This bottle proves it. Clear and deep in color, it has a heavenly bouquet that is not dissimilar to the 1964: very concentrated with mulberry, dried honey, molasses and stewed apricots. Magnifique! The palate is medium-bodied and perfectly balanced, perhaps less rounded than the 1964, but driven along by perfectly judged acidity with black truffle and salted licorice surfacing towards the structured and sustained finish. I suspect that there is some variability between bottles, judging by others' comments, but clearly if it is your lucky day, you are in for a treat." (95pts)*

This powerful, rich, densely concentrated wine remains young, fresh, and vigorous, with a full decade of life ahead. It continues to exhibit a dark garnet color with some amber, a wonderfully fragrant quality (plus, minerals, tar, cedar, soy sauce, and licorice), a viscous texture, sensation depth of fruit, and a fabulous, albeit alcoholic finish. This is claret at its most decadent." (96pts)*

A broodingly dense, thick, unctuously textured, inky/plum/garnet/purple color offers up scents of beef blood, steak tartare, cassis, herbs, tobacco, and underbrush. One of the most concentrated wines of the vintage (as well as one of the most concentrated Bordeaux's I have ever tasted), it is a huge, full-bodied, weighty, rich wine whose tannins are getting silkier and silkier. It appears set for another 30-40 years of life. This behemoth is a singularly profound example of Gruaud Larose that continues to justify its legendary status." (98pts)*

12 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 1929*Graveshtms, hbsl, spc, excellent color*

"Rob noted that it was so Burgundian, while Wendy admired its Asian spices. Tobacco, leather, mesquite and espresso bean were all very expressive, and despite these aged aromas dominating, there was still a healthy dose of cassis fruit underneath it. Wendy picked up on green tea and saffron. There was still amazing color to this gravelly magnum. Its palate was pretty, less complex than its aromatics with nice flavors of Worcestershire, citrus and mocha. Paul found smoked sausage, and Teona even got into the act with antique wood. It got tangier, prompting Rob to say drink em up. This is totally integrated and ready to go. Tasty, balanced and smooth, there were nice, cedary flavors and still light vim on the finish." 14 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 1959*Graveshs, bsl, scc, cuc, excellent color*

"First up was 1959 Château Haut Brion, which had a spectacular nose of chocolate and tobacco. There was plenty of zip left in it with some band-aid, charcoal and gravel aromas to add complexity. I could sense how long the palate was before I tasted it, and it was terrific and sensual, full of chocolatey, creamy and tasty greatness. There was lots of gravel on the finish, and Hamburger found a particular freshness to it." (98pts JK)

15 Château L'Evangile - Vintage 1959*Pomerolvhs, wisl, scc, cuc, excellent color*

"It was, indeed, quite chocolaty with a hint of garden goodness, along with some faint aromas of cement and pungent interior. The palate was big and a bit of a bruiser with lots of alcohol showing. Its cassis and plum fruit were walking on slate stilts, and a hint of metal/iron ore was there as well. The L'Evangile's sexy nose was old but fresh, and its acidity was really long in the belly, but there was some squareness in its shoulders." (93pts JK)

16 Château L'Evangile - Vintage 1961*Pomerolhs, scc, spc, excellent color*

"The 1961 possesses a huge nose of coffee, sweet, jammy, black fruits, buttered nuts, and truffles. The syrupy texture, and fabulous concentration, viscosity, and richness were unbelievable. Given its port-like richness, this full-bodied, massively endowed, fully mature wine is reminiscent of the great 1947." (99-100pts)

"This was classic Pauillac on the irony side, stony with lots of rocks in its nose. It came across very young and fresh, with a touch of ashtray in there. The Fisher King found it more lively' and with so much acid.' Its palate was all about the purple with some light tannin expression. 27 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1982

bn, bsl, 1x1 double magnum owc

"...phenomenally dense and muscular It is immune to oxidation! Moreover, it has a level of concentration that represents the essence of the Mouton terroir as well as the high percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon it contains. Cassis, cedar, spice box, minerals, and vanillin are all present, but this opaque black/purple Pauillac has yet to reveal secondary nuances given its youthfulness. It exhibits huge tannin, unreal levels of glycerin and concentration, and spectacular sweetness and opulence. Nevertheless, it demands another decade of cellaring, and should age effortlessly for another seven or eight decades. I have always felt the 1982 Mouton was perfect, yet this immortal effort might be capable of lasting for 100 years! The fact that it resists oxidation is a testament to just how youthful it remains, and how long it will last."(100pts)

FANTASTIC MATURE WINES FROM THE COLLECTION OF THE DISCERNING SCHOLAR

We are delighted to welcome back this scholarly collector and privileged to have over one hundred and fifty selections from his cavernous 18,000 bottle collection! He has a laser like focus on impeccable sourcing, provenance and storage and is always on the hunt for information. He never buys first and asks questions later. Very scholastic, indeed! He is an avid connoisseur whose schedule centers around wine lunches and dinners, and he will never stop buying. He has no more room left in his two cellars, and it took him six months to acknowledge it. Accordingly, he finally graces our auction with classic Bordeaux from the second half of the 20th century as well as turn of the century Burgundy from Dujac and friends. Ramonet, Roulot and Raveneau dominate White Burgundy, and we wash it all down with a dash of top Rhone, Giacosa and Unico.

Bordeaux gets off the mark swiftly with a 1955 Cheval Blanc magnum, 1945 La Mission, 1990 Lafleur, 1959 Latour magnum, 1982 Mouton and 1970 Petrus! There are eleven lots of Rousseau led by a trio of 1997 Clos de Beze followed by five lots of Liger-Belair including 2006 and 2007 Echezeaux. Dujac takes center stage with fourteen selections of Dujac introduced by 2009, 2010, 2015 and 2016 Clos de Roche six-packs backed by Musignys from 1961 Faiveley and 1999 Mugnier! There are seven selections of Ponsot bookended by 1989 Clos de la Roche and Clos St. Denis. White Burgundy flourishes as a bottle of 2007 DRC Montrachet sets us up for ten lots of Ramonet capped by 2014, 2016 and 2017 Montrachet followed by a dozen lots of Roulot including a full case of 2018 Clos des Boucheres! We conclude on a high note with a full case of 1988 Chave and six bottles of 1990 Falletto Giacosa Riserva!!

This most fastidious collector keeps both his cellars at 52 degrees and 70 percent humidity year-round with dedicated backups. This is an all-star assortment of wines ready to drink and enjoy to the last drop thanks to The Discerning Scholar!!!

"1990: In terms of the brilliant complexity and nobility of the aromatics, scorched earth, black currants, plums, charcoal, cedar, and spices, the 1990 offers an aromatic explosion that is unparalleled. It is always fascinating to taste this wine next to the 1989, which is a monumental effort, but much more backward and denser, without the aromatic complexity of the 1990. The 1990 put on weight after bottling, and is currently rich, full-bodied, opulent, even flamboyant by Haut Brion's standards. It is an incredible expression of a noble terroir in a top vintage." "This wine appears to be on steroids. The color is a dense opaque purple. The bouquet offers up notes of chocolate, espresso beans, smoke, iron, earth, and copious quantities of black jammy fruit. Thick, intense, succulent, full-bodied, and powerful an amazing accomplishment the last profound wine produced at this estate. A legendary effort!..." (99pts)

74 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 1983

Pauillac

5bn, 1ts, 6lbl, 3sdc, 1x6 magnum owc

"Finally, the 1983 Lafite is beginning to shed its tannin. The wine exhibits a deep ruby/garnet color with only a slight lightening at the edge. The intoxicatingly perfumed nose of lead pencil, pain grille, red and black fruits, minerals, and roasted herbs is provocative. In the mouth, this wine displays considerable body for a Lafite, plenty of power, and a fleshy, rich, sweet mid-palate. Long, elegant, plump, and surprisingly fleshy, this outstanding example of Lafite seems largely forgotten given the number of high quality vintages during the golden decade of the eighties." (93pts)

"...powerful, muscular, and super-concentrated copious amounts of sweet black-cherry fruit. One taster remarked, 'why does this wine taste so much like Rayas (the renowned Grenache-based Châteauneuf-du-Pape)?' There is an unreal reality to such a comment, largely because both producers tend to pick their fruit at an overripe stage, producing an exotic, compelling wine massive weight, viscous texture, and profound mouthfeel and finish." 76 Château Latour - Vintage 1955

hs, lstl, spc, cuc, Mahler Besse, excellent color

"A spectacular Latour, from a vintage that has provided many superb surprises (especially in the Medoc and Graves), the deep garnet-colored 1955 reveals some amber at the edge. It remains tannic, but its extraordinary perfume of smoked meats, dried herbs, cedar, black fruits, underbrush, and leather is seductive. It is full-bodied, with a sweet, intense mid-palate, plenty of power, and decades of life remaining. This is an under-rated, stunning Latour that may even improve. Anticipated maturity: now-2020." 79 Château Latour - Vintage 1971

Pauillac

"Tasted from my personal cellar, the 1971 Latour is undoubtedly the wine of the Medoc, and possibly the wine of the vintage (Pétrus and Trotanoy are also splendid efforts). Drinkable young, it has continued to evolve, offering extraordinary aromatic complexity as well as surprisingly deep, concentrated flavors atypical for the vintage. A dark opaque garnet color with amber at the edge is followed by a spectacular bouquet of dried herbs, cedar, smoky black fruit, and coffee. Rich, but structured, with moderate tannin, this medium-bodied, elegant yet complex wine possesses a sweet mid-palate in addition to a long, concentrated finish with abundant tannin." (94pts)

83 Château Montrose - Vintage 1989

St. Estephe

3ts, 1spc

"For many years I have vehemently argued that the 1989 Montrose is a benchmark wine for the estate. Having tasted it several times over the last couple of months, I have never found a single occasion to alter that view. Tasted at the vertical in London, it continues to shine, having never lost any of its luster in recent years. It is a blend of 65% Cabernet Sauvignon, 25% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc that was picked from 11 to 28 September. Lucid in color, the aromatics do not hold back with vibrant blackberry, blueberry and black truffle, hints of sous-bois, all with sensational precision that few can match in this vintage (indeed, its precision lends it a veneer of modernity since "precision" is now more commonplace across Bordeaux). The palate is brilliantly balanced with filigree tannin. There is wonderful backbone here, extremely fresh and tensile, crystalline even with an exceptional detail, mineral-rich finish that lingers in the mouth. Difficult to fault, this might well be the greatest 1989 Montrose that I have tasted, and certainly wishing to take nothing away from the 1990 Montrose that I tasted alongside, the 1989 is now the one I would pick. Is this the greatest Saint Estèphe of the 1980s? I would put it within the top five Bordeaux of the 1980s. Could this be inching its way to perfection???" (100pts)

It is a compellingly rich, opulent Mouton that appears to have gained character and complexity with age." (92pts)

85 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1982

Pauillac

3ts, 3lbsl, 1wisl, 2sos

"...phenomenally dense and muscular It is immune to oxidation! Moreover, it has a level of concentration that represents the essence of the Mouton terroir as well as the high percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon it contains. Cassis, cedar, spice box, minerals, and vanillin are all present, but this opaque black/purple Pauillac has yet to reveal secondary nuances given its youthfulness. It exhibits huge tannin, unreal levels of glycerin and concentration, and spectacular sweetness and opulence. Nevertheless, it demands another decade of cellaring, and should age effortlessly for another seven or eight decades. I have always felt the 1982 Mouton was perfect, yet this immortal effort might be capable of lasting for 100 years! The fact that it resists oxidation is a testament to just how youthful it remains, and how long it will last." (100pts)

88 Château Pichon Baron - Vintage 1959

"This was classic Pauillac on the irony side, stony with lots of rocks in its nose. It came across very young and fresh, with a touch of ashtray in there. The Fisher King found it 'more lively' and with 'so much acid.' Its palate was all about the purple with some light tannin expression. It continued to get stronger in the glass, emitting pencil, nut, cedar and cherry.' Better and better appeared again and again in my notes." (94pts JK)

"The man with the bluest eyes in Burgundy, a.k.a. winemaker Sylvain Pitiot, told me that the 2010 Clos de Tart was picked almost a month later than the 2011 on 6 October with a yield hovering around 26 hectoliters per hectare and that the smallness of the berries meant that bunches were not compact. The bouquet is very seductive with introspective black fruit rather than red. The mineralite is tangible just below the surface, then a hint of oyster shell emerging with aeration. The palate has wonderful volume, coming over all fleshy and silky in the mouth thanks to the layered fresh strawberry and red cherry fruit. There is nigh perfectly judged acidity and a feminine finish that is totally entrancing. What a beautiful, feminine, refined Clos de Tart! Drink 2016-2030+" (97pts)

121 Chambertin - Vintage 2005

Dujac

lbsl, 1x1 magnum owc

"The Dujac 2005 Chambertin combines fruit from the vineyard of that name with a majority of fruit from the Clos de Bèze. Scents of rose petals, black tea, black raspberry, black pepper, and cassis stream from the glass. A wonderfully soothing, glycerin-rich, silken-textured pool of sweetly ripe and rose-scented fruit fills the mouth, while dark shadings of singed meat and wet stone well up from seemingly inexhaustible depths of extract. For all of its palpable density and sheer intensity, this is clear, refined, and displays elegant poise in its long, evocative finish. More than ample tannin is no doubt present for long keeping, but it is so fine-grained and the gustatory show going on around it so dazzling as to pass almost unnoticed." (96pts)

124 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2010

Dujac

"An intensely floral nose features notes of rose petals and lavender along with cool red berry fruit liberally laced with wet stone nuances. The taut and muscular broad-scaled and concentrated flavors are precise, intense and explosively long on the focused and stunningly persistent finish that is youthfully austere and breathtakingly intense. This faultlessly well-balanced but very firm effort will require extended cellaring and 15 to 20 years is probably what the structure will require to completely resolve." (96pts BH)

125 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2015

Dujac

"...more deeply pitched and gorgeously complex mélange of liqueur-like dark currant, newly turned earth, game, sandalwood and violet aromas. There is excellent mid-palate concentration present on the muscular and powerful big-bodied flavors that possess impressive focus and persistence on the hugely long, robust and very firmly structured finale. This breathtakingly good effort will also require extended cellaring to resolve the prominent tannic spine." (96pts BH)

"Domaine Dujac's 2015 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Malconsorts is one of the highlights of a superb range, bursting from the glass with aromas of blackberry, cassis, plum, rose petal, licorice and spice. Despite its aromatic flamboyance, on the palate the wine is controlled even reserved with immense concentration and a bottomless core, its tannins fine-grained but firm, asserting themselves on the finish. The overriding impression is of depth and substance, but this Malconsorts is clearly shutting down; those with the patience to cellar it for a decade or more will reap the rewards." (96+pts)

"Mugnier's 1999 Musigny Grand Cru is still a very youthful wine, but a few hours' decant gives a more than adequate sense of its immense quality. A beautiful bouquet of raspberries, black cherry, cocoa powder, violets, peony and incipient notes of rich soil and cedar introduce a pure, full-bodied wine with pitch-perfect balance and a deep, spherical core of ripe tannin, juicy acidity and reserved concentration. This is not an especially flamboyant wine, but it's incredibly authoritative and sophisticated; and in another decade, it will be just irresistible."(96+pts)

"This note is the result of tastings I did in Burgundy between January 7 and January 29. The wine was tasted from cask, not bottle. Pinot Noir, a fragile varietal, reacts poorly to fining, filtration, and careless bottling techniques, I recommend caution when considering buying a red burgundy based on cask samples. I called it as I tasted it, and hope the bottled wine reflects the quality of the samples I was provided."(90-93pts)

169 Chapelle Chambertin - Vintage 2005*Ponsot*

"The 2005 Chapelle-Chambertin exudes black cherry, plum preserves, chocolate, brown spices and licorice, along with Chartreuse-like high-toned distilled herbal and floral essences. This fills the mouth with doughy thickness and sumptuous richness. The finish evinces more brightness of fruit than with most of the wines, but is above all marked by sweet richness, purity, and sheer might. The selection and age of vine, as well as the vinification are identical for this and the Griotte. "Only" 300 meters separate them."(93-95pts)

173 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2010

Vieilles Vignes, Ponsot

"In stark contrast to the expressiveness of the Clos St. Denis, this is almost mute and even aggressive swirling liberates only the briefest glimpses of wild red berries and earth notes. There is superb size and weight to the imposing and overtly muscular flavors that also enjoy an incredible amount of dry extract that confers a supple and seductively textured mouth feel to the highly concentrated mid-palate. The presently buried tannins are intense and markedly firm though not hard on the explosively long finish that seems to go on and on. "Tasted blind at the annual 'Burgfest' tasting in Beaune. The 2012 Clos de la Roche Vieilles Vignes Grand Cru from Laurent Ponsot has an extravagant, generous nose with hints of kirsch and raisin infusing the cranberry and blueberry fruit. Fortunately it does seem to calm down in the glass, rein in some of that nascent enthusiasm. The palate is sweet on the entry with red fruit, marmalade and dried orange peel. This is a grand cru that just wants to go out and please, a sexy Pinot Noir that does not hold back, which is what you want from this grand cru. "This initially flirts with reduction but an hour of air does a lot of good as the smoky character eventually recedes if not completely disappears to reveal pretty aromas of honeysuckle, spice, green apple and a whiff of wood toast. The succulent and sleek middle weight flavors are not especially dense, which I found somewhat surprising in the context of the tiny yields in 2016, all wrapped in a delicious, classy and subtly complex finish that displays excellent length but also a touch of warmth."(93pts BH)

- 197 Chassagne Montrachet - Vintage 2017
Les Caillerets, Ramonet
"Very pretty, cool and elegant aromas are comprised by plenty of citrus elements to the floral, resin and mineral reduction nuances. There is lovely intensity to the beautifully delineated and almost pungently mineral-driven middle weight flavors that terminate in a chiseled and lemon-tinged finish that, much like the Chaumées, really fans out as it sits on the palate. If I was being a bit picky, I might reproach the wine for displaying a bit of finishing warmth but overall, this is quite lovely and while it should age gracefully on its balance, it's not so structured as to be completely unapproachable after only 5ish years."(93pts BH)

"Like several of the wines in the range, the oaky nose was initially reduced to the point of being borderline funky yet with extended aeration (24 hours in this case), the underlying aromas of a wonderful variety of white orchard fruit, floral, spice and soft citrus scents gradually emerge. There is outstanding richness to the big-bodied, compact and very serious flavors that coat the palate with copious amounts of dry extract that would normally cause the finish to seem ponderous yet in this case the firm acid spine maintains the balance." On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, satiny and supple, with an enveloping but incisive profile, underpinned by electric acids and chalky extract. Confirming its status as the pretender to the throne chez Roulot, this is worth a special effort to seek out." (95pts)

A classic bouquet of citrus zest, white flowers, chalky soil tones and blanched almond introduce a searingly intense wine that marries striking cut and vertical tension with wonderful glossy amplitude and dimension, its tongue-tingling minerality persisting through the long, penetrating finish. "A blast of roasted herb, licorice, and black fruit scents jump from the glass of this full-bodied, superconcentrated 1987. Very pure, with some pain grille notes from new oak still present, this thick, juicy wine is soft, but its color and bouquet are more typical of a 3- or 4-year-old wine than one that is approaching 10 years of age. The finish is long and rich, with more tannin than in La Mouline. Anticipated maturity: now-2009. Last tasted 8/96." (96pts)

"Having consistently merited 100 points (if my scoring system went higher, it would be there), it continues to perform like a young wine, yet is accessible enough to be appreciated for its extraordinary combination of power, complexity, and majestic layers of flavor. The color is a dark plum/ruby to the edge. The monumental bouquet offers up aromas of liquified charcoaled beef intermixed with pepper, smoke, creme de cassis, kirsch liqueur, truffles, and new saddle leather. This full-bodied, viscous, prodigious Châteauneuf du Pape must be tasted to be believed." (100pts)

"And lastly, the 1988 Hermitage is an elegant, perfumed and mineral-laced effort that's drinking at point. Giving up plenty of sweet cherry and red currants, leather, crushed rock and hints of green olive, it has no hard edges, solid mid-palate richness and a focused finish. It's a mature, elegant and classy Hermitage to drink over the coming 4-5 years." (95pts)

What I would give today to be able to buy more at the same tariff! The 1990 Barolo Riserva Falletto is one of Bruno Giacosa's most towering wines. Period. THE LAST OF A GREAT AMERICAN COLLECTION:
THE EXCEPTIONAL CELLAR OF JOHN TILSON

This is sadly the last major offering from a great American wine collection, none other than our good friend, John Tilson. These seven hundred plus selections are, indeed, a fitting finale as all good things come to an end. It has been our distinct honor and great pleasure to present several installments from The Exceptional Cellar of John Tilson, and this one is the largest of them all! After an appetizer of ancient Bordeaux, we sink our teeth into over three hundred selections of finest Burgundy featuring Domaine de la Romanee Conti and Coche-Dury backed by Bouchard, Vogue, Cheillon, Arnoux and Pierre-Yves Colin-Morey amongst many ancient secrets. Rest assured, if you have never tried something, and it is John's collection, chances are it will be very tasty! Rhone, Champagne, Italy and Spain all get honorable mentions. Classic California, however, remains to this day John's strongest passion, and the offering here of those wines is one of the most important and significant of all-time, if not the most important. We hit Classic California gold with over two hundred and fifty lots starring nearly one hundred selections of Diamond Creek as well as choice lots of Heitz, Inglenook, Ridge and more!!! We conclude with decadent Grange, Port and Madeira.

