL FRAGILE X FOUNDATION

Hart Davis Hart is proud to offer the following special collection of donated wines (lots 1250-1253), with the entire proceeds of the collection going to the National Fragile X Foundation. Fragile X Syndrome is a genetic condition that affects countless individuals and families yet remains unknown to many. This cause is especially close to our hearts, as it has directly touched members of the HDH community. By highlighting this collection, we hope to shine a light on Fragile X Syndrome by raising both awareness and critical funds to support breakthroughs in treatment and understanding.

Indulge in the 100-point Pavie 2005, a jeroboam of Vosne-Romanée, Brûlées, Liger-Belair 2011, the unassuming elegance of Lafarge's 2016 Clos du Château des Ducs, or double-magnums of Rocche dei Manzoni from hallmark Barolo vintages, 20 years on. 100% of the proceeds of these lots will go to The National Fragile X Foundation, including the buyer's premium. Together we can make a difference.

The National Fragile X Foundation (NFXF) is a non-profit patient advocacy organization, dedicated to supporting families impacted by Fragile X, a group of conditions associated with an alteration of the FMR1 gene on the X chromosome. Everyone has the FMR1 gene on their X chromosome, but when an alteration occurs, it can cause Fragile X syndrome (FXS) or the Fragile X premutation.

Fragile X syndrome (FXS) is an inherited genetic condition caused by a full mutation of the FMR1 gene that affects an estimated 100,000 in the United States. FXS may cause intellectual disability, behavioral and learning challenges, and various physical characteristics. It is also the leading, known inherited cause of autism spectrum disorder. FXS is considered a rare disease.

The Fragile X premutation can also be associated with health risks, including conditions like Fragile X-associated Primary Ovarian Insufficiency (FXPOI) - which can cause early menopause and fertility challenges- and Fragile X-associated tremor/ataxia syndrome (FXTAS) - which can cause tremor, balance, and neurological issues. The Fragile X premutation is not rare, and individuals with the Fragile X premutation can pass their altered FMR1 gene to their children.

There are no effective treatments or a cure yet for FXS, FXPOI or FXTAS, although ongoing research suggests we are close to specific treatments. This research not only benefits Fragile X, but also other conditions like: Alzheimer's, Parkinson's, Down Syndrome, and Autism.

Since 1984, the NFXF has supported families impacted by Fragile X by providing knowledge, resources, and tools needed to help individuals impacted by Fragile X to navigate the challenges of daily life with Fragile X and ultimately reach their full potential. The NFXF focuses its work in four strategic areas: promoting advocacy, providing education, advancing research, and improving treatments.

FURTHER SELECTIONS FROM THE AMETHYST CELLAR

We are honored to present this offering from the vast cellar of one of the most knowledgeable and widely respected collectors in America. All wines were carefully sourced through the most reputable of channels, most on initial release, and have been secured in a home cellar that maintains a constant 48 to 52°F. Though focused on Burgundy, the collection is rich with variety and is deeply personal. He and his wife are among my closest friends, and I'm keenly aware of his passion for many things, particularly his cellar. Bid with confidence.

THE EAST END COLLECTION: A LEGACY OF DISCERNING TASTE

It is with immense pleasure that we present The East End Collection, a truly remarkable assemblage reflecting the profound passion and discernment of its owners. These visionary collectors meticulously pursued the world's finest wines, driven by a profound desire to share benchmark bottles with cherished friends and family. Their rare combination of refined taste, acute foresight, and unwavering conviction allowed them to recognize unparalleled greatness long before it gained widespread recognition, leading to the acquisition of world-class wines and art – often well ahead of their rise to international acclaim. Every bottle within this collection was acquired directly from a select few trusted sources, ensuring impeccable provenance and pristine condition as paramount considerations. Their commitment to preservation was equally meticulous: the entire collection resided in two custom-built, underground cellars, where precise temperature and humidity controls maintained optimal, consistent conditions, until each wine was ready to be enjoyed.

This extraordinary cellar offers a comprehensive journey through the most revered regions – Bordeaux, Burgundy, Champagne, the Rhône Valley and Italy, with distinct emphasis on blue-chip producers and legendary vintages. Iconic names such as Haut-Brion, Mouton Rothschild, d'Yquem, Gaja, Masseto, Leflaive, and Domaine de la Romanée-Conti are represented with significant breadth and depth. A distinguished hallmark of this offering is the exceptional abundance of large formats, rarely encountered in such quantity – an impressive 291 magnums, 27 double-magnums, 13 Jeroboams, and 12 imperials. Consistent with these collectors' philosophy, the wines were primarily acquired to be shared, gracing countless gatherings where legendary bottles were uncorked to celebrate with family, friends and fellow enthusiasts.

Highlights of the collection include:

- Double-magnums of both Haut-Brion and La Mission Haut-Brion from the heralded 1989 vintage – imagine the comparative tasting one could hold on a grand scale!
- Large formats from the 100-point 1982 (in Jeroboam) and 1990 (in magnum) Pétrus vintages
- Château d'Yquem dating back to 1921, including the legendary 1937, 1967, 1975, 1983, 1989 and 1990 vintages
- 14 vintages of La Tâche, with large formats including Jeroboams of 1990 and 2005, and a methuselah of 1999
- 5 bottles of 1982 Georges Roumier, Chambolle-Musigny, Les Amoureuses
- 3 bottles of 1990 Hubert Lignier, Clos de la Roche
- 9 vintages of Leflaive, Chevalier-Montrachet
- 10 bottles and 3 magnums of 1985 Krug, Collection
- 84 bottles, 28 magnums, 8 double-magnums, and 2 imperials of Masseto
- 1990 Le Pergole Torte Riserva, Montevirtine, a particular favorite wine of the East End collectors, in magnum
- A full dozen bottles of 1995 Soldera Case Basse, Brunello di Montalcino Riserva, Intistieti

The East End Collection is a rare opportunity to acquire wines from one of the world's most important cellars. You may bid with confidence.
