WINES FROM THE COLLECTION OF PUBLISHING
EXECUTIVE THOMAS O. RYDER

Wine and food have been fixtures in Thomas O. Ryder's life for six decades, beginning with weekend escapes to Napa Valley when he lived and worked in the bay area. Originally hailing from Louisiana, Mr. Ryder was for many years a publishing industry executive. While at American Express in the early 1980s Mr. Ryder revitalized the then-flagging Food & Wine Magazine, creating the popular modern iteration of the publication and eventually founding the Food & Wine Classic in Aspen. A writer himself, Tom has penned articles in publications such as Food & Wine, Travel & Leisure, Reader's Digest, and Barron's. Tom retired as Chairman and CEO of The Reader's Digest Association Inc. in the mid-2000s but has continued to serve on the boards of major media and technology organizations. Now living between Connecticut and Florida with his wife Darlene, Tom oversees the wine selections at his family's provisions store and relishes the challenge of finding delicious wines at modest prices.

Representing Mr. Ryder's decades-long journey through the world of wine, the collection includes Napa Valley legends from Dominus, Heitz, Joseph Phelps and Ridge, ventures through the Rhone Valley and Bordeaux, then takes up residence in Burgundy. The showcase of the collection is a staggering array of Leroy spanning 1988-2015 – 1990 Vosne-Romanée, Beaux Monts Leroy was the Ryder house wine back when you could buy it for $30 a bottle! – and also includes grand crus from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, Armand Rousseau, Georges Roumier, Faiveley and Comte Georges de Vogüé.

Wines from Mr. Ryder were also offered in HDH's August Auction of Fine and Rare Wines. The collection was held in purpose-built, climate-controlled home storage and professional wine storage until removal by Hart Davis Hart in June 2025.

THE BELLEVUE COLLECTION

We are honored to offer this group of pristine and remarkably high caliber wines. The collector never intended to offer his wines for sale. He assembled his collection over the past twenty years and intended to enjoy them for years to come, but unfortunately, health issues have meant he can no longer drink wine. While it is difficult for him to let these wines go, he knows that HDH will bring them to the cellars of like-minded collectors around the world, to enjoy in his stead.

The Bellevue Collection has a clear focus on high-end and collectible wine. The formats and ovc match this buying pattern. Multiple case lots of Le Pin, Pétrus, First Growths, Salon, Krug, DRC, Masseto, Colgin, and more. Plus some newcomers with exciting pedigree, like the cult favorite, Kobayashi Vineyards. The provenance on the group is exceptional – nearly all purchased from established retailers on release or direct from mailing lists. The wines have always been stored in a professional storage facility.

Lot 1224

ROMANÉE-CONTI AND LA ROMANÉE, PILLARS OF BURGUNDY

The wines in this selection require very little by way of introduction: Domaine de la Romanée-Conti and La Romanée, Comte Liger-Belair. Few names in wine evoke the same emotions. The offering which follows is concise but packs quite the punch: Domaine de la Romanée-Conti from 1990, 1991, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2006, and a complete vertical of La Romanée, Comte Liger-Belair from 2008 through 2012. The La Tâche alone would be one of the most significant appearances at auction this year: seven bottles of 1990, 3 bottles of 1991, 19 bottles of 1999, 11 bottles of 2000, 13 bottles of 2001, 12 bottles of 2002, and 2 bottles of 2006. But of course there's more; complementary bottlings of DRC from each of these vintages, and staggering quantities of La Romanée – 18 bottles of 2009 and 19 bottles of 2010.

This selection represents the cellar of a longtime enjoyer and collector of wine, whose passion was inspired at an early age by his father. As the quantities may suggest, connections to winemakers have given this gentleman extraordinary access to the very best wines in the world. The collection is impeccably sourced and painstakingly stored in a custom-built, temperature-controlled cellar. Bid with confidence, as the wines presented here are unlikely to be seen again in this depth.

OUTSTANDING BURGUNDY, CHAMPAGNE AND MORE FROM THE CELLAR OF A GENTLEMAN

Hart Davis Hart is proud to offer this selection of magnificent wines from a longtime friend and generous collector. Offered in pristine conditions owing to superb provenance, the highlights here are many. The Burgundy selection represents the very best: three bottles of 1999 La Tâche, DRC; 1996 Vosne-Romanée, Cros Parantoux, Emmanuel Rouget in magnum; 2002 Musigny, Georges Roumier; 1999 Clos Saint-Denis, Domaine Dujac, 1993 Musigny, Jacques-Frédéric Mugnier in magnum; 2005 Musigny, Vieilles Vignes, Comte Georges de Vogüé; both Chambertin and Chambertin, Clos de Bèze in the 2012 vintage from Armand Rousseau. Têtes de cuvée include a magnum of 1998 Dom Pérignon Rosé, P3 Vintage; three bottles of 1995 Krug, Clos d'Ambonnay; Krug, Clos du Mesnil from 2000 and 2006; and Salon 1999 and 2006 in magnums. The collection is rounded out by a careful selection of top Bordeaux including 1990 Château Montrose and 1983 Château Margaux, as well as a concise group of California cult wines.

The wines in this selection were purchased at auction or as futures from established merchants and stored at a professional wine storage facility. This friend has shared countless bottles over the years and consigned with HDH several times, and the wines from his collection never fall short of extraordinary. Bid with confidence.