Mr. Tilson has worn many hats through the years including being a prominent investment manager, longtime wine collector, and owner, founder, and editor of The Underground Wine Letter. John's sincere passion for wine and his outstanding wine tasting prowess is matched only by his lifelong appreciation for the finer things in life. His philosophy of -- if you see a once in a lifetime opportunity, take it -- led him around the globe to experience the world's finest restaurants and unparalleled wine cellars. Back in the 1970s, he was welcomed at the top Chateaux in Bordeaux, the best Domaines in Burgundy, iconic Napa Valley estates and beyond, and he tasted many vintages straight from the barrel. John Tilson's exceptional cellar has been built over a half-century of tasting and collecting, and the wines are impeccably stored. The cellar is an impressive three rooms, all underground, kept dark and vibration free at 54 degrees with good humidity, just below the level of inducing mold.

"The trick is not to build a cellar and fill it with just anything; the trick is to put the right stuff into it." - John Tilson

Bordeaux gets first call with impressive pairs of mature giants including 1928 and 1929 Calon Segur magnums, 1959 Lafite and 1926 Latour, 1945 and 1947 Lafleur as well as 1959 and 1961 Lynch Bages! There are eight lots of Petrus back to 1952 including 1982 with a plethora of Sauternes highlighted by Yquem back to 1949 for a sweet nightcap!! Burgundy regals us royally with 1971 La Romanee, 1999 Rousseau Clos St.Jacques, 1949 Clair-Dau Bonnes Mares and 1978 Clair-Dau Musigny. The Musigny music continues elegantly with eight lots of Vogue crested by 1949 and 1962 Musigny! Our feature Burgundy presentation is fifty (yes, 50!) selections Domaine de la Romanee Conti!!! We scale verticals of Echezeaux and Grands Echezeaux from the 1990s. There are eight lots of La Tache back to 1949 topped by eight lots of Romanee Conti as well back to 1944 including 1978 and 1985! We get more Musigny on with 1989 Leroy, 1990 Faiveley, 1929 Seguin-Manuel and several vintage of Pierre Ponnelle back to 1947. And the red curtain of Red Burgundy concludes with seventeen selections of Robert Arnoux back to 1900 Clos Vougeot including 1969, 1971 and 1990 Romanee St. Vivant!!!

White Burgundy takes the stage with two dozen lots of Coche-Dury crested by ten vintages of Corton-Charlemagne back to 1997! Domaine de la Romanee Conti has a reprise with six vintages of DRC Montrachet back to 1997 followed by seven selections of Pierre-Yves Colin-Morey crowned by a magnum of 2004 Montrachet. Champagne shimmers through several interesting mixed lots as Drappier gets its due with eleven lots back to 1959. Our European vacation concludes with nine lots of Unico going back to a magnum of 1962.

We head to John's home in California with over two hundred fifty selections of the classics mostly Cabernet, one of the if not

THE most important offerings ever of these magical and adored wines. A recent tasting from John's collection a couple years ago solidified the amazing quality of not only John's collection but also these classic Calis. The 1978 Diamond Creeks were to die for, as well as the old Heitzs and Ridges and much more – it was a never forget meal! Diamond Creek, a winery with which John has a very close and personal relationship, headlines with over ninety selections of many bottles, magnums, double magnums and even a few five and six liters going back to 1974, crowned by five bottles of the super rare 1978 Lake!!! In fact, it was John who convinced Al Brounstein to bottle the Lake in the first place! We go from strength to strength with a dozen lots of Heitz with Martha's vineyard back to 1972 as well as three dozen lots of Inglenook back to 1933 including the legendary 1941!!! Some still say the Inglenook 41s are still the greatest wines ever made in California! These might be the last bottles you will ever find! There are over seventy selections of Ridge back to 1963 including 1971 Eisele, Monte Bello 1963 to 2019 including many magnums, double magnums and full cases, and some rare old cuvees no longer made, true unicorns. We head down under with seven lots of Grange spanning 1967 to 1986 and wash it all down with Madeira back to 1830!

All in all, this is a grand finale from Mr. Tilson and another great slice from a truly amazing collection! Truly, this offering is a testament to a life well spent thinking about, collecting, and drinking the finest wines on the planet and we are privileged and excited to present this very fine finale act for your bidding and drinking pleasure!!! Thank you, John, for your service to the entire wine community, and for keeping so many great wines to share with the next generation of collectors!!!

"The 2018 Cos d'Estournel is a blend of 74% Cabernet Sauvignon, 23% Merlot, 2% Petit Verdot and 1% Cabernet Franc, aged in 50% new oak barriques. The alcohol weighs in at just over 14.5%. Sporting a deep purple-black color, it needs a lot of swirling to begin to unlock a powerful nose of Crème de cassis, stewed plums, wild blueberries and chocolate-covered cherries, followed by nuances of Sichuan pepper, star anise, tree and clove oil, plus a waft of charcoal. The full-bodied palate is densely packed with taut, muscular black fruits and earthy layers, framed by super firm, ripe, grainy tannins and seamless freshness, finishing very long and wonderfully earthy. A very impressive behemoth, this is going to need a good seven to 10 years to truly show its stuff and should drink for a good 40 years and beyond."(98pts)

"Similar to the 1947 Lafleur in aromatic complexity and flavor, richness, and textural thickness, the 1945 is blacker in color, less evolved, and possesses a more classic structural profile than the port-like 1947. The 1945 tastes young, yet astonishingly unctuous, rich, and powerful. It will easily last for another 40-50 years. Will the 1975 turn out to be this memorable?"(100pts)

252 Château Lafleur - Vintage 1947*Pomerolms, bsl, scc, Cruse & Fils Freres bottling,excellent color*

"The 1947 Lafleur is the only wine that has ever made me shed tears. This magnum was a heroic example of a super-concentrated, massively dense, and lavishly rich Pomerol that can easily last for another 25-40 years. The condition of the bottle was astonishing. When I first tasted the wine, I thought it must be a great vintage of Pétrus. The Cabernet Franc character, which is an important part of the Lafleur vineyard, rarely comes through in this splendidly extracted wine. The tannins are sweet and soft, and the impression the wine leaves in the mouth is like having a skyscraper of exotic, plummy fruit cascading over the palate. The length is mind-boggling!" (100pts)

253 Château Lafleur - Vintage 1975*Pomerolhs, lbsl, scc, outstanding color*

"Lafleur possesses a mind-boggling inner-core of highly-extracted fruit, something that was not achieved in such great Lafleurs as 1982, 1985, 1988, 1989, and 1990. Still extremely tannic, with an opaque purple/black/garnet color, the wine exhibits a huge nose of jammy black fruits, earth, minerals, and spice. Massively proportioned, with a boat-load of tannin to shed, this is a wine for the 21st century." (100pts)

The 1989 has a slightly more saturated color, and seems more tightly knit both aromatically and on the palate. However, this is splitting hairs, as this is another stunningly opulent, rich, full-bodied, amazingly concentrated, exotic, flamboyant Pétrus that remains remarkably youthful, and in need of more years of bottle age. I have always stood by the 1971 Château d'Yquem as being one of the most seriously underrated vintages of that decade. I feel completely vindicated in this view as I batted away the 1967 Yquem when tasted at the Château and entranced its audience. This great Yquem was born during 10 days from October 6, when warm and humid conditions caused an outbreak of botrytis. It was a small crop of just 228 barrels. Slightly deeper in color than the 1982 Yquem tasted alongside, it is blessed with a truly spellbinding nose that has such energy and frisson that you don't know where to look. You can detect Mirabelle, ripe Satsumas, citrus peel and beeswax. The palate is vibrant, animated and simply electrifies the mouth upon entry. The 1971 has immense concentration, while the almost Tokaji Aszu-like finish is beautifully poised. This is simply an outstanding Yquem that shows absolutely no sign of reaching the end of its drinking plateau. Drink now-2040+. Tasted March 2014."(97pts)*

The bouquet is quite honeyed and rich for Yquem at this early juncture, with subtle scents of peach skin, white flowers, and a puff of chalk and frangipane. The palate is viscous on the entry, all about the texture at first, coating the mouth with luscious botrytized fruit. There are touches of Seville orange marmalade, fresh apricot, a hint of spice and passion fruit. This is imbued with impressive depth and weight, perhaps an Yquem that is determined to make an impression after last year's absence. The color is remarkably black followed by a blast of intensely sappy pinot fruit, long, rich, powerful and earthy flavors all held together by extraordinary balance. "The 1962 Vog Musigny V.V. took no prisoners. It had an absolutely incredible nose that was singing in the spotlight. Robert called it amazing, and it was about as WOW as wow can get. There were stupendous aromas; everything you could want in your nose of mature Burgundy was there. Someone called it magical. Characteristics included fireplace, roses, brick, cedar and earth. "The extraordinary 2002 Musigny Vieilles Vignes will most likely not have as much cellaring potential as the great 1949, 1959, or 1990, yet qualitatively is in the same league as those jewels from the past. It sports a profound nose of red cherries, spices, candied raspberries, and hints of oak. This noble, concentrated, refined wine reveals loads of flowers intermingled with red as well as black fruits in its complex personality. Unlike the bold, chewy, hyper-concentrated 1990, this is a feminine wine, a work of art with exquisite tannin. Anticipated maturity: 2007-2018." (97-99pts)

"Cumin, wood smoke, black tea, roasted meats, and lightly-cooked blackberry scent the 2005 Vosne-Romanée Le Reas. Dense, substantial and meaty, with a faint tannic grit (all factors seeming to reflect its relative proximity to Nuits-St.-Georges), this displays outstanding depth of fruit, a lot of sheer energy, and persistently subtle complexity. It would probably show fascinatingly in 5-7 years."(90pts)

- 364 Corton - Vintage 2012
 Domaine de la Romanée Conti
"The 2012 Corton Grand Cru was cropped at 11 hectoliters per hectare on September 21. Clear, almost pale in color; the nose exudes that term often appropriated to Burgundy: transparency. The aromatics gradually unfold with light strawberry and red cherry scents, just a hint of sous bois in the background. The palate is crisp on the entry with tart cherries, a fine line of acidity and hints of brown sugar interwoven through the finish that fans out gently. It feels a little foursquare, a "correct" Corton that is perhaps letting the fellow Grand Crus take the limelight. But it will give pleasure over the next 10 to 12 years, and though it might not represent the best Corton since the domaine took over the parcels in 2009, it is perhaps the one that slots in perfectly with the other wines. Just 242 cases produced this year."(92pts)

"...has a fragrant bouquet, perhaps the most refined since Aubert de Villaine and his team took guardianship of the vineyard. The palate is crisp on the entry with hints of bitter cherry and a touch of white pepper."(94pts)

372 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2012*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The 2012 Grands Échézeaux was picked on September 22, 24 and 25, at 27 hectoliters per hectare. Compared to the Échézeaux the nose is more demure, perhaps more refined, does not feel the urge to "put it all out" as it were. Reticent is the word - yet the precision and delineation is undeniable. The palate is medium-bodied with very supple tannin, here a mixture of red and black fruit, a little broodier and more introspective than its "cousin" but with greater persistence in the mouth. It unfurls on the finish: hints of dry tobacco and cedar, leaving you with the impression of a "masculine" Grands Échézeaux, one built for the long haul. 987 cases produced."(95pts)

"The 1949 DRC La Tâche more than made up for the disappointing palate of the Lambrays with a stunning arsenal of aromas and flavors. Wow, began my notes, a great La Tâche. It had this meaty, pungent, intense edge and was full of game, iron, plum, prune and animal. Rich, long and elegant, it still had excellent definition on its finish, and great game and soy flavors, along with a touch of brandy and licorice. It was pure and a classic."(96pts JK)

"The 1988 DRC La Tâche was also vimful, on the spicier side but definitely not with the fruit of the 2001. This was more on the whips and chains side of the fence, characteristic of the vintage. 378 La Tâche - Vintage 2004*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

*"This too is sublime in its subtlety and grace with inef-opulence of the RSV and the restraint of the GE with an expressive yet ultra fine nose of rose petals, violets and seductive spice notes that introduce unbelievably refined flavors that seem crafted from silk and lace, culminating in a linear, mouth coating finish that detonates like a

379 La Tâche - Vintage 2011*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

*"As it was from cask this is more restrained than usual and it requires aggressive swirling to coax the pure and spicy essence of red berry fruit aromas to emerge from the glass where there is a slight hint of herbal tea present.
There is a similar reserve to the distinctly focused and linear flavors that enjoy a seemingly unlimited reserve of dry extract that renders the fine-grained and silky tannins almost invisible at present though I suspect that they will become much more apparent once the baby fat melts away."*(96pts BH)

there is good ripeness to the spiced green tea, hoisin, soy, anise, sandalwood and rose petal aromas. The cool, pure with both minerality and plenty of dry extract that buffers the extremely firm but not hard shaping tannins on the overtly austere if seriously persistent finish."*(97pts BH)

381 La Tâche - Vintage 2013*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

*"The 2013 La Tâche Grand Cru was picked from the af-hectoliters per hectare. It has a heavenly nose with exquisite mineral-rich red cherry, wild strawberry, blood orange and subtle woodland, damp autumn leaf and moss aromas that are extraordinarily complex. It seems to gain vigor and intensity with each swirl of the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with very fine tannin, a slightly suppler La Tâche compared to recent years, a wine with an athleticism. There is nothing wasted or superfluous here, a honed La Tâche that is all about tensile structure matched by perfect acidity and an incredibly complex, kaleidoscopic finish that seems so mercurial in the glass, initially offering red fruit then changing its mind and revealing darker and more tertiary notes. In a word:

awesome."*(97pts)

Its rose, violet, talcum powder, and crushed berry-scent-

St. Vivant it is arguably even more aromatically complex with a wonderfully fresh if restrained nose of hoisin, black fruit, soy and anise. There is remarkable concentration of dry extract that completely buffers the otherwise tightly wound tannic spine while pushing it to the background as the broad-shouldered flavors culminate in a balanced, long and velvety mineral-inflected finish that delivers astonishing persistence."*(95pts BH)

386 Richebourg - Vintage 2012*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1lsl, 2stl*

*"The Richebourg 2012 was picked September 27-28 at just 19 hectoliters per hectare, one of the lowest yields in this vintage. This has a serious bouquet, reserved at first, more earth than air. Unusual for this cuvée, there is a sense of exoticism here, a Richebourg daring to show a bit of ankle. Blackberry pastille intermingle with wilted violets, and there is a touch of warmth that belies the pre-cocity of the growing season. Leaving it aside for 10 minutes, there are hints of Provençal herbs, broom and even fennel. The palate is medium-bodied and the first thing that strikes you is its backbone. Well, this is Richebourg after all. But there is an arching structure to this wine that is disguised by the silkiness of its texture, plus an almost citrus freshness and brightness on the finish. This is a Richebourg that will make you giddy with pleasure.

"...beautifully defined with beguiling transparency. The palate is medium-bodied, but there is serious weight and presence here. 388 Richebourg - Vintage 2015*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The 2015 Richebourg Grand Cru is very good indeed, offering up a pure and surprisingly expressive nose of strawberry, dried rose, plum preserve, roast squab, raw cocoa and incipient rich soil tones, framed by some nutty new oak. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, multidimensional and rich, sweet fruit playing in counterpoint with sapid, savory nuance." (96pts)

389 Richebourg - Vintage 2016*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Broader-shouldered and ampler than the Romanée-St-Vivant, the 2016 Richebourg Grand Cru unfurls in the glass with a lavish bouquet of cassis, dark plums, candied peel, potpourri, Asian spices, peonies and smoked duck. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, rich and expansive, with considerable depth and dimension at the core, and a gourmand, almost fleshy profile that marries beautifully with its cool, precise fruit tones and its velvety structuring tannins. This is a superb Richebourg that to my palate surpasses the 2015 rendition." (97pts)

"What a night cap it was, the 1952 Romanée-Conti. Chunks of ripe tomatoes dripped out of this beefy and gamy wine, covered with a gravy that only a Burgundy could have. It was 'dripping Prime Rib,' Rob concurred, and the wine was rich like Trump and long like like&like&let's just call it long. With enough breed for the Kentucky Derby, this thoroughbred of a wine left no doubt as to what was the wine of the night. What is so amazing about the '52 is how it was the first vintage of RC with the young vines after they tore up the vineyard after the 1945 vintage. I guess greatness doesn't always have to come from old vines." (98pts JK)

"There was this autumnal oil to the nose, along with sweet brown sugar, menthol, gingerbread and more spice. This was a crazy time' wine. More sweet brown sugar and oats played together nicely on the palate, and this lip smacking red had a citrus spank to its finish that hurt so good. It wasn't from the 1990s, not 1980s, had to be 1978 RC, I mused. It was a stunningly good bottle of 1988 DRC Romanée Conti. Wow. 395 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2007*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"I have never been treated to such a profusion of floral perfume from this legendary site as rose over the glass of 2007 Romanée-Conti. Hyacinth, rose, gladiola, and iris are underlain by scents of moss-covered, damp stone, wild ginger, and diverse tiny red fruits. "Romanée-Conti c'est le nez," remarks de Villaine of this almost ethereal Pinot. The contrast with the more fleshy La Tache could not be more dramatic. But this doesn't pull back on its silken-textured palate, either far from it: along with persistent inner-mouth profusion of floral perfume come savory, irresistibly juicy raspberry and pomegranate as well as an impression of marrow-rich, multi-boned meat stock. A wafting, wave-like finish harbors the sort of exhilarating sheer refreshment one looks for in white wine, and a kaleidoscopic interchange of colorful floral, spice, fruit, carnal, and mineral elements such as few wines of any sort can deliver." 396 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2011*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Discreet wood sets off a wonderfully elegant, airy and ultra-pure dark pinot fruit nose that is perhaps even more reticent and shut down than the La Tâche and only seriously aggressive swirling can reveal stubborn notes of rose petal, spice and menthol influence. The ultra-silky but firm medium-scaled flavors are also blessed with an impressive abundance of dry extract that buffers the prominent but ripe supporting tannins on the moderately austere, deep and palate coating finish. The length here is genuinely amazing, indeed even at this early juncture this is already the longest wine in the range. As it virtually always is at this point in its development, this is an exercise in understatement, poise and controlled power with an unrivaled purity of expression. In sum, this is Zen-like. As to whether it will ultimately be better than the La Tâche in 2011 remains to be seen but for now the two seem to be neck and neck from a purely qualitative perspective." (96pts BH)

397 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2012*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The surprisingly expressive nose is almost completely dominated by various floral aromas that include violets, lavender and rose petal. There is of course a broad array of spice elements to the red and black currant aromas but they are nuances compared to the floral characters. The wonderfully intense and concentrated middle weight plus flavors possess arguably even more dry extract that, for the moment anyway, pushes the firm tannic spine completely to the background and as such the mouth feel is incredibly rich and opulent. While Romanée-Conti is almost always astonishingly complex it is not always more so than the La Tâche but in 2012 the king of complexity in the DRC range is indisputably Romanée-Conti. There is also a remarkable amount of minerality and the overall impression is one of seamless harmony." (98pts BH)

399 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 1991*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Wonderful aromatics of Vosne spice, black fruit and hints of earth and violets followed by rich, velvety flavors of stunning complexity and exceptional length. 402 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2002*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The 2002 Romanée Saint Vivant from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti has a heavenly bouquet. It was served blind but the tangible stem addition betrayed the grower, particularly when it was later compared next to an Henri Mayer. The bouquet is very complex with red berries, tree bark, a touch of dried blood and smoke, but what is striking is the delineation. The palate is medium-bodied and as you would expect, extremely well balanced. There is plenty of sappy red fruit here suffused with sage and rosemary, a touch of spice enlivening a finish that has impressive density (so much so that it could pass as a Richebourg.) I was not the only person to notice how it became more more savory and ferrous in the glass, after 30 minutes suggesting a touch of Japanese tea (the proper, thickly textured type). Just wondrous." Hard candy, flowers, mint and dark red berries build to the dramatic, explosive finish. 406 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2010*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"All that I could think when I first put my nose in the glass was "wow!" as the airy and very cool nose of ultra-elegant spice, floral and herbal nuances greeted me. Add to this plenty of attractive nuances to the kaleidoscopically layered red currant and plum suffused aromas and you have something pretty special. This is, not surprisingly, much more refined than the GrandsEch as the supporting tannins on the silky middle weight flavors are extremely fine-grained yet notably dense as the explosive finish is quite firm. Despite the tightly wound structure the overall impression of the mouth feel is one of delicacy and ultimate refinement."(96pts BH)

407 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2011*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"This is certainly one of, if not the, most floral wine in the range in 2011 with the possible exception of the Richebourg. The extraordinarily elegant and airy nose is positively kaleidoscopic in its sheer breadth of spice elements that combine with the stunningly pure red and black raspberry fruit aromas that are liberally laced with rose petal nuances. The lacy, intense and beautifully precise middle weight flavors are harmonious and impeccably well-balanced on the fabulously long and silky finish where a touch of youthful asperity is present. This should be terrific in time."(94pts BH)

408 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2012*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The 2012 Romanée St Vivant, incidentally served before Richebourg rather than afterwards unlike previous years, was picked on September 28 and 29 at 24 hectoliters per hectare. There is a wondrous, ethereal purity to this 2012, a little more sumptuous than I recall it from barrel, with kirsch and freshly picked strawberries. As it opens, it gains more and more sensuality. The palate is rounded, almost curvaceous in the mouth, clearly more concentrated than the 2011 with a sense of authority and purpose, a bit of daring-do on the long finish. It leaves a slightly ferrous residue on the aftertaste, completing what is a marvelous and sensual Grand Cru. 1,148 cases produced."(96pts)

2 bottles per lot $4500-6000

409 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2013*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The bouquet is adorable, so pure and comely, with shimmering red cherries, raspberry and orange blossom, a suggestion of cold flint imparting an enigmatic element a Romanée-Saint-Vivant that is clearly going to bide its time. The palate is medium-bodied with filigree tannin, impressive weight and almost a surfeit of freshness. There is tension from start to finish that effortlessly disguises the weight, the penetration on the sustained finish."(95pts)

2 bottles per lot $4000-6000

410 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2015*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The Domaine de la Romanée-Conti 2015 Romanée-St-Vivant Grand Cru was showing superbly from bottle, bursting from the glass with a dramatic and expressive bouquet of rose petal, violet, raspberry and spicy red cherry that has already digested its framing of new oak. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, expansive and supple, its frame of fine-grained tannins cloaked in a deep core of vibrant fruit and only asserting themselves on the long, penetrating finish."(95pts)

411 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2016*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1scl*

"A more restrained and cooler nose reflects super-fresh and floral-inflected aromas of exceptionally spicy red and dark currant, violet, plum and tea. There is a highly refined mouthfeel to the almost lacy yet concentrated middle weight flavors that possess first-rate complexity on the balanced and wonderfully persistent if youthfully austere finish. This crunchy effort is class in a glass with its emphasis on finesse which is quite different from the evident power and punch of the Corton. Textbook built-to-age RSV." (95pts VM)

2 bottles per lot $4000-5500

412 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 1999*cuvée Duvault Blochet, Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The wine is medium to dark ruby-colored and has a rose, violet, and red cherry-scented nose. Medium-bodied, lush, and expansive, it is fresh, filled with crunchy red and black berries, and has an impressively long, sweet, tannin-filled finish." (90-92pts)

"Gorgeous nose of black fruit and incredibly seductive notes of earth, smoked meat and hints of anise and clove that leads to elegant, pure, powerful but not heavy or unduly rich flavors that really are more about finesse than raw intensity. This is still extremely young but possesses everything it needs for a long, and very distinguished future." (95pts BH)

416 Richebourg - Vintage 1988*Domaine Leroy1spc, 1crc, 1scrc, 1crc with no top*

"The 1988 Richebourg has slightly less finesse and a less perfect bouquet than the Romanée St.-Vivant, but it is more muscular, fuller-framed, and a titan of a wine with its huge proportions and massive concentration and depth. This is a monumental old-style burgundy that is meant to last for ages, and I am envious of anyone who is fortunate enough to put it in their cellars. The 1988 vintage attests to a remarkably auspicious start for the new Domaine Leroy in Vosne-Romanée." (98pts)

529 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1999
Vieilles Vignes, Ponsot
"This was a magical bottle of the 1999 Clos de la Roche Grand Cru Cuvée Vieilles Vignes, a wine that's just beginning to hit its stride as it approaches its 20th birthday, unfurling in the glass with aromas of red berries, cassis, dark chocolate, cinnamon, dried rose petals and orange rind. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and immensely concentrated, with a broad attack, lovely acids and a formidable reserve of creamy old-vine fruit, structured around a chalky chassis of tannin that evokes the great old Burgundies of yesteryear. Concluding with a long and expansive finish, this is still a young wine, and another two decades of aging won't be a problem. But it's now clear that this ranks as one of Ponsot's greatest recent hits and one of the high points of this reputed vintage."(98pts)

Les Suchots, R. Arnoux

"...exhibits that oriental spice, sweet black fruit and vanillin nose that I find hauntingly similar to the bouquet found in the wines of the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti. The color is a deep ruby/purple. The nose is explosively complex and rich. On the palate, the dense, full-bodied, rich, layered texture is all sweetness, jammy fruit, and glycerin." (93pts)

"Superb, saturated red-ruby color. Fabulously aromatic nose of black raspberry, smoke, espresso, ripe tomato and spices. Lush and silky; has a texture bordering on unctuous but with strong underlying backbone. Very long, sweet back end, with ripe tannins buried in fruit. Goes right to the pleasure center of the brain." 582 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 1997*Coche-Durylil*

"The 1997 Coche-Dury Corton Charlemagne kept the sexy train moving, like there were no stops on the line. This was another delicious '97, with loads of musk and white fruits. While mature, it also had a joie de vivre that only the greatest wines possess." (96pts JK)

583 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2000*Coche-Dury*

"This was very Coche' per The French Paradox, full of lots of smoky fireplace action and clean waterfall qualities. This was a super fresh 2000 that was as good as the vintage in general gets. The Paradox admired the roasted Coche thing, and this smoky, icy, lemon pie of a wine left me with a lip-smacking finish." (97pts JK)

584 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2001*Coche-Dury*

"A myriad of spices and anise-spiked pears are found in the highly expressive nose of the 2001 Corton-Charlemagne. Medium to full-bodied, with levels of dry extract that would tip the scales, and a supple, fleshy character of intense width and power, this wine is amazing. Magnificently supple, yet focused, boisterous, yet refined, thick, yet balanced, it possesses a finish that easily lasts for over a minute. Moreover, it has all the ear-marks of perfection. This velvety-textured wine is jam-packed with minerals immersed in pear syrup, copious spices (including clove, ginger, and juniper berries), as well as a distinctive note of apple sauce. It is layered, opulent, and sexy, while remaining nuanced and seamless. Wow!..." (98-100pts)

585 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2003*Coche-Dury*

"Knockout nose combines lime, pineapple, apple and wet stone; much more perfumed than the Perrières. Then plush and very ripe but not at all roasted, with strong stony character and harmonious acidity giving verve to the wine's expressive fruit flavors. I would not be surprised to see this wine close down in the bottle. Finishes broad and tactile, with terrific persistence. A star of the vintage." (93+?pts IWC)

586 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2004*Coche-Dury*

"The 2004 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru is a monument in the making, unwinding in the glass with a youthful bouquet of lemon oil, fresh apple, vanilla pod, struck match and a light touch of smoky reduction. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, searingly intense and racy, built around a bright line of acidity and laden with chewy extract, still rock solid at the core, concluding with a long, chalky finish that captures the essence of Corton-Charlemagne. Impressively, this is still a few years away from truly entering its plateau." (97+pts)

587 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2006*Coche-Dury*

"This is also quite restrained yet strikingly pure and highly complex with a nose of white flower, green fruit and discreet spice aromas that complements perfectly the delicious, intense and stony big-bodied and overtly muscular flavors that are wonderfully vibrant and gorgeously detailed on the transparent and explosive finish that really coats the palate with extract. This is beautifully balanced and understated with a youthfully austere finale." (94pts BH)

589 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2011*Coche-Dury*

"The 2011 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru has an exquisite bouquet that truly deserves the phrase "liquid mineral." Imagine a limestone quarry being melted down and then distilled multiple times until there is just enough to fill your wine glass. The palate has perfect acidity and subtle spicy notes on the entry: hints of lime flower, citrus lemon and a subtle note of mandarin coming through with aeration. It exhibits balletic poise on the finish a sensational Corton-Charlemagne that just may turn out to be just as good as the 2010. "(96pts)

1 bottle per lot $3500-5000

590 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2012*Coche-Dury*

"The aromatics unfurl with a sense of ease prioritizing finesse over power: beeswax, linden, lemon thyme and fresh pear. The palate is exquisitely balanced with fleeting glimpses of Seville orange and apricot. But there is more about the tension, the effortlessness and that it just rolls out across the finish like a huge Turkish rug. This is the kind of wine that exhausts superlatives."(97+pts)

591 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2013*Coche-Dury*

"An incredibly densely fruited nose also only grudgingly offers up notes of stone, tangerine peel, white flowers, green apple and plenty of spice and soft wood nuances. There is an almost painful intensity to the equally concentrated and overtly powerful broad-shouldered flavors that brim with dry extract that simultaneously coats the palate while buffering the extremely firm acid spine on the incredibly long finish."(97pts BH)

598 Meursault - Vintage 2005*Perrières, Coche-Dury*

"The 2005 Coche-Dury Meursault Perrières was super fat and much chunkier like some 2005s can be. At first, this lacked the definition of the 2002, but it had loads of brawn and weight. It was rich, sweet, and unctuous' per the Curious Gourmet. It got better and better, becoming slightly zippier in the glass, continuing to blossom. Jetski agreed, and in the end it was slightly better than the '02 with all that emerging definition."(96+pts JK)

"This MP was rich and long, displaying signature acacia and honeysuckle aromas. So rich' appeared in my notes again, but it was a touch oaky at first. With air, though, that resolved itself. 602 Meursault - Vintage 2014*Perrières, Coche-Durycuc*

"The 2014 Meursault 1er Cru les Perrières delivers a shimmering, tensile, wet limestone-scented aroma that evokes the essence of this propitious vineyard with disarming assurance. It is a bouquet that momentarily whisks you to its birthplace like all great wines. The palate has wonderful salinity with delicate touches of ginger and grilled walnut delivering immense depth and power as it fans out in audacious fashion towards its saline finish. Yes...it really is as good as you imagine." (97pts)

603 Meursault - Vintage 2016*Perrières, Coche-Dury*

"The 2016 Meursault 1er Cru Perrières is the most distinctive wine in the range, unfurling in the glass with notes of lemon oil, crushed chalk, tart green apple, dried white flowers and struck flint. On the palate, the wine is medium to full-bodied, elegantly satiny and searingly intense, with tangy acids, huge concentration and the pronouncedly mineral, stony signature that always seems to mark out this bottling. Along with Genevrières, Coche's parcel in Perrières was largely spared by the 2016 frosts. Given its utterly classic profile, a dozen years' patience is advised." (97pts)

607 Montrachet - Vintage 1997*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The 1997 DRC Montrachet was delicious and so good right now, a veritable right thurr. This was a great Montrachet, surprisingly intense and punching way above its weight class with massive acidity. 1997 was an excellent vintage for whites, but nothing I have ever had from that year was this powerful." (96pts JK)

608 Montrachet - Vintage 1998*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The 1998 DRC Montrachet had a musky and wintry nose. It was delicate, feminine and floral on its nose, but its palate was briny and spiny. This was an excellent Montrachet but just short of outstanding." (94pts JK)

609 Montrachet - Vintage 2001*Domaine de la Romanée Contisos*

"Bright, pale yellow-gold. Exotic orange peel and pineapple on the nose, along with lower-toned butterscotch, clove and coconutty oak. Powerfully mineral, firm in acidity and very tightly wound; comes across as drier and less silky than the young 2002. A very structured, chewy white Burgundy that offers an impressive combination of power and delicacy." (94+pts IWC)

610 Montrachet - Vintage 2011*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The Montrachet was picked on 6 September at a respectable 37.1hl/ha. Lucid in colour, perhaps a little deeper than expected, it has a multi-faceted nose that you have to monitor over one hour. Hints of almond and butterscotch emerge at first, then salted caramel, pralines and peach skin. It is mercurial and utterly alluring. The palate is intense on the entry and immediately expresses a sense of vitality and tension. This Montrachet is suffused with great weight in the mouth with subtle touches of orange peel, almond and hazelnut that ebb with time. It mellows in the glass but never dispensing with one iota of tension, yet seeming if anything to gain in volume. This epitomizes great Montrachet." (97pts)

611 Montrachet - Vintage 2012*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The Punisher seemed to think the 2012 DRC Montrachet was still quite young, but I was enthralled with this admittedly still wound-up wine. Its deep, buttery nose had great stony spice and musk. It was rich, decadent and intense and yes, a bit young, but still quite showy. It had a strong finish. Someone commented that it was great but just young'." (96+pts JK)

"The 2014 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Clos de la Mouchère has a taut and linear, but intense bouquet with attractive apple blossom, flint and orange zest aromas that open with a sense of confidence in the glass. The palate is well balanced with quite a piercing citric entry. There is very good weight in the mouth here, feisty and spicy with a dab of fresh ginger perking up the finish. Give this a couple of years and you should have a fine Puligny-Montrachet."(91pts)

Tactile and brisk on entry, then thick and energetic in the middle palate, conveying a distinct impression of sweetness countered by pure saline minerality. The wine's peachy fruit hints at almost honeyed ripeness without losing its verve. Finishes with outstanding mounting length." (94-96pts VM)

"...was gorgeous, very fresh, dusty and intense in its long and smoky nose. There was this dried BBQ jerky exotic edge here. Earth, smoke and waterfall rounded out the nose, although Suss was lost in the forest and its woodsy nature. Its austerity was distinguished, and there was this splash of Worcestershire and tobasco on its finish, probably the same woodsiness that Suss was referring to, although who knows what was happening under the table over there." "The 2007 Perrières has a much more exotic, generous bouquet than the 2008 with touches of honey, pear and vanilla-scented bouquet. The palate has a vibrant, lively entry packed full of citric peel that pierces the Satsuma, fresh apricot and peach fruit. Still very youthful with wonderful balance and cohesion, it builds to a very precise, spicy finish with a long aftertaste. This is the first vintage in which I feel Pierre-Yves really captured the essence of Perrières. Drink now-2020. Tasted December 2012." (94pts)

"The 1983 Ramonet Montrachet was another intense nose full of spine and wax. It was the most pungent of the flight and very youthful. Its intensity was beautiful like an Aurora Borealis, and its acidity was the most superior of the flight. (96+pts JK) A flat out superb nose that is obviously very ripe with botrytis hints yet there is nothing obvious or cloying about it that introduces wonderfully long, fantastically rich and complex flavors that culminate in sappy, palate staining and almost unbelievably long finish. 704 Vega Sicilia Unico - Vintage 1970

2bn, 1ts, 1lsl, outstanding color and condition

"For many years, the 1970 Unico was the greatest Spanish wine that I had ever tasted, and although this was not the same caliber as the previous perfect example, it remains a fabulous wine. It is a blend of 70% Tinto Fino, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon and 10% Merlot and Malbec and aged for ten years in barriques. It has a thrilling Bordeaux-like personality on the nose that is more aloof than other vintages. The Cabernet component in the blend is pronounced, forming the backbone and austerity of this wine. However, you cannot deny its power and its breeding, or indeed its obdurate, masculine finish that demands respect. This is a Unico you have to look up to, perhaps the sister of Chateau Latour in this same year." (97pts)

706 Vega Sicilia Unico - Vintage 2009

"I tasted a bottle of the 2009 nico blind and was taken by the freshness, the red fruit notes and the Burgundian-like characteristics of this vintage, which on paper was quite warm and dry. I also tasted the 2009 Valbuena, which is always more approachable, and was blown away by its aromatics. With time in the glass the nico opened up and got closer to the character of Valbuena but with more depth and clout, while showing extremely elegant. I tasted it again in the context of all the wines from the group, and it delivered all that I saw when I tasted it blind. It takes some time to unfurl its aromatic palette, and it feels young and somewhat undeveloped, younger than it is. It has a touch that made me think of the old vintages of nico on the nose but with very polished tannins and a soft mouthfeel that provides elegance." (98pts)

DIAMOND CREEK: A HALF CENTURY OF ESTEEMED SINGLE-VINEYARD CABERNETS

"I still have the wines back to 1972 in my cellar. I drink them often and have never had a bottle that was tired. Truly, the Diamond Creek wines are special wines from a special place." – John Tilson, The Underground Wineletter

Founded in 1968, Diamond Creek holds the distinction of being California's first estate vineyard dedicated exclusively to Cabernet Sauvignon, with its inaugural vintage released in 1972. Visionary pioneer Al Brounstein boldly defied industry conventions by planting Bordeaux varietals on Diamond Mountain on the east side of the northern Mayacamas range in Napa Valley. Home to four distinct vineyards—Volcanic Hill, Red Rock Terrace, Gravelly Meadow, and Lake—each contributes to a limited production of long-lived wines known for their elegance, depth, and richness.

Excerpts from the Underground Wineletter make clear what a remarkable group of wines these are:

The story of Al and Boots Brounstein and Diamond Creek is legendary — planting only Cabernet in northern Napa Valley from smuggled Bordeaux rootstock and bottling wines from first three, then four, and perhaps some five different vineyards.

Diamond Creek Vineyards Winery has 21 acres on three adjoining sites. Each site differs in exposure and soil composition and when Al realized he had distinct vineyards, he decided to bottle under different names — Gravelly Meadow (a 5-acre vineyard with rocky soil). Red Rock Terrace (a 7-acre vineyard with reddish-brown soil), Volcanic Hill (an 8-acre vineyard with white volcanic ash in the soil) and Lake Vineyard (a three-quarter acre vineyard with gravel, sand and soil, a man-made lake and the coolest microclimate). Usually blended with Gravelly Meadow, in exceptional years Lake is bottled separately.

When John and Laurie Tilson and Ed Lazarus first visited in the early 1970s, the Diamond Creeks were controversial. Wrong climate for Cabernet, too tannic, and too expensive ($7.50 per bottle retail) were often heard comments. The first vintage, 1972, they bought, tasted and loved the Volcanic Hill. Ditto the 1973. Then the widely heralded 1974s. The 1975, the drought years of 1976 and 1977, and the fantastic 1978s, including the first bottling of Lake — ultra rare, only one barrel or 25 cases produced. In order, the 1975 vintage produced yet another great Volcanic Hill that has proven better than the more acclaimed 1974 which is still a great wine, as is the 1974 Red Rock Terrace. The star of the difficult 1976 and 1977 drought years is Gravelly Meadow. Both wines are among the all-time great Cabernets of the 1970s. Then came the 1978s.

Again, John and Laurie Tilson and Ed Lazarus were there to taste from barrel and Al gave them the keys to the cellar, glasses and a wine thief (for extracting the wine from barrel). Tasting the three different vineyards from barrel, they knew they were in the midst of greatness. Never before had they experienced such profound Cabernet from barrel. Sampling different barrels of the vineyards, everything was uniformly great. And, near the end of the tasting, they came across a barrel stamped "Lake." Not knowing what it was they decided to "give it a shot." Wow! Off the charts. Here they are reveling in the midst of the greatest Cabernets they've ever tasted from barrel and this one barrel stands out as the ne plus ultra.

Rejoining Al, he asked how they liked the wines. Their response was "Your best ever! But what is Lake?" "Oh that," Al responded. "It's a little vineyard of less than one acre that has trouble ripening in some years. When it ripens it's such a small amount we blend it with Gravelly Meadow." The group responded, "this is the best wine in the cellar. You've got to bottle it separately." Al answered, "I'm already being criticized for having three different vineyard bottlings based on the differences in soil and climate in the vineyard. What would people say if I added another, and only one barrel. It does not seem worth it." They persisted, "First, who cares what people say. What counts is what's in the bottle. Since 1972, you have proven the wisdom of the three vineyard bottlings and now that you have a great vintage with the Lake vineyard you should bottle it. Second, having only one barrel is a high-class problem. It's your best wine. Great wines are often produced in very small quantities. And, it is, after all, still Diamond Creek and can only serve to further your reputation as a great Cabernet producer who continues to confound all the critics. Go for it!"

...After more than 30 years, there is no doubt that these wines are among the best Cabernets ever made in California. They require time and patience, however, just like the great wines of Bordeaux... (Underground Wineletter)

775 Diamond Creek Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2013*Red Rock Terrace*

"The 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Red Rock Terrace comes from seven acres of the 20-acre vineyard (whereas the Gravelly Meadow emerges from five acres). The terroir is iron-rich, red, rocky soil in contrast to the light, gravelly, ashy soils of the Gravelly Meadow. Super-intense, rich, more backward and powerful than the Gravelly Meadow, this dense purple wine offers up notes of beef blood, Crème de cassis, blackberry, licorice and earth. Full-bodied, powerful and incredibly well-balanced, this is wine for 25-30 or more years of aging. In fact, don't plan on drinking a bottle for at least another 5-8 years."(99pts)

The rich, plum color with amber at the edge is followed by a fabulous bouquet offering lavish quantities of sweet, jammy, cassis fruit, cedar, smoke, herbs, and other black fruits. The fruit is very ripe. Given the massive flavor extraction, the moderate tannin level is nearly submerged beneath the chewy, rich fruit. "From the biggest of the three vineyards, the 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Volcanic Hill comes from pure volcanic, iron-rich, rocky white tufa of volcanic origin. Marginally speaking, this is bluer and blacker than the Red Rock Terrace or Gravelly Meadow. A tour de force of perfection, this wine offers up Crème de cassis, blueberry liqueur, licorice, earth, truffle and graphite. It displays spectacular richness, magnificent balance and texture, and a long, incredibly pure finish of close to a minute. "As for the 1991, 6,500 cases were produced of this potentially perfect wine. While this vintage of Dominus contains no Merlot in the blend, every time I taste it I am reminded of a great vintage of Pétrus such as 1982, 1989 or 1990. Although different, the 1991 Dominus possesses extraordinary intensity, remarkable opulence, and amazing fruit extraction, all welded to a full-bodied structure. The wine's sensational purity and inner-core of depth must be tasted to be believed. The 1991 will be approachable young because of its sweet tannin, yet it exhibits the potential to last for 25 years. Perhaps 1994 will rival it, but for now, the 1991 is unquestionably the greatest Dominus, as well as a potential legend in the making."(99pts)

That impression quickly subsided as the big, mint, eucalyptus, and cassis aromas came to the forefront. The color is still deep, with only slight lightening at the edge. In the mouth, the wine is rich and full-bodied, with excellent concentration and balance. This was the first time that I can recall tasting the 1976 and it is a beautiful bottle of wine that is now at its apogee. The deep and utterly brilliant nose soars from the glass in a complex and pure blend of cherries, blood orange, woodsmoke, mint, a touch of coffee, nutskins, cigar smoke and a wonderfully complex base of soil. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and beautifully transparent, with superb delineation and balance, fine mid-palate depth, melting tannins and stunning length and grip on the dancing finish. A great bottle that shows no signs of the more "roasted" character evident in most cabernets from this torrid vintage." (95pts JG)*

INGLENOOK WINERY: NAPA LEGEND SINCE 1882

“Early on we had a blind tasting of 1949 First Growth Bordeaux with the 1949 Inglenook Cabernet Sauvignon added as a “ringer”. What a “ringer” it was! The wine was as good as any of the first growths and some of us actually preferred it over the First Growths. This was a revelation, and I resolved to search high and low to find old Inglenook Cabernets.” – John Tilson; The Underground Wineletter

“I have always considered Inglenook the first (California) Château, not Beaulieu.” - André Tchelistcheff

Inglenook Winery’s story is deeply intertwined with the history of Napa Valley. Founded in 1879 by Finnish sea captain and wine enthusiast Gustave Niebaum, it was created with the vision of rivaling Europe’s finest wine estates. The land, once farmland and orchards, soon became home to some of the region’s most historic vineyards. By the time Niebaum’s grandnephew, John Daniel Jr., took over in the 1930s, Inglenook had already gained international recognition.

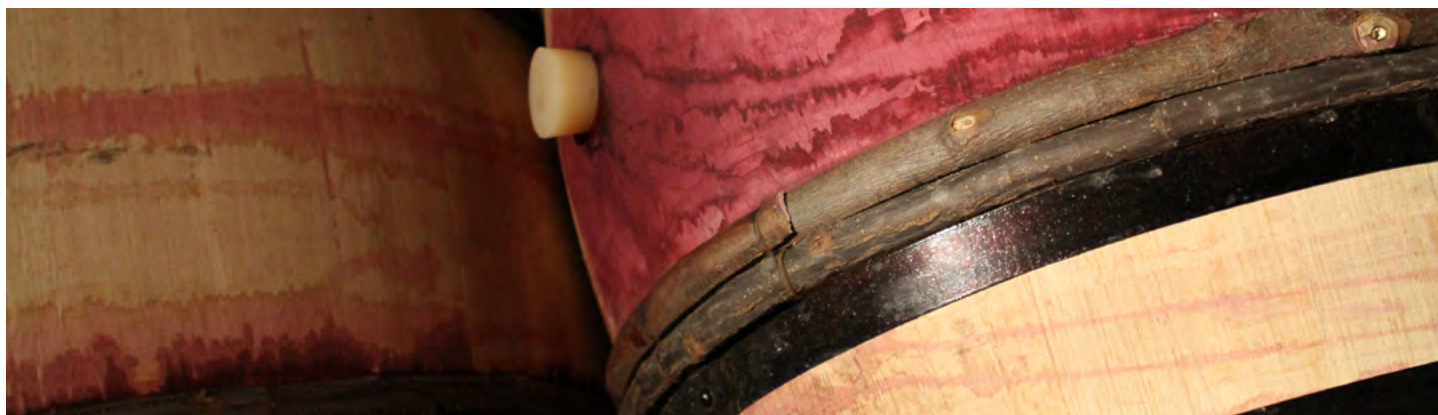

As Matt Stemp of GuildSomm writes in “Inglenook of Napa Valley”:

In the late 1930s, there were six premium wineries operating in Napa Valley: Inglenook, Beaulieu, Beringer Bros., Larkmead, Christian Bros., and Louis Martini. Inglenook separated from the pack with a relentless emphasis on quality, which started in the vineyard.

To ensure only high-quality wines would bear the Inglenook name, John Daniel Jr. maintained Niebaum’s meticulousness and added his own innovations: a second label and bulk selloffs...Substandard juice he sold off entirely, sans the Inglenook name—a practice common among top Napa producers today but revolutionary at the time. He applied the classic Inglenook diamond label only to premium, vintage-dated, estate-bottled varietal wines, with fruit from his own vines or those of other reputable growers like J.J. Cohn and Schramsberg.

In the heart of Rutherford, Cabernet Sauvignon is Inglenook’s most important grape, and it forms the core of John Daniel Jr.’s legacy. By 1940, it was Inglenook’s principal variety, predating its ascendance in the larger valley by 50 years... Napa Valley, Then & Now author Kelli White reports on the wine’s evolution in bottle some 75 years later: “Though difficult to find and monumentally expensive, Inglenook Cabernet from the early 1940s, especially the 1941, are worth the hype. They are gorgeous, dense, and impossibly youthful and profound.” While the difficult years of 1945 and 1947 prompted Daniel’s refusal to bottle Cabernet under the Inglenook label, the 1950s and early 1960s produced strings of successful vintages. White notes 1958 to 1962 as an especially good run, with 1959 as the pinnacle.

These are some of the greatest and longest-lived wines Napa Valley has delivered to date, documenting over two decades of Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon before the first Robert Mondavi wine rolled off the bottling line. (GuildSomm, 2017)

887 Joseph Phelps Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 1977
Eisele Vineyard
 2bn, 1ts, 1sdc, 2ssos, outstanding color and condition
 Like the Mayacamas, the 1977 Eisele Vineyard bottling from Joseph Phelps Vineyards was still quite young for its age and needed some extended aeration to really start to stir. Again, as I was so slow finishing up my notes, I reached this wine long after my colleagues at the tasting and benefited from this, in my opinion. By the time I reached the Eisele, it was starting to blossom nicely, after being a bit monolithic when first served, and eventually offered up a very good nose of cassis, a touch of eucalyptus, dark soil tones, chocolate, cigar smoke and a top-note of chipotle peppers. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and rock solid at the core, with fine focus and grip, still some ripe tannin waiting to resolve, lovely balance and a long, nascently complex and still quite promising finish. Like the Mayacamas, I would be inclined to give the Phelps Eisele at least a few more years in the cellar to further blossom, as it is only on the cusp of its peak and has decades ahead of it and is still climbing! A very, very good example of the vintage. (93+pts JG)

"As was the case with the 1974 Mayacamas cabernet, I had not tasted a bottle of the 1970 vintage from Bob Travers in a long, long time, and was absolutely thrilled to find it paired up with the 1974 at this particular dinner. The 1970 vintage has long been my absolute favorite from Mayacamas in the first decade of the Travers' era here (which hit the ground running with the outstanding 1968!), though perhaps one day the 1978 will be able to catch up with this celestial wine. Today, the 1970 Mayacamas cabernet is at its absolute zenith and drinking with stunning complexity, offering up a pure and precise bouquet of black cherries, cassis, petroleum jelly, Cuban cigar wrapper, a touch of eucalyptus, complex soil tones and a topnote of chipotle peppers. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, complex and perfectly balanced, with great depth of fruit at the core, superb soil signature, lovely acids and grip and just a whisper of remaining tannin on the very, very long, suave and à point finish. While this wine is at its apogee today, it is still perfectly balanced and structured and has many decades still ahead of it. This is a legend at the peak of its powers; drinking it now is kind of like watching Babe Ruth hit his sixtieth homerun from the front row." (98pts JG)

RIDGE VINEYARDS: AN ENDURING CALIFORNIA ICON

“When it comes to Ridge Vineyards it is easy to get carried away. For as long as I have been involved in wine, Ridge has been very special. For nearly 50 years I have been buying, drinking, and cellaring Ridge wines. I drink them often and have more Ridge wines in my cellar than any other wine. That pretty well sums it up.” – John Tilson; The Underground Wineletter

“In fact, early on in 1970, the late English wine writer, Harry Waugh, a former director of Chateau Latour, visited Ridge and, on tasting the 1959 Monte Bello, called Ridge “the Chateau Latour of California.” – John Tilson, The Underground Wineletter

Ridge Vineyards, although founded in the early 1960s, has a rich history that dates back to the 1800s. In 1885, Osea Perrone, a physician and prominent figure in San Francisco’s Italian community, acquired 180 acres near the top of Monte Bello Ridge in the Santa Cruz Mountains. By 1886, he had planted vineyards, terraced the slopes, and constructed a winery, launching the first vintage under the Monte Bello Winery name by 1892. This unique winery, constructed of native limestone and built into the mountainside on three levels, is Ridge’s production facility.

The vineyard’s high elevation, at 2,600 feet, provides unique growing conditions that contribute to the distinctive character of Ridge wines. Initially, Perrone planted varietals such as Zinfandel, which has since become a signature grape for the winery. After a period of abandonment, the winery was purchased in the 1940s by William Short, who replanted several parcels with Cabernet Sauvignon, creating what is now known as Torre Ranch on the middle slope of the vineyard. In 1962, three engineers from the Stanford Research Institute revived the winery and produced their first commercial vintage from these Cabernet vines.

A pivotal moment for Ridge came in 1969 when Paul Draper was appointed as the winemaker. His 1971 Cabernet Sauvignon achieved remarkable acclaim, ranking fifth in the legendary Judgment of Paris tasting in 1976, outperforming prestigious wines such as Château Leoville Las Cases. This recognition put Ridge on the global wine map, a status reaffirmed when the same wine took first place in a re-tasting of the original lineup in 2006. This not only established Ridge’s reputation but also highlighted the potential of California wines to compete with French classics on the world stage.

Today, Ridge Vineyards remains one of the few enduring California wine businesses from the 19th century, with a legacy steeped in history and a reputation for consistently turning out high quality wines. These are remarkable wines that should be in every serious wine cellar and collection.

"What a wine! Served out of magnum, I lacked the energy at the end of this tasting for detailed notes, but it was one of the best older California Cabernets I have ever had! Awesome, and still a young, big finish! A fantastic finale to the vertical, which led me to believe that I was a little hard on some of the others, but better to under-rate than over-rate, no? I guess I can be a tough grader, sometimes!" (97+pts JK)

"The 1976 Monte Bello is simply extraordinary, not to mention a superb example of 1970's California Cabernet Sauvignon. Nineteen seventy six was a drought year, and that very much comes through in the wine's ripeness and overall density, even after all these years. A wine of superb aromatic intensity and striking inner sweetness, the 1976 has it all. Scents of mint, licorice, tobacco and savory herbs add nuance throughout, but as is so often the case with older Monte Bellos, the whole is far greater than the sum of its parts. What a wine!" "While this wine is not as reserved and tight as most 8-year old Ridge Cabernets, it still needs another 5-10 years of cellaring. It should prove to be a 30-year wine. The color is dark ruby with no signs of age. With airing the reticent nose reveals attractive floral, mineral, and blackcurrant aromas. This full-bodied, powerful, structured wine has high tannins and ample evidence of rich, gamey fruit." (95pts)

"Along with the Dunn Howell Mountain and Chateau Montelena 1985s, Ridge's Monte Bello is among the most backward wines of the vintage, but it is so promising. I do not intend to touch another bottle before 2005 - it is still that youthful and closed. It offers a good education in what great young wine is all about. The beautiful ruby/purple color exhibits no signs of age. The sweet nose of cassis fruit, lead pencil, flowers, and minerals is followed by a full-bodied, opulent wine with a boatload of tannin. This huge, massive yet well-delineated and focused wine should prove to be uncommonly long-lived." (94pts)

"The 1988 Monte Bello is a pretty wine that has aged well, but that is also now fully mature. Smoke, leather, licorice, game and herbs are laced with savory inflections from the mostly cold year and a good deal of Cabernet Sauvignon character. "When I tasted this wine early in its life I felt it had outstanding potential. With another year of cellaring it has gained considerable weight. It now looks to be one of the greatest examples of Monte Bello Cabernet Sauvignon Ridge has produced. Only 40% of the crop made it into the final blend, which consists of 75% Cabernet Sauvignon, 11% Merlot, 10% Petit Verdot, and 4% Cabernet Franc. The wine offers a black/purple color, a profound nose of minerals, cassis, licorice, and spices, spectacular richness, and a great mid-palate that boasts layers of fruit. Admirable purity, fine underlying acidity, and considerable sweet, ripe tannin make this another compelling effort." (94-97pts)

928 Ridge Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 1996*Monte Bello*

"The 1996 Cabernet Sauvignon Monte Bello (80% Cabernet Sauvignon, 11% Merlot, and 9% Petit Verdot that reached 13.4% alcohol) represents a severe selection of only 40% of the vineyard's crop. A blockbuster, powerful, concentrated Monte Bello, it possesses an opaque purple color, plenty of spicy oak in the nose (100% American oak has always been used for aging Monte Bello), and a deep, layered, concentrated style. There is plenty of tannin, but it is sweeter than that found in the 1997, and the wine is more concentrated and extracted. There is a touch of oak in the flavors, which are otherwise dominated by minerals and jammy black fruits." (95pts)

953 Ridge Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2010*Monte Bello*

"The 2010 Monte Bello is just as stunning as it has always been. Today, the 2010 appears to be entering a closed phase, so it is best left alone for at least another 5-10 years, perhaps longer. The signatures are super-ripe, exotic fruit, sweet aromatics and firm tannins, all of which ensure the 2010 will be utterly magnificent in a few decades. The growing season was characterized by mostly cold weather, with an unexpectedly intense heat spike in mid-October that gave the fruit a final push. One of the things that makes this vintage so compelling is the interplay of firm structural elements from the cold year and a high level of ripeness that was achieved late. In my view, the 2010 is one of the most thrilling recent Monte Bellos, however it won't be ready to drink for a number of years and it won't peak for quite some time beyond that."(97+pts VM)

954 Ridge Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2011*Monte Bello*

"Ridge's 2011 Monte Bello shows beautifully, even next to some of the more important vintages that are part of this vertical. Dark red cherry, plum, smoke, spices and graphite form an attractive core of flavors and textures. The 2011 is a bit slender and likely to mature earlier than some of the more structured vintages, but that only contributes to its near and medium-term accessibility. Hints of sage, lavender and black fruits add the final shades of nuance. This is one of the better showings of the 2011 from bottle."(94pts VM)

Ron quickly told me how '78 and '72 are also sleeper Granges of the Seventies. I was quite impressed by its nose. Aromas of primary cola, black cherry and classic Grange menthol/eucalyptus with secondary bacon and earth, the '77 had a gorgeous sweetness to it and a confectioners' edge in its nose. There were great, beefy flavors on its oily, balanced, thick and long palate with lots of alcohol, spice and mint blending in. FROM SWITZERLAND WITH LOVE

I fell in love with Switzerland ever since my first visit to the country decades ago when I visited the amazing cellar of Wolfgang Grunewald for the first time. There is nothing quite like its unique combination of spectacular mountains and lakes...and there also is one heck of a wine culture! My love affair with Switzerland and wines there continue with a cellar that is like a Swiss bank vault of its finest wines. Overlooking one of the aforementioned country's special mountain lakes, this collector shared with me a glorious 1959 Latour and 1999 Ramonet Batard from his cellar. They were both fresh as a daisy, perfect examples on the inside of what great aged wine is all about.

I am excited to report that my visit resulted in something more, the first of hopefully many offerings from this impressive collection! The wine love truly keeps giving with one hundred and forty selections from this magnificent cellar with Bordeaux from 1950s to present day, Rousseau with Vogue and Dujac as well as splendid White Burgundy, Keller Assortments, and Italian masters!

Outstanding 1959s from Ausone, Figeac, Haut Brion, Latour and Leoville Barton lead the way for modern master 2000s from Cheval Blanc, La Mission and Latour. There are fourteen fabulous selections of Rousseau highlighted by 1991 Chambertin and its Beze, rolling out the Red Burgundy red carpet for 1999s from Vogue Musigny, Dujac Clos de la Roche and Ponsot Clos de la Roche topped by a 2015 Faiveley Musigny! White Burgundy elegantly unfurls 2013 DRC Montrachet and 1990 Leflaive Chevalier before setting us up for three cases of 2005 Raveneau Butteaux. 2018 and 2019 Keller Assortments takes us from Germany to Italy where we find seven lots of Giacosa including several Riservas as well as a trio of Giuseppe Rinaldi backed by a quartet of Vietti!!!!

This collection has been removed from ideal, professional storage in Switzerland, just like money in the bank! Take note of this special collection!

Pomerol

2bn, 2ts, 2vhs, 4bsl, 4tal, 2stl, 1tl

"Tasted at the Latour-à-Pomerol vertical in London. The 1982 Latour-à-Pomerol has been a great wine for many years and this might well be the best that I have ever encountered. It has an exceptional bouquet that here is surprisingly youthful. It comes armed with black fruit, bay leaf, cedar and gravel, almost Left Bank in character. Further investigation yields an intriguing marine-like, seaweed scent that expands upon its engaging personality. The palate is medium-bodied with wonderful balance and fine tannin. It has melted a little since my last encounter, softened around the edges and yet there remains that core of intense black fruit and kirsch that will ensure that it continues to age for many years. The Moueix team made several immense wines in 1982 and this is one of them. Tasted December 2015." (95pts)

1054 Chambertin - Vintage 1991*Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseaulsl*

"Even the redoubtable Jetski couldn't deny that the 1991 Rousseau Chambertin Clos de Bèze was 'f'ing good.' He was right about that! The 1991 Rousseau was deeply complex and still ascending. Rich, ripe and sexy, it was full of loads of red cherry and great spice. This wine put the pedal to the metal; it was so decadent and sumptuous. 1066 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2010*Vieilles Vignes, C. Tremblay"An exuberantly spicy nose of both red and black cherry liqueur aromas leads to suave and silky medium-bodied flavors that are blessed with plenty of sappy dry extract that coats the mouth." (89-91pts BH)*

12 bottles per lot $4000-6000

1067 Clos Vougeot - Vintage 2019*Hommage a Jean Morin, Vieilles Vignes,Château de la Tour1x6 bottle owc"More interesting are the rich, dense and imposingly scaled flavors that brim with sappy dry extract that again serves to buffer the slightly firmer tannins shaping the hugely long finale." (97pts BH)*

6 bottles per lot $3000-4000

1068 Musigny - Vintage 1999*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue2x6 bottle owc's"...wonderfully complex aromas of a simply incredible array of black fruits, earth, spice, crushed herbs and notes of chocolate with flavors that are huge but fine, powerful but subtle and rich yet detailed with a stupendously long finish that offers intense minerality. This is genuinely stunning juice and not to be missed if you have the chance." (96pts BH)*

12 bottles per lot $8000-11000

1069 Échézeaux - Vintage 2008*Comte Liger-Belair"...presents a compelling dynamic of push and pull between all of the elements that are alive in the glass. Floral, savory aromatics meld into a core of intensely perfumed, powerful fruit, all supported by veins of underlying salinity that add cut. A deep, dense, powerful wine, the 2008 Échézeaux is utterly sublime in so many ways. This is another drop-dead gorgeous beauty from Louis-Michel Liger-Belair." (95pts VM)*

3 bottles per lot $4000-6000

1070 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2015*Les Jachees, Domaine Bizot1x1 magnum owc"This is arguably the most floral-inflected wine in the range with its notes of violet, lavender and rose petal that add breadth and elegance to the dark cherry and red currant scents that are trimmed in just enough wood to mention. There is a wonderfully seductive texture to the sappy, caressing and delicious medium-bodied flavors that possess excellent length on the dusty, balanced and complex finale. Another quality Vosne villages that is worth considering." (89-91pts BH)*

1 magnum per lot $3500-5000

1071 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 1999*Domaine de la Romanée Conti"The 1999 Romanée-St-Vivant initially has its nose put out of joint by the precocious 1999 Échézeaux, but allowing the wine to unfold over 30 to 40 minutes, it shows its true breeding. Returning after ten minutes, the nose positively explodes from the glass with a sorbet-like purity hints of wild strawberry, cassis and a little blueberry a piercing intensity that is wondrous to behold. The palate is medium-bodied and does not have the volume of the 1999 Échézeaux, but there is superior clarity and focus, the tannins clearly fine and the finish shimmering with tension and femininity. This is just a beautiful wine that will only get better. Drink 2016-2030." (96pts)*

1072 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1999*Dujac2-3.25cm bc, 4lstl"Absolutely stunned on this evening. It was a throw-in after a flight of 1993s, including another Dujac, a Rousseau and a Roumier. And it was the best of them all. There was so much fruit, it felt almost like chewing gum. Sweet purple flavors cascaded over my palate. I could not stop drinking it. This catnip of a wine had me frolicking and feeling great." (98pts JK)*

1073 Chambertin - Vintage 2019*Clos de Bèze, Duroche1x1 bottle owc"This high density planting, which dates back to 1920 has yielded 4 barrels. Classical imperial purple. The bouquet is wonderfully deep and harmonious, this is so perfectly proportioned on the palate, with a little lick of oak, which is entirely in place, a light, but fresh acidity, a sense of harmony throughout and a deepening of the fruit on the second half of the palate which brings it to a glorious conclusion." (97-99pts Jasper Morris)*

1 bottle per lot $800-1100

1074 Chambertin - Vintage 2019*Duroche1x1 magnum owc"It has a really entrancing bouquet that soars from the glass, offering pure red cherries, crushed strawberry, minerals and rose petals. The palate is medium-bodied with supple, filigreed tannins. There is an unerring symmetry about this Chambertin, which is one of the best you will find in 2019. The persistence is astounding, though that is partially driven by the new wood. This will be fascinating to taste in bottle." (96+pts VM)*

"...has a beautifully defined bouquet, very pure and precise with wild strawberry, limestone, rose petal and a touch of blood orange. You miss a heartbeat just nosing this wine. The palate is precise, refined and very pure, a silver bead of acidity, so much energy on the finish as it fans out in graceful fashion. There is incredible persistence here, a brilliant Cros Parantoux with which Uncle Henri would have been proud." (95-97pts)

1078 Musigny - Vintage 2015*Faiveley1x1 magnum owc*

"Generous wood frames an elegant, pure, airy and sophisticated nose that consists of essence of black cherry, spice and floral aromas. There is an almost pungent minerality on the detailed, sappy and powerful big-bodied flavors that possess a wonderfully appealing texture on the wonderfully long and slightly warm finale. This is impressive but it's exceptionally ripe, indeed to the point where there isn't quite the same vivacity compared to the other grands crus in the range." (93-96pts BH)

1083 Richebourg - Vintage 2017*Hudelot-Noellat1x1 Jeroboam owc*

"The 2017 Richebourg Grand Cru has a beautiful bouquet, very succinct and understated for a Richebourg and oh so precise. The palate is medium-bodied with strict tannin, a pinch of black pepper and bay leaf, and much more vibrant toward the finely structured finish. This is masculine and introspective, a Richebourg that will require considerable aging. At least at this stage, I feel the Romanée-Saint-Vivant has more charm and complexity." (93-95pts VM)

"This was a magical bottle of the 1999 Clos de la Roche Grand Cru Cuvée Vieilles Vignes, a wine that's just beginning to hit its stride as it approaches its 20th birthday, unfurling in the glass with aromas of red berries, cassis, dark chocolate, cinnamon, dried rose petals and orange rind. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and immensely concentrated, with a broad attack, lovely acids and a formidable reserve of creamy old-vine fruit, structured around a chalky chassis of tannin that evokes the great old Burgundies of yesteryear. Concluding with a long and expansive finish, this is still a young wine, and another two decades of aging won't be a problem. But it's now clear that this ranks as one of Ponsot's greatest recent hits and one of the high points of this reputed vintage."

"The 2016 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Malconsorts was showing a little more reduction on the nose compared to the other cuvées. Underneath though, lies intense and quite voluminous red berry fruit, later rose petals, a touch of woodland coming through. The palate is medium-bodied with quite high-toned entry, vivacious blueberry fruit mixed with cassis and orange pith, then closing in quickly on a structure and grippy finish (it finished its malolactic not until September so this would explain this). It will require several years in bottle. It is not quite as audacious as the 2015 Malconsorts, but certainly a prince to that king." (94-96pts)

1109 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 1990*Domaine Leflaive2sdc, 1x12 bottle ocb*

"While I entertained higher expectations of the 1989, it was in fact the 1990 Chevalier-Montrachet Grand Cru that emerged as the wine of the tasting, blossoming in the glass with a complex bouquet of confit lemon, orange rind, dried white flowers, pastry cream, warm bread and vanilla pod. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, satiny textured and enveloping, with broad shoulders, a lively spine of acidity and superb amplitude and concentration, concluding with a long, penetrating finish. Powerful and strikingly complete, this is a Chevalier that more than nods to Montrachet in style. But by the numbers alone, it was cropped at 57 hectoliters per hectare and finished up with 14.1% alcohol and pH 3.23. This is by some margin the finest bottle of Leflaive's 1990 Chevalier-Montrachet that I've encountered."(98pts)

On the palate, the wine is full-bodied deep and concentrated, with a broad-shouldered, layered core that's liberally endowed with chewy extract, yet a sense of elegance and purity that marks this out as one of the finest renditions of Bâtard-Montrachet to be found along the Côte."(94-96pts)

"Bright light-medium yellow. Very sexy, quintessential Chevalier nose of citrus fruits and white peach, crushed rock and ginger, plus an element of smoky oak. A wonderfully glyceric wine with a powerful salty impression of extract and strong supporting acidity. Finishes chewy and very long, but without any excess weight. Juicy lemon cut gives this wine a distinctly crystalline quality. A classic Chevalier-Montrachet in the making. This and the Bâtard are in 100% new oak, while the Pucelles, Clos de la Mouchère and Combettes are around 50%, but Boillot notes that the larger (350-liter) format of his barrels is very important."(93-96pts VM)

1137 Barolo - Vintage 2004*Falsetto di Serralunga, B. Giacosa1x6 bottle owc"It is every bit that compelling. Intensely perfumed yet also towering in stature, the 2004 is simply magnificent. The main difference between the white label and red label is finesse in the tannin, which is a bit less polished here. But that is only because there is a comparison. Taken on its own, the Falsetto is one of the very finest wines of the vintage. Elegance meets power. With a little advance aeration, the 2004 can be enjoyed young, but it is frankly best left alone for another few years, especially for readers who only own a few bottles."(97pts VM)*

"The 1996 Barolo Falletto de Serralunga (Red Label Riserva) possesses extraordinary presence and stature. Dark garnet/ruby-colored, it offers a tight but promising nose of road tar, scorched earth, truffles, blackberries, cherries, and espresso. This muscular, massive wine gave me chills. It is an exquisite, virtually perfect Barolo that requires a decade of cellaring, and should last for 30-40 years. I remember wishing I were twenty years younger when I tasted it prior to bottling ... I still feel the same way. Awesome!" (98pts)

"This red label Riserva was made in 2012 and 2014 and will be released in 2016 and 2017. Bruna Giacosa and her team skipped over 2013 and 2015. However, the current release is the 2014 Barolo Riserva Falletto Vigna Le Rocche, and well, there's a lot to take in. Simply put, this is a beautiful wine that unfolds slowly with amazing intensity and complexity, delivering delicate notes of violets and candied orange peel that cede softly to darker tones of licorice, dried blackberry and savory spice. Give the wine the time it needs to open in the glass. This vintage flaunts its most elegant side, with fine tannins and soft fruity fiber that remains everlasting and pure. This estate is known for taking its biggest chances in the so-called off vintages. Betting on 2014 has turned out to be a brilliant-ly contemplated move." (97pts)

"The 1985 Barolo from Cantina Mascarello (magnum) offered the best qualities of well-stored bottles from this important vintage. 1141A Barolo - Vintage 2001*Brunate Le Coste, G. Rinaldi2wrvl, 1nl*

"The 2001 Barolo Riserva Selezionata Brunate is the only wine on this night that is not everything it should be. A bit of funk never really blows off, and although the 2001 has good depth, there is just something missing. As it turns out, I tasted another magnum the very next day, and that is the review readers will find in the database. The better magnum reveals an explosive Barolo with layers of balsamic-infused nuances wrapped around a core of dark fruit. Explosive, resonant and super-expressive, the 2001 is fabulous." (97pts VM)

DIRECT FROM THE CELLARS OF DOMAINE THIRIET

Founded in 2016 by Camille Thiriet, Domaine Thiriet has quickly established itself as a rising star in Burgundy. Camille began crafting her wines in a small garage behind her family's Château de Comblanchien in the Côte de Nuits, sourcing her first grapes from Nicolas Potel while working alongside her future husband, Matt Chittick, at Domaine de Bellene. In 2022, the couple expanded their Domaine with the acquisition of 4.5 hectares of vineyards in Corgoloin. Today, they farm 6 hectares, bottling individual parcels that beautifully showcase the diverse terroirs.

Camille has been mentored by some of Burgundy's most respected figures, including Bernard Noblet (formerly of DRC), Didier Fornerol, and Jeremy Seysses. Her experience also extends to time at Domaine de la Côte in California, while Matt has worked at Domaine de Villaine. Her winemaking philosophy centers on organic farming and traditional methods. She uses a combination of horses and tractors to tend the vineyards, and every step—from grape crushing to bottling—is done by hand. This meticulous process results in wines known for their perfume, elegance, and delicate expression, each deeply connected to its place of origin. Despite the growing reputation of the Domaine, Camille continues to produce wines in the micro-winery behind Château de Comblanchien.

Hailed by esteemed critics including Jancis Robinson and Jasper Morris, Camille Thiriet's wines are rapidly gaining international acclaim. As Noble Rot notes, "the quality and desirability of her wines continue to skyrocket, making each vintage increasingly rare."

We are honored to present a selection direct from Domaine Thiriet, including Clos Vougeot, Clos Vougeot Cuvée Initiale, Côte de Nuits-Villages Clos Magny, La Montagne, La Robignotte, Les Retraits, and Bourgogne Rouge & Blanc. Additionally, an exclusive experience lot featuring a day in the vineyards with Camille is also available! A portion of the proceeds from this offering will benefit the Nokota Challenge, a charity dedicated to raising awareness and support for the endangered Nokota horse breed—a cause close to Camille's heart. This initiative plays a vital role in preserving these horses, which hold significant historical and cultural importance.

EXPERIENCE LOT: UNVEIL THE MAGIC OF DOMAINE CAMILLE THIRIET

Take a deep breath and step into the heart of Burgundy with this exclusive opportunity to visit one of the region's most exciting new talents, Domaine Camille Thiriet.

A Rising Star in Burgundy & An Immersive Wine Journey

Your journey begins in the famed vineyards of Burgundy, where you and your guest will spend a day with Camille Thiriet, one of the most celebrated rising stars in the region. Camille will personally host you for a private tasting at her Domaine, followed by a tour of her vineyards and a delightful lunch among the vines.

You'll unwind with a two-night stay at the elegant Château de Comblanchien, nestled between Nuits-St-Georges and Beaune. Here, countryside charm and French sophistication meet in perfect harmony. You will have the chance to visit a nearby ranch to meet France's rare Nokota horses, known for their beauty and spirit—a passion of Camille's.

Optional Add-On: Hidden Treasures of the Loire Valley

For those wishing to extend their adventure, continue on to the picturesque Loire Valley. Spend a day at Blue Summer Ranch, home to the largest Nokota horse breeder in France. Enjoy a private tour, an intimate dinner with the ranch owner, and an overnight stay in their charming private cottage. The next morning, enjoy a French breakfast and explore one of the Loire Valley's most breathtaking châteaux, with the option to stay a second night in the cottage.

A Cause Close to the Heart

A portion of the proceeds from this experience will benefit the Nokota Challenge, a charitable initiative dedicated to the preservation of the endangered Nokota horses. This cause, dear to Camille Thiriet's heart, helps ensure the preservation of these creatures, which are of significant historical and cultural importance.

The Experience Includes for 2 Guests:

In Burgundy (2 nights):

- Private tasting at Domaine Thiriet, hosted by Camille Thiriet.
- Tour of the Domaine and lunch in the vineyards.

SELECT BORDEAUX AND RHONE FROM A SPECIAL COLLECTION

Almost every lot is a highlight here as 1959 Haut Brion and Latour dial up a trio of Le Pin vintages commencing with 1982, while the Rhone rocks 1983 Gentaz and five vintages of Chave Hermitage including 1990. Wow!!! Most wines predominantly bought upon release and all wines properly stored thanks to his special collection we have offered from before.

1178 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 1959

vhs, bsl, scc, excellent color and condition

"First up was 1959 Château Haut Brion, which had a spectacular nose of chocolate and tobacco. There was plenty of zip left in it with some band-aid, charcoal and gravel aromas to add complexity. I could sense how long the palate was before I tasted it, and it was terrific and sensual, full of chocolatey, creamy and tasty greatness. There was lots of gravel on the finish, and Hamburger found a particular freshness to it." (98pts JK)

1179 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 1961

Graves

2vhs, gsl, 1sdc, excellent color and condition

"One of the greatest 1961s, La Mission-Haut-Brion has been fabulous to drink for the last 5-10 years. Where well-stored, this wine will continue to drink well for 10-20 years. It is more developed and drinkable than the 1959, and it remains a thick, rich, super-aromatic wine with a textbook Graves bouquet of tobacco, barbecued meats, minerals, spices, and sweet red and black fruits. It is dense, full-bodied, alcoholic, and super-rich. This soft, opulently-textured wine makes for a fabulous drink. Absolutely stunning! Last tasted 10/94" (100pts)

"Probably not a perfect wine for the classicist, this flamboyant, exotic, lavishly rich, concentrated, low acid fruit bomb exhibits remarkable aromatic complexity (espresso roast, roasted herbs, caramel, chocolate, and oodles of sweet plum, fig, and berry fruit). It is very jammy and incredibly low in acidity, but it is still intact, and the dense plum/garnet color is just beginning to show some lightening at the edge...it is still going strong." (100pts)

1182 Château Le Pin - Vintage 1983

Pomerol

4ts, 4bsl, 2ll, 4cc, 3sdc, 2cuc

"...huge, soaring bouquet of smoky oak, spices, and sweet fruits. This splendidly opulent, voluptuously textured wine reveals the gorgeous sweetness and ripeness of fruit so much a hallmark of this estate low acidity, gobs of glycerin, superb extraction of fruit, and a sensational finish. It appeared lighter in its youth, with less aromatic and flavor dimension. Now that it has reached its plateau of maturity, it is one of my two or three favorite examples of this exotically styled, kinky wine." (98pts)

"For such a precocious vintage, the 1982 La Landonne remains a backward, beefy, smoky, chewy mouthful of tannic wine. It has thrown a huge amount of sediment, and the bottle is completely stained, as if it were a 15-year-old vintage port. The wine reveals an olive, earthy, licorice, mineral, smoked-meat nose, fabulous depth, and a huge, formidably endowed personality. It is a monstrous, super concentrated wine that should reach its apogee by the turn of the century. Anticipated maturity: 2000-2025. Last tasted 12/95." (95pts)

TOP RED AND WHITE BURGUNDY FROM A WORLD TRAVELER

These outstanding wines on the cusp of maturity come to us courtesy of a frequent consignor who has offered great Burgundy and noteworthy Italian selections in the past. An avid traveler, he developed his love of wine living in France over thirty years ago and diversified his taste as he moved later onto the London and New York wine scenes. He has bought the best of the best over the years in quantity and quality.

Seven lots of Dujac star starting with 2002 Bonnes Mares ARE followed by a quartet of Fourrier. Five fine lots of Roumier are capped by a rare bottle of 2000 Musigny, and there are five lots of Mugnier as well muscled by 1999, 2001 and 2006 Musigny. We conclude with a dash of White Burgundy dominated by Batard and Chevalier. Another delightful selection from this great collector! All wines removed from professional storage.

1193 Chambertin - Vintage 2002

Clos de Bèze, Bouchard, Pere et Fils

3lsc1

"...explodes from the glass with sweet, floral aromas of violets and cherries. Satin-textured and medium to full-bodied, it reveals layers of silky super-ripe red cherries in its harmonious, flavorful, extensive character." (94pts)

6 bottles

per lot $1200-1600

1194 Chambertin - Vintage 2005

Clos de Bèze, Bouchard, Pere et Fils

"Dark, bright red. Multidimensional, soil-driven nose features wild red berries, smoke, minerals, dried rose, mocha, underbrush and an exhilarating suggestion of white flowers. Like pure silk in the mouth but with pungent mineral lift giving this voluminous, extract-rich wine a nearly weightless impression. As fat, full and solid as this is, the overall impression is of finesse and perfume. Finishes with extraordinary mounting persistence and perfectly buffered, noble tannins." (97pts IWC)

1195 Clos de Tart - Vintage 2001

Domaine du Clos de Tart

Iscc, 1spc, 1x6 bottle owc

"The 2001 Clos de Tart is aging beautifully and is maturing into one of Sylvain Pitiot's finest wines. Replicating its performance in 2010, it has a very expressive bouquet of vivacious red berry fruit: wild strawberry and raspberry, laced with minerals and dried rose petals. The palate is very well-balanced and full of succulent brambly red fruit. Perhaps it is moving into its secondary phase less slowly than I anticipated, with nuanced undergrowth notes developing toward the finish, which remains very fruit-driven and tense. There is a sense of style and class to this Clos de Tart, a grand cru bound to age with those same attributes over the following decade and beyond. Drink now-2024+. Tasted January 2014." (94pts)

1196 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2002

Dujac

"Sumptuous scents of candied black cherries, licorice, sweet earth, and mocha can be discerned in the nose of the exceptional, medium ruby-colored 2002 Bonnes Mares. Profound waves of red fruits, ranging from jammy cherries to candied raspberries, slather the palate and remain in evidence for 40 seconds or more. This seamless, medium-bodied wine admirably juxtaposes power with elegance as well as super-ripeness with freshness and balance." (94pts)

1197 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2006

Dujac

Inl, 1x6 bottle ocb

"Sweetly ripe black raspberry, pungently bitter-sweet herbal concentrate (bay, fennel, and horehound), bud-dleia perfume, and wood smoke vie for attention in the aromatic display of Dujac's 2006 Bonnes Mares. It exhibits a sweetness and concentration of primary fruit one rarely encounters in this vintage, yet it tones down the savagery of the site in its textural refinement and the sense of harmoniously entwined threads of fruit, herb, floral, and carnal flavors in a long finish that still doesn't lack for the "sizzle" of berry skin, citrus zest, and herbal bitter-sweetness." (93pts)

6 bottles per lot $3500-5000

1198 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2006

Les Gruenchers, Dujac

1x6 bottle ocb

"A very Chambolle nose of high-toned raspberry and cherry aromas complements well the sweet, round and seductively textured flavors that possess excellent mid-palate concentration and outstanding depth on the punchy and palate staining finish. There is ample dry extract here and this should age very well as it's both balanced and blessed with impressive raw materials." (90-3pts BH)

1199 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2011

1200 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2002

Dujac

"This blew me away; after so many great and legendary wines, the '02 didn't blink. It was absolutely delicious, deep and sweet with purply and edgy fruit. There was a sprinkle of milk chocolate to this delicious wine. This was 2002 Burgundy at its best." (95pts JK)

1201 Clos St. Denis - Vintage 2006

Dujac

"The 2006 Clos St Denis from Domaine Dujac, tasted blind, is developing into one of the best wines in the Côte de Nuits apropos this inconsistent vintage. It comes at you with its vibrant raspberry fruit - no holding back here. There is a touch of glossiness at first and then this makes way for subtle game and leather scents (in fact, one fellow taster commented that it was just a little sweaty, but in a good way). The palate is underpinned by plenty of sweet red berry fruit, that gaminess continuing from the aromatics, erring just slightly towards a Côte-Rôtie-like finish. There is an opulence here, but it is not garish or vulgar. It's just a Clos Saint Denis self-aware of its quality and has nurtured a bit of...cockiness. This is well worth hunting down." (95pts)

3 bottles per lot $1600-2200

1202 Échézeaux - Vintage 2001

Dujac

"Utterly seductive black cherry fruit nose with abundant Vosne spice notes and big, rich, full, mouth coating flavors with a fine sense of minerality and super finishing intensity. This doesn't have the density and sap of the Clos de la Roche but this is a very impressive wine in its own right and is every bit as powerful." (92pts BH)

1204 Gevrey Chambertin - Vintage 2012

Clos St. Jacques, Vieilles Vignes, Fourrier

Invl, 1x3 bottle ocb

"Tasted blind at the annual "Burgfest" tasting in Beaune. The 2012 Gevrey Chambertin 1er Cru Clos St Jacques from Fourrier is showing the most stems on the nose, but it is so full of character with supreme delineation. The aromatics clearly need three or four years to fully coalesce. The palate is divine: supremely fine tannin, perfectly judged acidity, utterly harmonious with not a hair out of place on the finish. There is so much sophistication here that it does not know what to do with itself. This is the Clos Saint Jacques that is leading the pack - a quite brilliant wine from Jean-Marie Fourrier." (96pts)

1205 Gevrey Chambertin - Vintage 2005*Combe Aux Moines, Vieilles Vignes, Fourrier1x6 bottle ocb*

"The 2005 Gevrey-Chambertin Combe aux Moines smells of bouillon, game, spices, fresh red fruits and a hint of caramel. In the mouth, it offers texturally more refined and more roasted, rich variations on the meaty, mineral themes introduced by Fourrier's Les Goulots. For all of its ripeness and chalky, stony mineral density, and marrowy depth, this wine (like its siblings, hovering around a mere 13% alcohol) displays dynamism and lift." (92-93pts)

6 bottles per lot $1200-1600

1206 Griottes Chambertin - Vintage 2007*Vieilles Vignes, Fourrier1x6 bottle ocb*

"A restrained and if not backward, then at least relatively reticent nose of subtly spicy red berry and black cherry fruit trimmed in touches of wood, herb and smoke precedes solidly concentrated and powerful medium full-bodied and well-focused flavors underpinned by moderately firm tannins and plenty of underlying tension as you can really sense the energy here. A seriously lovely wine that has that Zen-like sense of harmony to it." (93pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $3000-4000

1207 Griottes Chambertin - Vintage 2011*Vieilles Vignes, Fourrier*

"...is blessed with a sublime bouquet of intense red currant, fresh strawberry and rose petal aromas that display exquisite delineation and positively blossoms in the glass. The palate has a satin-like entry underpinned by filigree tannins that render this Griotte feminine, elegant and graceful with fabulous focus." (95pts)

1208 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2008*G. Roumier1x6 bottle ocb*

1209 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2008*G. Roumier1x6 bottle ocb*

"...scented with fresh cherry, its pits, and red currant in a manner that presages its brightness and piquancy on the palate. Forest floor and clean meaty elements as well as hints of cinnamon and nutmeg emerge as this opens to the air, all nicely complimenting the wine's fresh fruit edge, as does its incipiently silken texture." (90pts)

1210 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2014*Les Cras, G. Roumier*

"There is more volume and certainly more punch to the overtly stony medium weight flavors that possess outstanding delineation before terminating in a youthfully austere, saline, focused and relatively powerful finish that offers impressive persistence." (93pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $3000-4000

1211 Morey St. Denis - Vintage 2014*Clos de la Bussiere, G. Roumier*

"This trades a bit of elegance in favor of more aromatic complexity on the cool and pure mix of red currant, earth and game that exhibits discreet floral top notes that are trimmed in discreet wood nuances. There is both fine volume and intensity to the punchy flavors that are more refined than usual thanks to the fine grain of the supporting tannins on the attractively well-balanced and persistent finish." (91pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $1600-2200

1212 Musigny - Vintage 2000*G. Roumier*

1215 Musigny - Vintage 1999*J.F. Mugnier1lnl*

"Mugnier's 1999 Musigny Grand Cru is still a very youthful wine, but a few hours' decant gives a more than adequate sense of its immense quality. A beautiful bouquet of raspberries, black cherry, cocoa powder, violets, peony and incipient notes of rich soil and cedar introduce a pure, full-bodied wine with pitch-perfect balance and a deep, spherical core of ripe tannin, juicy acidity and reserved concentration. This is not an especially flamboyant wine, but it's incredibly authoritative and sophisticated; and in another decade, it will be just irresistible." (96+pts)

1218 Échézeaux - Vintage 2005*Du Dessus, Mayer-Gilles*

"Gilles Mayer's 2005 Échézeaux du Dessus is so-labeled (with "du Dessus" in smaller print) to call attention to the prime portion of this too-large grand cru in which it originates. After the virtual attack mounted on the senses by this year's Les Damodes, we now have something a bit more sedate and sorted-out. A flamboyant aroma of black raspberry confiture, crème de cassis, coconut, clove, nutmeg, star anise and roasted meats leads to a clear, sweetly-fruited, smoke-tinged palate and a finish that reverberates with low-toned stony mineral notes and pure peals of gloriously ripe yet brightly ringing fruit. Two thousand five has been a year to witness some amazing successes from those portions of Échézeaux that nature designed for great Pinot potential, but the quality from Mayer-Gilles and his vines has seldom been less than outstanding year after year." "This is coming along quite well though interesting the gentle touch of wood this displayed upon release is still present on the ripe yet cool and pure red berry liqueur-suffused nose that is displaying only a hint of secondary development. The intense minerality this wine consistently reveals is very much in evidence and it continues onto the vibrant, refined, pure and beautifully detailed flavors that are underpinned by a velvety mouth feel, firm tannins and an explosive finish."(93pts BH)

1224 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2005*Aux Brûlées, Méo-Camuzet*

"A touch of wood influence combines with the superbly complex and remarkably primary deep black fruit nose that is positively kaleidoscopic in its range of spices that continue onto the super rich, even opulent flavors that ooze dry extract yet this tightens up instantly on the finish and becomes borderline austere. There is real muscle and punch here and while the nose is ultra refined, the flavor profile runs toward the robust. Incredibly impressive potential but this is clearly a wine for the patient."(95pts BH)

1225 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2009*Aux Brûlées, Méo-Camuzet*

"The 2009 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Brûlées from Méo-Camuzet is superb, offering up an alluring nose of sweet black fruit, exotic spices, rich soil and subtle espresso roast. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and expansive, with grand cru depth and dimension, its fine-grained tannins entirely enveloped in luscious dark fruit, its acids cool and controlled. The Aux Brûlées is routinely one of Jean-Nicolas Méo's finest wines, and the 2009 vintage is no exception."(94pts)

1226 Ruchottes Chambertin - Vintage 2011*Mugneret-Gibourg*

"Tasted blind at the Burgundy 2011 horizontal tasting in Beaune. Despite some reduction, there is clearly plenty of attractive ripe red berry fruit on the nose of Mugneret-Gibourg's Ruchottes-Chambertin 2011: cranberry, wild strawberry and touches of blueberry. The palate is less masculine and reserved compared to when I tasted it at the domaine at the end of 2013. Here it feels more velvety on the entry. It has a cashmere texture with well-judged acidity and superb structure. The fruit is darker than Christophe Roumier's Ruchottes, but there is very good weight and persistence on the finish that bodes well for the future."(95pts)

1227 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2007*Vieilles Vignes, Ponsot1x3 magnum owc*

"This was a superb showing for the 2007 Clos de la Roche Grand Cru Cuvée Vieilles Vignes, a brilliant wine that bursts from the glass with a complex and maturing bouquet of red cherries, caramelized orange rind, cinnamon, potpourri and sweet soil tones. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, textural and satiny, with a concentrated, layered core, tangy acids and a stunningly long, sapid finish. This has always been a brilliant wine that transcends the vintage, but new dimensions are becoming apparent as it enters its second decade. This was the last vintage bottled under natural cork chez Ponsot."(96pts)

1230 Batard Montrachet - Vintage 1999*Domaine Leflaive2spc, Issos, 5cc*

"The 1999 Bâtard Montrachet Grand Cru from Domaine Leflaive is blessed with a stunning gunflint nose that soars from the glass. It is supremely well controlled and actually shows up the 1999 Chevalier-Montrachet tasted alongside. The palate is rich in the glass with light honeyed tones intermingling with lime, marzipan and citrus lemon. As you would expect, there is superb mineralité locked into this wine, though it is expressed more aromatically than on the palate. Still, it is a deeply impressive wine and it should continue to give pleasure over the next decade at least."(94pts)

"A strikingly complex nose that is even more complex than that of the Bâtard as there is a great breadth of aromas to the ripe, pure and airy nose of white flower, spice and subtle pear aromas that complement to perfection the rich and mouth coating flavors built on a base of fine minerality, all wrapped in a sappy and mouth coating finish that oozes dry extract. This is really a lovely effort that is almost as powerful as the Bâtard but as one would expect, finer and even a bit longer with an almost painfully intense backend. A very impressive effort that is positively Zen-like in its poise and quiet sense of harmony."(96pts BH)

HENRI JAYER: THE GRAND DEAN OF BURGUNDY

This exceptional collection of more than forty selections of legendary Henri Mayer comes to us courtesy of a passionate collector who fell head over heels for these wines and who could blame him? One cannot overstate the importance of Henri Mayer and his wines on the golden era of Burgundy that we now enjoy. Emmanuel Rouget, Meo-Camuzet, Fourrier and Comte Liger-Belair were directly influenced by him and many other producers indirectly. Personally, I owe many fantastic wine experiences tasting Henri Mayer wines with the likes of Wilf Jaeger, Wolfgang Grunewald and of course his US importer Martine Saunier. Below are incisive excerpts of our interview with the legendary Martine, when we auctioned her incredible cellar including accordingly an amazing expanse of Henri Mayer wines:

Henri was a great man first and foremost. You meet many people in your life, but only a few really make a deep impact on you. Henri was such a guy. I remember a dinner at a great San Francisco restaurant where Mayer was visiting us, and he wanted to show the 1977 Richebourg. I could not say no, but the sommeliers were anxious. This was supposed to be a tough sell, but after all the sommeliers and restaurateurs tasted these light-bodied, yet suave wines, they were just sold on them. Not many people were that into these Burgundian wines back in those days, but Mayer definitely made a difference, even in those very weak vintages, and he became known for that. Henri made great wines every vintage. I never was disappointed. He was a master!

On the unique relationship of Henri Mayer with the special Cros Parantoux vineyard:

In 1945, Henri Mayer entered into a 10-year metayage (crop-sharing) contract with the Mme. Noirot-Camuzet. When that happened, his role was to care for the entire vineyards owned by the old lady and all her property. Henri got 50% of the fruit, which he labeled under his own name and sold mainly in barrel, and the other 50% went to Mme. Noirot-Camuzet. In 1951, Mayer himself was able to buy a small piece of Cros Parantoux, then a completely unknown and largely forsaken Vosne-Romanée vineyard, from a Monsieur Roblot. Then in 1953, old Mme. Noirot-Camuzet offered another small piece of the vineyard to Henri. Henri had now amassed around 45 ares (1.11 acres) of Cros Parantoux. Henri replanted his portion in 1956. In 1959 the old lady Noirot-Camuzet passed away, leaving her estate to her first cousin, Jean Meo, which is how Henri's relationship with the Meo-Camuzet family started. He made their wines for a long time. In 1970, the sister of Robert Arnoux sold Henri the last available piece of the vineyard. Henri now owned around 72 ares (1.77 acres) of Cros Parantoux. Meo-Camuzet retained around 29 ares (0.71 acres) of the vineyard. They were the only two owners of Cros Parantoux.

Regarding the intertwined history of Mayer and Echezeaux

OK, we have to go back to the story of Eugene Mayer, who bought a piece of the even-then famous Echezeaux vineyard just outside of the village of Vosne-Romanée. When he passed away, his three sons, Georges, Lucien and Henri inherited his piece of Echezeaux which was split into three parts. Lucien made a wine from his own rows, which later became the Mayer-Gilles holdings. Georges had no interest in viticulture, and therefore Henri was making the Mayer wine from Echezeaux out of 2/3 of the inherited rows. Every year Henri made only one Echezeaux wine from the entire parcel, and once it was bottled, as is required by law, he labelled part of the bottles with his brother's crest and part with his own. The wine inside the bottles was always the exact same wine, and there is no difference between bottles of Henri Mayer Echezeaux and Henri Mayer for Georges Mayer Echezeaux. The same is true for the Echezeaux made by Emmanuel Rouget for Georges. He is farming the same parcel and doing the exact same practice. One wine, one bottling, 2 different labels, always!

There are eleven lots of Mayer Echezeaux including 1971 and 1978 as well as super rare bottles of 1959 and 1985 Richebourg. We continue with fourteen selections of coveted Cros Parantoux highlighted by six bottles of 1996 as well as magnums of 1997, 1999 and 2001. We have tried multiple bottles from this collection, and all were delicious. This is a thrilling collection of Henri Mayer that will thrill anyone who gets to taste a bottle from it! All wines removed from professional storage.

It was one of those wines that stopped time, transporting anyone fortunate enough to taste a drop to a place where nothing else matters but pleasure. It was rich and heady like all great '59s and didn't suffer from any over-ripeness or stew that sometimes plagues 1959 in Burgundy. Its finish was endless, another indicator that time is no match for Henri Mayer. I only can hope to try this wine again, just once." (99pts JK)*

"Heady and wonderfully perfumed of largely primary fruit notes lead to quite dense and still completely fresh flavors of simply unbelievable depth and length. All the more remarkable is how fresh and young this remains with only hints of secondary notes to be found and the velvety finish goes on and on. I could taste this the next day and the ethereal nose is simply haunting and it's frankly difficult to really do justice to the sheer breadth of expression. A wine for the ages and one that should live 25 years, something very few '85s can aspire to. Consistent notes." (97pts BH)

"Ooh la la, ah oui oui. The 1999 Mayer Vosne Romanée Cros Parantoux redefined the word sexy. Martine hailed it as a wild beast,' and Gil observed, 'gunpowder and Chinese black oolong tea.' There was an ocean of fruit here; one had to swim through it to find structure on its shores. This was 1999 at its finest. The pitch was insane, shattering my nose as if it was meant to be an ear drum, and its perfume lingered like memories of a perfect home-cooked meal from Mom. While adolescent, its creamy, purple fruit said it was ready for the draft, and its nose was described as fireworks,' a chameleon,' and spearmint.' Thierry hailed it as brighter, better and fresher' than the great 1990, a bold statement, indeed. Its flavors were dessert-y without being sweet decadent, exotic, hedonistic, take your pick. Gil observed, 'caramel Crème brulee,' and beef and citrus tried to join the party. This wine was bordering on pornographic, and we were all...in awe :)."(98pts JK)

SOUGHT AFTER BURGUNDIES FEATURING DUJAC, ROUMIER AND ROULOT

These forty, cutting-edge sections come to us courtesy of a conscientious collector and successful businessman who shares with us twelve bottles each of 2018 Rousseau Chambertin and Clos de Beze. There are nine lots of Dujac led by 2009 Bonnes Mares topped by ten lots of Roumier beginning with a trio of 2017 six-packs! We dream of White Burgundy as a quartet of Raveau revs us up for seven selections of Roulot. These are a few of my favorite things! All wines removed from professional storage.

1275 Chambertin - Vintage 2018

A. Rousseau

2x6 bottle ocb's

"There is barely enough wood to mention on the wonderfully fresh and airy aromas of red cherry, pomegranate, earth and a hint of the sauvage. The seductively textured yet well-delineated big-bodied flavors possess an abundance of energy on the intensely mineral-inflected, sappy and impeccably well-balanced finale that reflects a touch of youthful austerity." (97pts BH)

1276 Chambertin - Vintage 2018

Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau

2x6 bottle ocb's

"Slightly more evident, though still quite subtle, wood frames the even spicier aromas of liqueur-like red and dark berry fruit, plum, anise, earth and lilac nuances. Here too there is a relatively supple mid-palate mouthfeel to the slightly finer broad-shouldered flavors that possess a gorgeous texture, all wrapped in a classy, sophisticated, stony, powerful and hugely long finish." 1277 Clos Vougeot - Vintage 2012

"Relatively heavy reduction renders the nose unreadable. There is excellent richness, size, weight and power to the medium weight plus flavors that brim with mouth coating dry extract that buffers well the firm tannic spine on the strikingly long finish. This is austere but not really rustic and should amply reward mid to long-term cellaring." (92-94pts BH)

6 bottles

1278 La Romanée - Vintage 1999

Bouchard, Pere et Fils

1lbsl, 2sdc, 1x6 bottle owc

"Very deep, almost black ruby color. There is a healthy dose of new wood but there is absolutely no doubt that this wine has sufficient density to absorb it. The intensity of this wine is dialed way up with thick, super ripe aromas of black berries, oriental spices, tea, leather and a trace of underbrush coupled with extremely dense, extract of pinot noir flavors and fine, dusty tannins that create a massively structured wine..." 1279 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2009

Dujac

"A remarkably fresh and expressive nose displays heightened red berry fruit, earth and mineral aromas that give way to firm, serious and equally mineral-driven big-bodied flavors that offer excellent verve on the well-muscled and especially structured finish that seems to go on without end. This positively dazzling effort is not quite old school in basic character though it knocks on the door of it and like several of these grands crus, will need 15 to 20+ years to reach its full prime." 1281 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2013

Dujac

"Tasted blind at the Burgfest tasting in Beaune, Domaine Dujac's 2013 Clos de la Roche Grand Cru has a more backward and reticent nose than that of Bichot's, but it is well defined with clever use of stems, wonderful mineralité and poise while translating the essence of the vineyard. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, well judged acidity, clean and pure with superb balance on the harmonious finish that has just a little hardness at the moment. It's a proper "sit and wait" Grand Cru, but both the sitting and waiting will be worth it. Tasted September 2016." (94pts)

"The 2018 Romanée-Saint-Vivant Grand Cru, matured in 50% new oak like all the domaine's grand crus, has a tightly wound bouquet of black cherries, raspberry coulis and touches of bergamot tea and briar. Lovely definition, but bashful at this early stage. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannins, a fine bead of acidity and a smooth texture. THE INCREDIBLE COLLECTION OF
A PASSIONATE LIFELONG WINE LOVER AND TECH WIZARD

Nearly one hundred splendid selections comprising of Bordeaux 1950 to 2000, First Growth with Right Bank power and a treasure trove of Domaine de la Romanee Conti among others come to us courtesy of technology genius who has been collecting for five decades!!!! His love for wine began right after college, when he began tasting the best wines he could afford, as well as reading as much as could about wines from all around the world. After exploring California and its wineries in person, he began doing the same in Europe by visiting France and Italy as well as leveraging his expertise in technology to research the best practices in the process of buying, storing, producing and tasting wines. He was always trying to purchase as close to the source as possible; in addition, he ultimately made his own wines! Ever gracious and generous, he belongs to several tasting groups and hopes the lucky buyers of these beautiful wines enjoy them!

1955s from Cheval Blanc, Haut Brion, Lafite and Latour roar into 1982s from La Mission, Lafite, Latour, Margaux and Petrus! The Right Bank has the Right Stuff with several vintages of Lafleur setting us up for a Jeroboam of 1990 Le Pin!! Rare 1985 and 1990 Rousseau Clos de Beze set the stage for our main act, Domaine de la Romanee Conti! And indeed, DRC hits blackjack with 21 lots with a mighty Methuselah of 2000 Echezeaux lighting the way for six lots of La Tache back to 1978, including an original wood six-pack of the amazing 1990 as well as 1999 and 2000 Romanee Conti itself!! Don't forget about the three bottles of 1996 Henri Mayer Cros Parantoux; more Mayer is always a good thing! We diversify with some Guigal La Las as well as six lots of Unico starting with 1970. All wines kept in ideal, climate-controlled storage.

1315 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1955

St. Emilion

vhs, bsl, sdc, excellent color

"The wine was incredibly kinky and exotic in the nose; Wendy immediately noted Pina Colada, and Ray found it more coconuts and cream, splitting a hair into two. It definitely had this amazing suntan lotion quality, and Rob was admiring how pure and laser-like the wine was. Wendy noted some licorice, and Ray was being his usual self, calling it more anise. There was no doubting its exotic aromas that were bordering on tropical in a candle wax and Mounds (chocolate and coconut) way. Rob noted big banana 94 Colgin-ish, and while I saw what he was saying, the Cheval had more earth, barn and bread than the usual 1994 Colgin, although perhaps in forty years that Colgin will be the same! The flavors were chocolate, bread, earthy and slaty, and Mike noted marzipan and took my Mounds and Almond Joyed me back. Rob got slightly critical and found it dessert wine-like, a la Chambers Tokay. The wine was kinky, exotic and outstanding." (95pts JK)

1319 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1998*St. Emilion1l stl*

"The 1998 Cheval Blanc, a blend of 65% Merlot and 35% Cabernet Franc, is deep garnet-brick in color and absolutely explodes with scents of exotic spices, incense, dried roses, cigar box and licorice, with a core of Crème de cassis and dried cherries plus touches of black tea and dusty earth. Medium to full-bodied, it fills the mouth with rich, plushly textured fruit and then POW it hits the mid-palate with an explosion of Chinese five spice and floral perfume sparks, leading to an epically long finish. This cannot fail to impress and can easily cellar for another 30 years or more."(100pts)

"The 1961 is among the greatest mature wines of Gruaud-Larose I have drunk. This powerful, rich, densely concentrated wine remains young, fresh, and vigorous, with a full decade of life ahead. It continues to exhibit a dark garnet color with some amber, a wonderfully fragrant quality (plus, minerals, tar, cedar, soy sauce, and licorice), a viscous texture, sensation depth of fruit, and a fabulous, albeit alcoholic finish. This is claret at its most decadent."(96pts)

"First up was 1959 Château Haut Brion, which had a spectacular nose of chocolate and tobacco. There was plenty of zip left in it with some band-aid, charcoal and gravel aromas to add complexity. I could sense how long the palate was before I tasted it, and it was terrific and sensual, full of chocolatey, creamy and tasty greatness. There was lots of gravel on the finish, and Hamburger found a particular freshness to it."(98pts JK)

"One of the greatest 1961s, La Mission-Haut-Brion has been fabulous to drink for the last 5-10 years. Where well-stored, this wine will continue to drink well for 10-20 years. It is more developed and drinkable than the 1959, and it remains a thick, rich, super-aromatic wine with a textbook Graves bouquet of tobacco, barbecued meats, minerals, spices, and sweet red and black fruits. It is dense, full-bodied, alcoholic, and super-rich. This soft, opulently-textured wine makes for a fabulous drink. Absolutely stunning! Last tasted 10/94"(100pts)

"I am certainly not going to argue with anyone who believes La Mission-Haut-Brion's 1989 is every bit as profound as the 1989 Haut-Brion. It is a spectacular wine, and as it ages in the bottle, it is quickly becoming one of my all-time favorite La Mission-Haut-Brions, ranking alongside the 1982, 1975, 1961, 1959, and 1955. The 1989 boasts a dense, thick, purple color, followed by a sweet, roasted cassis, chocolatey-scented nose with whiffs of tobacco, tar, and minerals. The wine is extremely full-bodied, unctuously-textured, sweet, jammy, and rich. Although it is still a youthful, unformed wine, it is already delicious to drink."(100pts)

1371 La Tâche - Vintage 1999*Domaine de la Romanée Contilscl"Tasted at the La Tâche vertical at The Square. Having not tasted the La Tâche 1999 since it had been bottled, I was intrigued to see how it was developing. Monumentally, is the correct answer. First and foremost this is a seriously long-term La Tâche that is maturing at a glacial pace. Indeed, I left most in my glass and waited for it to open. An hour later and it was firing on all cylinders. It is blessed with an incredibly intense, powerful nose that loses its broodiness with aeration and eventually unveils a crystalline set of mineral-soaked aromatics that sport a decadent, almost exotic floral note wilted violets and pot-pourri. The palate has a quite astonishing structure, but it is more the symmetry that makes this one of the greatest vintages of recent years. It unfolds with daring passion to reveal layers of plush but focused dark plum and cassia fruit that just seem to flow and flow on the never-ending finish. It is a multifaceted, multidimensional masterpiece that really needs another decade in bottle."(100pts)*

"This is pungently floral with fresh rose notes nuanced by intense red fruits and a deep, wonderfully attractive plummy hint followed by powerfully spiced flavors that offer impeccable balance and real muscle plus a sappy, palate staining finish. The tannins are extremely fine in this vintage and there is a lovely suppleness to the mid-palate without its usual robustness; in fact, there is a pretty textured quality to the structure." This is extraordinarily fine and detailed with length that lasts and lasts. "The 1999 Romanée-St-Vivant initially has its nose put out of joint by the precocious 1999 Échézeaux, but allowing the wine to unfold over 30 to 40 minutes, it shows its true breeding. Returning after ten minutes, the nose positively explodes from the glass with a sorbet-like purity hints of wild strawberry, cassis and a little blueberry a piercing intensity that is wondrous to behold. The palate is medium-bodied and does not have the volume of the 1999 Échézeaux, but there is superior clarity and focus, the tannins clearly fine and the finish shimmering with tension and femininity. This is just a beautiful wine that will only get better. Drink 2016-2030." (96pts)

2001: A DRC ODYSSEY WITH YOUTHRFUL BORDEAUX AND CALIFORNIA

Forty plus lots of mostly Bordeaux, DRC and Cali come to us courtesy of an astute collector with his finger on the pulse of the market. We get the right St. Estephe stuff thanks to cases of 2003 Calon Segur and 2010 Montrose. Domaine de la Romanee Conti hits the big screen with fifteen selections including most of their vineyards going back to 2001, including La Tache, Richebourg and Romanee St. Vivant. Heading to Cali, we hit gold with 2010, 2012 and 2013 Dominus as well as several vintages of Phelps Insignia and Scarecrow!! All wines ideally stored.

1411 Château Angelus - Vintage 2005

St. Emilion

"Truly great stuff, this wine performed at a three-digit level both in the horizontal tasting of 2005s in Baltimore, as well as in Montreal at this mini-vertical. This sensational, opaque, bluish/purple wine offers up notes of vanillin, spring flowers, blueberry and blackberry liqueur, plus a touch of licorice. The wine hits the palate with a thunderous cascade of ripe, rich, concentrated fruit. It is full-bodied, multidimensional and layered. The tannins are beautifully integrated but still present, and the wood, acidity, alcohol, etc., are all beautifully assimilated in this magnificent, majestic vintage of Angelus. It can be drunk now, but it is still an adolescent and that suggests it has at least another 25-35 years of longevity." (100pts)

1427 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2014*Domaine de la Romanée Conti"Here the expressive nose is even spicier and more floral with its lovely array of rose petal, lilac and lavender scents adding elegance to the mostly dark pinot and earth aromas that are also trimmed in a bit of wood but in this case it is even more subtle. As is virtually always the case this is bigger, richer, more powerful and more muscular with excellent volume to the rich and mouth coating flavors that deliver superb length on the chiseled, robust and hugely long finale." (95pts BH)*

1 bottle per lot $2200-3000

1428 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2015*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

1nl

"This is notably more floral as well as more restrained and what is interesting is that even though the violet-inflected fruit profile is just as ripe, it runs toward the red side of the spectrum while displaying a similar variety of spice components that includes a hint of sandalwood. This too is impressively constituted but despite the power and concentration the broad-shouldered flavors retain plenty of underlying tension as well as lovely precision before culminating in a massively long, balanced and harmonious if youthfully austere finale where the only nit is a hint of warmth." 1429 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2017*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"More brooding and reserved than the Échézeaux that preceded it in the tasting, the 2017 Grands Échézeaux Grand Cru unwinds in the glass with an enticing bouquet of cassis, blackberries, blood orange, exotic spices and musk. On the palate, it's full-bodied, ample and fleshy, with a more introverted, structured profile than the Échézeaux, its considerable reserves of concentrated fruit framed by an abundance of powdery tannin and succulent acids. Long and penetrating, this will reward sustained bottle age." (94+pts)

1430 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2018*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

1431 La Tâche - Vintage 2001*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

2lscl

"Strikingly extravagant nose of rose petals, oriental spices, pungent tea and leather notes plus ultra elegant pinot fruit. The powerful, chiseled, pure flavors are remarkably detailed, precise and fine with mind bending complexity yet for all the emotional drama of this wine, it remains understated and almost aloof at the moment. The finish is dense, structured and quite firm though there is nary a hard edge to be found and while this too cannot rival the other worldly 1999, 2001 will one day be thought of as a genuinely excellent vintage for La Tâche. In short, aristocratic in every sense." (96pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $7000-9000

1432 Richebourg - Vintage 2001*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"There was great perfume and lots of red fruit to this rich and oily red. It was very concentrated with lots of rose and oil components. Rich, long and tasty, I noted it was even better than the '01 La Tâche I just had in Miami." (96pts JK)

1 bottle per lot $2600-3500

1433 Richebourg - Vintage 2014*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The palate is medium-bodied with a lively, spicy, white pepper-tinged entry, just a faint hint of black truffle tincturing the dark berry fruit. There is superb backbone and density here, a Richebourg delivering on its promise from barrel, plus it comes armed with an extraordinarily long aftertaste that evokes marine-like images, something wild and estuarine." (96pts)

1434 Richebourg - Vintage 2015*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

1lscl, 1nl

"The 2015 Richebourg Grand Cru is very good indeed, offering up a pure and surprisingly expressive nose of strawberry, dried rose, plum preserve, roast squab, raw cocoa and incipient rich soil tones, framed by some nutty new oak. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, multidimensional and rich, sweet fruit playing in counterpoint with sapid, savory nuance." (96pts)

1435 Richebourg - Vintage 2018*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"...offering dark berries mixed with crushed limestone, pressed flowers and oyster shell, the fruit becoming more intense with aeration. The palate is extremely cohesive with unerring symmetry, filigreed tannins (perhaps more like a Romanée-Saint-Vivant) and immense depth endowed upon its arching, cathedral-like structure." 1436 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2001*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"This displays a positively classic nose of soaring Asian spices, ripe plum and a gamut of ripe, pure and lacy red and black fruits with the latter predominating all wrapped together with a seductive kiss of sweetly scented, highly perfumed violets; the nose is, in a word, intoxicating. All of this aromatic intensity leads to remarkably powerful, linear, borderline robust flavors that show simply unbelievable complexity and stunning length. This will very likely surpass every other RSV from the Domaine in recent memory. A dazzling effort." (96pts BH)

1437 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2015*Domaine de la Romanée ContiIlscf*

"The Domaine de la Romanée-Conti 2015 Romanée-St-Vivant Grand Cru was showing superbly from bottle, bursting from the glass with a dramatic and expressive bouquet of rose petal, violet, raspberry and spicy red cherry that has already digested its framing of new oak. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, expansive and supple, its frame of fine-grained tannins cloaked in a deep core of vibrant fruit and only asserting themselves on the long, penetrating finish." 1438 Clos de Tart - Vintage 2014*Domaine du Clos de Tart*

"The 2014 Clos de Tart Grand Cru will contain 40% whole bunch fruit in the final. It was picked from September 17 until September 22. This blend that I tasted included the young vines at the bottom of the vineyard that may or may not be deselected to make a Forge de Tart (the decision will be made next year). It is also the first vintage that does not include old vines at the northwest corner that were pulled up in spring 2014, due to be replanted in four years' time. It has a very well defined bouquet with cranberry and wild strawberry fruit, fine mineral tones and is quite harmonious with hints of wet limestone. The palate is medium-bodied and I feel this has tightened up since I tasted it in September 2015. The fruit also seems a little darker. Blackberry and wild cherry, with a hint of cola and certainly more tangible mineralité on the finish, as you can feel the mouth tingling long after it has bid adieu." (95-97pts)

1439 Bond - Vintage 2014*Vecina*

"The 2014 Vecina displays a deep garnet-purple color and has a broody, baked blueberries, cassis and anise-laced nose with suggestions of garrigue, dusty earth and bay leaves. Full-bodied, rich, spicy and powerful in the mouth, it offers a lot of latent layers and promises great, great things to come with an incredibly long, layered finish. It needs a bit of time but should cellar beautifully for a good 25 years+." (98+pts)

1442 Dominus - Vintage 2012

"This wine's opaque plum/purple color is accompanied by a beautiful nose of sweet Crème de cassis, a touch of background oak (only 40% new oak is used), spice box, cedarwood, black cherries and a hint of spring flowers. The complex, intense aromatics are followed by a deep, opulent, multidimensional, full-bodied wine with not a hard edge to be found. Everything is seamlessly crafted in this beauty and the vintage's abundant richness is well-displayed." (99pts)

1443 Dominus - Vintage 2013

"The 2013 Dominus is, to my way of thinking, one of the most profound wines Christian Moueix has yet made in his rather brilliant winemaking history, both in France and in Napa Valley. This wine, with very low yields of only 3,500 cases and a final blend of 89% Cabernet Sauvignon, 7% Petit Verdot and 4% Cabernet Franc, offers up notes of cedar wood, forest floor, loamy soil and oodles of blackberry and blackcurrant fruit. Very opaque purple in color, super-pure and intense, this wine has low acidity, but ripe, noticeable tannins. This is a 30- to 40-year wine and a profound effort from this famous vineyard in Yountville. Drink it over the next 40+ years." (100pts)

The huge bouquet of coffee, herbs, oriental spices, black fruits, tobacco, and new oak has about everything one could want in a top Cabernet. In the mouth, it exhibits rich, full-bodied, smooth, spicy flavors, and a long, dazzling finish. All wines removed from both temperature-controlled home and professional storage.

1456 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 1970

Graves

Its, 2vhs, 1ltl, 3lbsl, 1sdc, excellent color

"The 1970 Château Haut-Brion is a First Growth that has probably been over-shadowed by the Latour 1970 during its lifetime. However, this bottle proves that it is not to be underestimated; it highlights the glaring gap that exists between itself and another First Growth, the 1970 Château Margaux that I tasted alongside. There is plenty of vigor on the nose with dashing red berry fruit, cedar and black olive - just very Haut-Brion. The palate is medium-bodied, well balanced and fresh, nothing over-ambitious, just a Claret in the traditional sense of the word that gently builds towards a sous-bois dominated finish. This is an excellent showing, stout and a little austere, and you could argue an Haut-Brion with its peak in its wing-mirrors. Yet good bottles such as this will continue to offer pleasure for another decade." (92pts)

1459 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 1989

Graves

2bn

"I am certainly not going to argue with anyone who believes La Mission-Haut-Brion's 1989 is every bit as profound as the 1989 Haut-Brion. It is a spectacular wine, and as it ages in the bottle, it is quickly becoming one of my all-time favorite La Mission-Haut-Brions, ranking alongside the 1982, 1975, 1961, 1959, and 1955. The 1989 boasts a dense, thick, purple color, followed by a sweet, roasted cassis, chocolatey-scented nose with whiffs of tobacco, tar, and minerals. The wine is extremely full-bodied, unctuously-textured, sweet, jammy, and rich. Although it is still a youthful, unformed wine, it is already delicious to drink." (100pts)

1463 Château Leoville Las Cases - Vintage 2005*St. Julien3sdc, 1x12 bottle owc*

"...is probably the greatest wine made at this estate since Jean-Hubert Delon's father produced the 1986 and 1996. Only 37% of the production made it into the 2005, a blend of primarily Cabernet Sauvignon with less than 13% Merlot and Cabernet Franc. An inky/ruby/purple color is accompanied by reticent aromatics that, with considerable coaxing, offer up subtle notes of toasty vanillin intermixed with lead pencil shavings, wet rocks, and enormously ripe, intense black cherry and creme de cassis. The wine hits the palate with a full-bodied, layered mouthfeel as well as enormous extract, concentration, and purity. This ageless, monumental claret requires a minimum of 15-20 years to approach maturity, and should last for a half century. It is about as classic a Leoville Las Cases as one will find."(98pts)

1472 Clos St. Denis - Vintage 2006*Dujac*

"The 2006 Clos St Denis from Domaine Dujac, tasted blind, is developing into one of the best wines in the Côte de Nuits apropos this inconsistent vintage. It comes at you with its vibrant raspberry fruit - no holding back here. There is a touch of glossiness at first and then this makes way for subtle game and leather scents (in fact, one fellow taster commented that it was just a little sweaty, but in a good way). The palate is underpinned by plenty of sweet red berry fruit, that gaminess continuing from the aromatics, erring just slightly towards a Côte-Rôtie-like finish. There is an opulence here, but it is not garish or vulgar. It's just a Clos Saint Denis self-aware of its quality and has nurtured a bit of...cockiness. This is well worth hunting down."(95pts)

1477 Hermitage - Vintage 2016*J.L. Chave*

"Still mostly in separate components, the 2016 Hermitage nevertheless looks sensational. Les Beaumes was very pretty and red fruited, with silky tannins (94 - 96). Le Méal was putting itself forward as plush and velvety, with flowers, crushed stone and ripe fruit (95 - 97). God bless him for that and there are few whites I'd rather drink than a mature Hermitage Blanc from this genius winemaker. Starting with the latest vintage and tasted from multiple barrels, the 2015 Hermitage Blanc will be a sensational wine. This rich, unctuous beauty has terrific purity and depth, with the classic concentration, extract and fat that's the hallmark of the estate's Hermitage Blanc. IMPRESSIVE IMPERIALS OF BORDEAUX WITH DRC AND SCREAMING EAGLE

These impressive large formats and outstanding bottles come to us courtesy of a retired financial services executive who has been collecting for over forty years! He has also been integral to the Naples Winter Wine Festival from the very start, one of the leading charity wine auctions in America. Imperials of 1982 La Mission, 1966 and 1986 Lafite march toward 2002s from Domaine de la Romanée Conti including La Tache. The six-liter pace continues with 2006 Dujac Clos de la Roche, and we have a flyover of 1996, 1997 and 1998 Screaming Eagle to finish. Wines removed from a combination of professional and climate-controlled home storage.

"The Haut Brion was the best showing of this wine that I can remember. It flirted with being outstanding and ultimately got there. It was full, fleshy and big-bodied with the classic smoke and charcoal. Big, long and gritty, it was a clear step up from almost everything prior."(95pts JK)

1488 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 1982

ts, cc

"A thick, unctuously-textured wine with massive richness as well as abundant notes of black fruits, truffles, creosote, scorched earth, smoke, and camphor, a colossal mouthfeel, a layered texture, incredible depth of fruit and glycerin, and copious, but well-integrated tannins that are largely concealed by the incredible amount of fruit. An old school La Mission, it is a tour de force that should continue to age effortlessly for another 40+ years."(100pts)

"The 2002 had a great, savory nose, with a touch of BBQ and a bit of garden goodness. It had that great spice and was what you truly expect from La Tâche with all of its superb balance. 1497 Richebourg - Vintage 2002*Domaine de la Romanée Contilscl*

"This is pungently floral with fresh rose notes nuanced by intense red fruits and a deep, wonderfully attractive plummy hint followed by powerfully spiced flavors that offer impeccable balance and real muscle plus a sappy, palate staining finish. The tannins are extremely fine in this vintage and there is a lovely suppleness to the mid-palate without its usual robustness; in fact, there is a pretty textured quality to the structure." 1498 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2002*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1-3cm bc, 2lscl*

"The 2002 Romanée Saint Vivant from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti has a heavenly bouquet. It was served blind but the tangible stem addition betrayed the grower, particularly when it was later compared next to an Henri Mayer. The bouquet is very complex with red berries, tree bark, a touch of dried blood and smoke, but what is striking is the delineation. The palate is medium-bodied and as you would expect, extremely well balanced. There is plenty of sappy red fruit here suffused with sage and rosemary, a touch of spice enlivening a finish that has impressive density (so much so that it could pass as a Richebourg.) I was not the only person to notice how it became more more savory and ferrous in the glass, after 30 minutes suggesting a touch of Japanese tea (the proper, thickly textured type). Just wondrous." "Good medium red. Rich, deep aromas of dark fruits, baking spices, chocolate, roasted herbs and minerals. Big, lush, creamy and consistent; quite full in the middle for a 2004. 1501 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2006*Dujac1x1 Methuselah owc*

"The Dujac 2006 Clos de la Roche is a dark, brooding Pinot no less complex or long than its Clos St.-Denis sibling. Here, the animal side is a gamey, faintly sweaty beast; the fruits dark and as bitter as they are sweet; and the sense of chocolate-like richness remarkable in the context of the vintage. And rather than an energetic sense of interplay, this conveys a layering of fruit, meat, and stony, saline mineral elements, supported by tactile viscosity and a sappy sense of almost indelible cling. Lucky are those who can follow and compare both of these wines over the next dozen years." (95pts)

1504 Puligny Montrachet - Vintage 2014
 Les Combettes, Domaine Leflaive
"The 2014 Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru Combettes is much more expressive on the nose, doling out pressed yellow flower scents and apricot blossom -- a very come-hither nose. The palate is very well balanced, lively in the mouth, edgy compared to the Folatières with a primal finish. There is just a touch of shrillness on the aftertaste, but that should dissipate by the time of bottling and leave a very fine Puligny Combettes that should age with style."(91-93pts)

"The 2018 Cos d'Estournel is a blend of 74% Caber-net Sauvignon, 23% Merlot, 2% Petit Verdot and 1% Cabernet Franc, aged in 50% new oak barriques. The alcohol weighs in at just over 14.5%. Sporting a deep purple-black color, it needs a lot of swirling to begin to unlock a powerful nose of Crème de cassis, stewed plums, wild blueberries and chocolate-covered cherries, fol-lowed by nuances of Sichuan pepper, star anise, tree and clove oil, plus a waft of charcoal. The full-bodied palate is densely packed with taut, muscular black fruits and earthy layers, framed by super firm, ripe, grainy tannins and seamless freshness, finishing very long and wonder-fully earthy. "The 2014 Mouton-Rothschild was closed at first when I tasted the wine in bottle with winemaker Philippe Dhaluin. But as it transpires, this First Growth is just toying with you. Initially quite understated, it responds to aeration like a young child peeking from around a corner and then running out, waving its hands. It suddenly hits you with gorgeous black cherries, bilberry, cedar and wilted rose petal. The palate is medium-bodied with a silky smooth entry. This is utterly seductive: a wine without a hair out of place. It is not as powerful or as complex as the 2015 Mouton-Rothschild, yet the precision and focus here is beguiling. It will require five to seven years to absorb the 100% new oak, then it will be an utterly delicious and to use a term employed at en primeur, "cerebral" First Growth that is destined to give two or three decades of pleasure." Precise and multilayered, with small dark berry flavors given clarity and cut by lively, harmonious acidity. The finish is complex and very long. Lighter than usual but extremely pure and perfumed, this knockout wine has silkier, smoother tannins than any other 2013 Bordeaux. When I visited Pétrus in July 2013, the horrible growing season had Olivier Berrouet fretting like I had never seen before, but he can be proud of what he has achieved in this difficult vintage. "The 2014 Pétrus was tasted on the same morning as the 2014 Vieux-Château-Certan and though they are built from different blends, their personalities are quite similar. This is a succinct, not powerful, much more refined and discrete bouquet, gradually unfurling and revealing a subtle sea spray/marine element. The palate is again quite discrete at first and unfolds at a glacial pace. It is beautifully balanced with fine tannin, quite linear and structured, gently building towards a finish that has wonderful salinity (continuing that marine theme). Note: I actually returned to taste this several hours later, because it was so closed earlier on and it did finally open, which is atypical for this Pomerol. It is a wonderful Pétrus, but one that will deserve bottle age and decanting."(93pts)

A SUPERB COLLECTION OF CHAMPAGNE FROM AN OLD FRIEND

This exceptional gentleman was a member of one of my first tasting groups and is still a distinguished member of the world's fine wine society. I have had the pleasure of sharing wines with him for over twenty years as he was integral part of some of my greatest wine nights back in the day! We welcome back this dear friend of the house with more Champagne – in fact, this offer is all Champagne all the time! Our collector's trademark is always having a bottle or three of Grande Marque Champagne, and accordingly there are eighty selections of superb Champagne of the best wines from the great houses such as Bollinger, Dom Perignon, Philipponnat, Salon, Taittinger and more!

Initially, my friend cut his teeth on Bordeaux with the release of the heralded 1982 vintage into Burgundy during the 1990s. The millennium brought him to Champagne, and he bought more and more Champagne, always with an eye for the best. He is a genuine wine-loving soul who has always had a generous spirit. This is a special opportunity to buy the best of the best Champagne in significant quantity!

Bollinger leads with a bulwark of eight lots highlighted by 1996, 2002 and 2008 RD. There are sweet sixteen selections of Dom Perignon with two cases each of 2006 and 2008 followed by six lots of Krug including 1988 and 1996!! Philipponnat gets its due with has nine selections with cases of 2004 and 2006 Clos des Goisses in bottle and magnum while Salon counters with eight lots back to the benchmark 1996. The outstanding Champagne continues to bubble over with sixteen lots of Taittinger Comtes Champagne including cases of magnums of 2002 and 2006!

All wines have been stored professionally, as well as in his personal custom-built, underground wine cellar, which is kept at an ideal 55 degrees and 70% humidity. It is a great honor to welcome back this collector who we know so well and have enjoyed so many good times and great wines together. You couldn't find better wines from a better guy, and I am certain that his Champagne collection will bring great enjoyment to those that get to know it more personally, lot by lot and bottle by bottle!!!

1560 Billecart Salmon Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1996

Le Clos Saint Hilaire

3x1 bottle owc's

"Billecart-Salmon's 1996 Le Clos Saint-Hilaire has lost some of its youthful exuberance and the fruit now is a touch softer than it was a few years ago. The aromatics and overall balance remain seductive and utterly compelling. To gain perspective, I tasted this next to Bollinger's Vieilles Vignes Françaises and Krug's Clos d'Ambonnay. The Clos Saint-Hilaire is the most delicate, ethereal of the three, while the VVF is the darkest and most brooding, purely vinous of the wines. The Clos d'Ambonnay stands out for its laser-like minerality and intensity. It is likely to be the longest-lived of these three Blanc de Noirs."(96pts VM)

Rich, layered and voluptuous in the glass, the 2002 shows off its flamboyant personality with flair. Butter, cooked apple and tropically-leaning fruits mesh together effortlessly. Interestingly, with time in the glass the 2002 gains in freshness and energy without losing its essential opulence. The elevated ripeness of the year gives the 2002 Dom Pérignon distinctly Puligny-Montrachet leaning inflections. Chef de Caves Richard Geoffroy adds that August that year was hot and very dry. Rain towards the end of the month and into early September freshened the vines and accelerated the final phase of ripening. This is yet another fabulous showing from the 2002, which continues to cement its reputation as a truly epic Dom Pérignon." (98pts VM)*

"Krug's just-released 1990 Collection is magnificent. Remarkably fresh for a 26 year-old wine, the 1990 Collection captures the Krug house style at its very best. Floral notes meld into hints of apricot, chamomile, orchard fruit, vanillin and sweet spices. On the palate, the 1990 is creamy, vivid and super-expressive, but what is most intriguing is how fresh the Collection is relative to Vintage Champagne, which has always been a heavier, more oxidative wine. 1591 Krug Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1996*1x6 bottle ocb, 6x1 bottle ogb's*

"Remarkably perfumed nose projects an exotic bouquet of deep, leesy yellow fruit, minerals, honeycomb, smoked meat and flowers, with Asian spices building expanding in the glass. Almost painfully concentrated, offering a surreal parade of orchard and pit fruits, smoked meat, toasted brioche and marrow braced by intensely salty, stunningly incisive minerality. Imagine a Frankenstein's monster of Chablis Le Clos and Clos Ste. Hune-but one with perfect balance, of course-and you get an idea of what I found in my bottle. The energetic, stony character builds exponentially on the finish, which didn't seem to, well, finish. The best analogy I can come up with for the intensity, focus and clarity of this Champagne is liquefied barbed wire. Utterly hallucinatory and one of the most amazing wines I've ever been fortunate enough to drink." (99+pts IWC)

Red fruit flavors on the nose lead to a generously rich yet pure, highly refined and elegant palate, with lots of ripe cherry fruits and delicious yeasty flavors. This is a highly complex and tensioned but beautifully balanced 2002 with a charming dosage that gives perfect roundness. "An intense golden-yellow color dresses the Pol Roger prestige cuvée 2004 Sir Winston Churchill, which opens with a clear, deep, dense, ripe, fresh, pure and elegant bouquet of matured apples, apricots and lemon flavors along with exciting spicy flavors. Although this Brut is already more than 11-years-old, it is dew-fresh and still developing--slowly. This Champagne is highly complex and well structured on the palate, with grapefruit flavors; it is a full-bodied and intense, yet very firm, persistent, fresh and very elegant assemblage of unnamed Grand Cru Pinot Noirs and Chardonnays. It reveals a very long and complex, powerful but stimulating finish, and obviously, an eternal youth. The finish is powerful and stringent, and reveals a great, great aging potential. The wine is somewhat restrained and too compact at the moment though, and should benefit from a longer bottle aging."(95+pts)

On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, deep and multidimensional, defined by the incisive spine so typical of the vintage that, here, is cloaked in layers of crisp fleshy and chalky extract. "The 2006 Comtes de Champagne is striking, especially in the way it brings together elements of ripeness and freshness in a hypothetical blend of the 2002 and 2004. Smooth and creamy on the palate, the 2006 is all about texture. There is a real feeling of density and weight in the 2006, qualities I expect to see grow with time in the bottle. All the elements fall into place effortlessly. The 2006 has been nothing short of magnificent both times I have tasted it. Comtes de Champagne remains the single best value (in relative terms) in tête de cuvée Champagne. I suggest buying a case and following it over the next 20-30 years, which is exactly what I intend to do. MARINE VINOLOGY: CALIFORNIA WITH FRANCE, ITALY AND SPAIN

Attention, attention, these wines certainly deserve your attention! This collection come to us courtesy of a former Marine who received a copy of Time-Life Wine & Spirits during Christmas in 1968. He promptly started self-educating! While working on his MBA, he joined a wine club and later moved to California, deepening his love of wine. Always an early adopter, he was one of the early subscribers to the Wine Advocate, and you will see many highly rated wines in the over two hundred lots of top California, Bordeaux, Burgundy, Italy, Spain and more!!!!

Bordeaux gets first call with cases of from 2005 of Cos, Leoville Las Cases and Margaux as well as 1998 Lafite topped by a 1975 Mouton Jeroboam and a 1989 Mouton Imperial. 1996 La Tache and 1997 DRC Richebourg magnum raise the bar for 1999 Clos des Lambrays, 1999 Dujac Charmes magnum and 2002 Mongeard-Mugneret Richebourg. We spread out with a Rhone and Champagne interlude of interesting mixed lots followed by dueling pairs of Ornellaia and Sassicaia as well as 1999 and 2000 Unico.

California marches into formation with seven selections of Abreu, and we continue our ABC and Ds of Cali Cabs with Bryant, Caymus, Colgin, Dalla Valle and Dominus!!!! There are six lots of Harlan including several magnums as well as the legendary 1974 Heitz Martha's. The Cali Cab thunder goes from strength to strength with ten lots of Hundred Acre, a baker's dozen of Lokoya and eight lots of Morlet. We round out the Cali wine alphabet with Ridge, Scarecrow, Shafer, Spottswoode, Tor and Verite the head to Washington with five lots of Quilceda Creek!

All wines removed from professional storage. Thank you for your service, and thank you for your wine!!!!

See you in November!

"The late Michel Delon always thought that this was the greatest vintage he had produced. We often tasted it side by side with the 1982, because I always preferred the latter vintage. Of course, the two vintages are quite different in style, with the 1986 a monument to classicism, with great tannin, extraordinary delineation, and a huge, full-bodied nose of sweet, ripe cassis fruit intermixed with vanilla, melon, fruitcake, and a multitude of spices. The wine has always been phenomenally concentrated, yet wonderfully fresh and vigorous. The wine still seems young, yet it is hard to believe it is not close to full maturity." - - - - - This limited-edition collectors' case contains two bottles of the 1986 Château Léoville Las Cases Grand Vin, plus one bottle of each of the single grape varieties used in the blend: Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Merlot and Petit Verdot with two château branded glasses, cylinder, funnel and drop stop. "...is probably the greatest wine made at this estate since Jean-Hubert Delon's father produced the 1986 and 1996. Only 37% of the production made it into the 2005, a blend of primarily Cabernet Sauvignon with less than 13% Merlot and Cabernet Franc. An inky/ruby/purple color is accompanied by reticent aromatics that, with considerable coaxing, offer up subtle notes of toasty vanillin intermixed with lead pencil shavings, wet rocks, and enormously ripe, intense black cherry and crème de cassis. The wine hits the palate with a full-bodied, layered mouthfeel as well as enormous extract, concentration, and purity. This ageless, monumental claret requires a minimum of 15-20 years to approach maturity, and should last for a half century. It is about as classic a Leoville Las Cases as one will find." (98pts)

"The 1978 Château Margaux is a significant wine for two reasons: that is was the first under the Mentzelopoulos family after acquiring the property and also, it was their best wine in many years. Today it is still going strong. Clear in color, it has quite a deep garnet core. The nose is very seductive with black fruit, leather, scorched earth, a hint of lavender all beautifully defined and quintessentially Margaux. The medium-bodied palate has exquisite balance, the acidity nicely judged, still a little masculine and "solid" compared to the subsequent vintages under Paul Pontallier, yet fresh and vital. Sure, there is a grittiness and a touch of rusticity towards the finish, but all in all, this represents a great 1978 Left Bank and a signpost that the First Growth was back on the right track after a dismal run of vintages during the 1970s. Tasted May 2016." (93pts)

1669 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1975*Pauillacts, stl, spc, ssos, excellent color*

"In the blind tasting in December, this wine finally began to reveal some potential. It has been closed and frightfully tannic for the last decade. The wine exhibits a good dark ruby/garnet color; a sweet nose of cedar, chocolate, cassis, and spices, good ripe fruit and extraction, and a weighty, large-scaled, tannic finish. Although still unevolved, it is beginning to throw off its cloak of tannin and exhibit more complexity and balance." (91pts)

1670 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1989*Pauillacbn, lwrl, sos, 1x1 Imperial owc*

"The 1989 Château Mouton-Rothschild might not reach the ethereal heights of the 1982 or 1986, but it is certainly a lovely Claret. It has an attractive, slightly leafy bouquet armed with cedar and pencil lead. There is less fruit concentration than I expected, resolutely classic, slightly austere Bordeaux. The palate follows suit. What it lacks in substance it compensates with in balance and personality. This is an understated Mouton-Rothschild that is probably at its peak, although I envisage this offering another two decades of pleasure. Whilst this showing did not replicate some glorious bottles in the past, it remains a very fine Claret that may not be inclined to improve any further." (93pts)

1671 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 2000*Pauillac1x1 Imperial owc*

"The wine offers a saturated ruby/purple color in addition to reticent but promising aromas of toast, coffee, licorice, Crème de cassis, and roasted nuts. Dense, chewy, and backward, with tremendous purity and density in addition to obvious toasty oak, it is full-bodied, powerful, tannic, and backward. Twenty-four to 48 hours of aeration only hints at its ultimate potential. This blockbuster will be exceptionally long-lived." (97pts)

1672 Château Palmer - Vintage 2009*Margaux*

"Deep garnet colored, the 2009 Palmer delivers a beguiling array of black fruit warm plums, cassis and black cherry compote with kirsch and wild sage sparks plus profound suggestions of fragrant earth, black truffles, iron ore and liquid licorice. Full-bodied, rich and decadently seductive in the mouth, the generous fruit is superbly framed with plush tannins and seamless freshness, finishing long and mineral laced." (98pts)

1673 Château Pavie Macquin - Vintage 2005*St. Emilion1x12 bottle owc*

"A black/purple color is accompanied by aromas of charcoal, burning embers, crushed rocks, sweet, pure, blueberries and blackberries, chocolaty creme de cassis, and licorice. It possesses massive concentration, phenomenal levels of tannin, and good acidity, but it is even more backward than either Pavie or Pavie Decesse. A modern day elixir that should prove to be monumental in 15-20 years, it will last for 40+ years." (98pts)

"Incredible nose that reminded me of an 18-year old supermodel: way too young but everyone still has to stop and stare aromas of roses and crushed red fruits, bursting with stones and minerals and rounded out by a little cinnamon/nutmeg spiciness aromas of brand new leather so fresh and new that it is worthy of a Gucci or Prada tag the palate, however, was greatly shut down the wine was in hiding it was like a 98-point nose and a 92 point palate at first. The wine did start to open up slowly but surely and define itself on the palate after a couple of hours, and the acids emerged from a dormant state to really express themselves and let you know they were in the room an earthquake of a La Tâche that shakes the room and stains the soul." 1729 Sassicaia - Vintage 2015*Tenuta San Guido*

"Having followed this wine's evolution in barrel for the past few years, it is an honor to evaluate the final product. This Sassicaia has blossomed since my previous encounters with it as a young, awkward adolescent. The long-awaited 2015 Bolgheri Sassicaia represents a tremendous effort that comes together with seamless precision and focus. This is a confident and proud red wine from Tuscany. Starting with the primary material at hand, you sense the quality of fruit thanks to the wine's beautifully dark appearance and the rich texture it offers to the palate. The acidity is integrated, but more freshness still would have been welcomed in my view (and would also contribute to its longevity). The bouquet is amplified both in terms of volume and length. Its playlist includes dark berry fruit, spice, leather, licorice and roasted coffee bean. Yet, the mouthfeel is extremely graceful and silky. The wine's undisputed pedigree is showcased on the palate. It should also be noted that this edition of Sassicaia feels more ready and open to me. It will age and evolve beautifully, but the 2015 Sassicaia can also be enjoyed in the medium-term. This wine is all about the here and now." (97pts)

"As for the 1991, 6,500 cases were produced of this potentially perfect wine. While this vintage of Dominus contains no Merlot in the blend, every time I taste it I am reminded of a great vintage of Pétrus such as 1982, 1989 or 1990. Although different, the 1991 Dominus possesses extraordinary intensity, remarkable opulence, and amazing fruit extraction, all welded to a full-bodied structure. The wine's sensational purity and inner-core of depth must be tasted to be believed. The 1991 will be approachable young because of its sweet tannin, yet it exhibits the potential to last for 25 years. Perhaps 1994 will rival it, but for now, the 1991 is unquestionably the greatest Dominus, as well as a potential legend in the making." (99pts)

"Both 2013s are clearly the finest Eisele wines made under the administration of François Pinault and his top lieutenant, Frédéric Engerer, who also runs the show at Château Latour. The utterly compelling 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon is 100% Cabernet Sauvignon in this vintage and 1,800 cases were made. The wine is off-the-charts great, with an opaque bluish/purple color to the rim, an aroma of pen ink, graphite, blackberry and blueberry fruit, a hint of licorice, camphor and incense. The wine is full-bodied, with extraordinary concentration, remarkable equilibrium and noticeable, but sweet, well-integrated tannin. This is a large-scaled Eisele Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon, but flawless and with no edges. It is an amazing effort and a great achievement from this incredible terroir." (100pts)

1800 Morlet Family Vineyards Cabernet Sauvignon- Vintage 2016Passionnement"Composed of 100% Cabernet Sauvignon, 85% of the fruit in this barrel-selection wine comes from Beckstoffer's To Kalon and Missouri Hopper vineyards, 10% is from the Morlet Estate vineyard in St Helena and 5% comes from the Mon Chevalier vineyard in Knights Valley. Very deep garnet-purple colored, the 2016 Cabernet Sauvignon Passionnement leaps from the glass with notes of licorice, chocolate mint, warm cassis, plum preserves, charcoal and smoked meats with touches of lilacs and cedar chest plus a waft of pencil lead. Medium to full-bodied, the palate has a quiet intensity at first that grows exponentially in the mouth into an aria of epic proportions, revealing layer upon layer of savory/sweet flavors, bags of black fruits and tons of spicy sparks all within a firm, very finely grained frame, finishing very long and with compelling minerality. This is a staggeringly stunning and very singular Cabernet achievement by Luc Morlet—bravo! "(100pts)*

1806 Peter Michael Red - Vintage 2014
Les Pavots
"The 2014 Proprietary Red Les Pavots (3,570 cases) is a blend of 60% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Cabernet Franc, 13% Merlot and 5% Petit Verdot aged in mostly Taransaud barrels with a small helping of Darnajou thrown in. This wine is fabulous in the vintage, although certainly less profoundly concentrated and extracted, as well as structured, compared to the 2013, which was off-the-charts fabulous. This is a brilliant wine, charming, with front-end loaded plum, blackcurrant and black raspberry fruit interwoven with graphite, tar and truffle notes. The wine has sumptuous texture, sweet, velvety tannin, and a long, full-bodied finish. It should drink well for at least two decades."(95pts)

1831 Verite Red - Vintage 2013*La Muse1x6 bottle owc"The 2013 La Muse, like all of the 2013s, comes about one-third from Alexander Valley vineyards, 40-plus percent from Chalk Hill, and the rest Knights Valley and Bennett Valley all high-elevation hillside vineyards. A blend of 89% Merlot, 8% Cabernet Franc and 3% Malbec at 14.3% alcohol, the wine is amazingly like a great vintage of Pétrus, with mulberry, black cherry, licorice, truffle and unctuous, thick, juicy fruit all present in this full-bodied masterpiece. The tannins are still present. The wine has purity and savory presence and is remarkable. The finish goes on for well past a minute. This wine would probably benefit from 5-8 years of bottle age and last 40-50 years." (100pts)*

1854 Quilceda Creek Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2012
"The 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon is brilliant. Made from 100% Cabernet Sauvignon, mostly from the famous Champoux Vineyard in the Horse Heaven Hills, it was aged all in new oak and bottled unfined and unfiltered. It offers a captivating bouquet of black cherry liqueur and cassis-like fruit, Asian spice, coffee bean and lead pencil shavings to go with a full-bodied, ripe, seamless and hedonistic style on the palate. One of the more approachable, opulent examples of this cuvée, it has no hard edges, plenty of tannin and a massive, heady finish." (98pts)

1855 Quilceda Creek Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2013
"...is flat out sensational, and flirts with perfection. Its inky ruby/purple color is followed by incredible notes of cassis, black currants, smoked herbs, licorice and graphite. These give way to a full-bodied, utterly seamless Cabernet that has full-bodied richness, ultra-fine tannin and a killer finish." (99pts)

1856 Quilceda Creek Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2014
"The 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon is another tour de force from this estate that's reminiscent of first growth Bordeaux from a vintage like 2009. Made from 100% Cabernet Sauvignon and aged in new barrels, it offers incredible notes of blackcurrants, graphite, lead pencil shavings and crushed rocks in a full-bodied, decadent, insanely layered and seamless style. This beauty possesses ultra-fine tannin, no hard edges and a forward, already hard to resist style, yet it's going to keep for more than two decades." (100pts)
 12 bottles per lot $1200-1600

1857 Quilceda Creek Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2015
"A powerful wine that bears the stamp of the vintage, the 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon offers up aromas of minty Crème de cassis, blackberries, dark chocolate and spice, framed by a lavish application of toasty new oak. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and heady, with a generous core of ripe, liqueur-like fruit, a fine-grained chassis of tannins and a long, heavily oak-inflected finish. To hold the estate to its own high standards, after the more elegant and complete 2014, the 2015 vintage of Quilceda's flagship bottling feels a bit more overtly high-octane and marked by its time in new wood, and I don't think it will ever be as graceful. But it's a lusty, expressive Cabernet Sauvignon that will drink well for a decade or more."(96pts)
