

AN AUCTION OF FINEST & RAREST WINES

THE RENAISSANCE COLLECTION

The first time I met this collector, many years ago now, I was immediately struck by his curiosity and candor. We shared some wonderful bottles of Burgundy and the first of many great meals and bottles we would enjoy over the years; but more to the point, we talked about our lives, about wine, about the world. I was amazed by his breadth of knowledge and interest in a vast range of subjects and noted that he was indeed a true renaissance man.

This wine collection is a little nugget from a massive gold mine of incredible wine that he has amassed. His buying habits have led him to sweep up significant wine through top auction houses and retailers. His passion for wine and people has led to countless trips to Europe to taste personally and build a deep knowledge of top wines, vintages, and every nuance in between. This collector has an eye for the best wines and a tenacity for acquiring the bottles that he wants. He is scrupulous about provenance and has always stored his collection professionally or in a state-of-the-art home cellar. There are too many spectacular opportunities to name, but what really comes to mind is the notable selection from Truchot, a depth of this sort is rarely ever seen at auction, as well as other strong showings from great names of Burgundy such as Dujac, Leflaive, and J.F. Mugnier.

We are overjoyed to represent wines from the Renaissance Collection, and even happier to call the collector a friend.

THE SCHWARTZ COLLECTION

Hart Davis Hart is honored to bring you The Schwartz Collection. Gerry Schwartz was a legendary collector who built a large and diverse cellar. He was as passionate about sharing the wines as he was about sourcing and caring for them.

Italy was always a strong interest and Gerry would source top Italian wines from a small group of merchants who could find the Conterno (both Aldo and Giacomo), Giacosa, Antinori and Gaja selections that he was always after. Gerry loved to travel the world with his wife Brenda and would return having tasted the best and having assembled a large shopping list to research and find.

Gerry's cellar was as unique as he was. A state-of-the-art temperature- and humidity-controlled vault with electric lifts that would gingerly transport massive cages of rarities to lower levels. It was a remarkable sight to see the wine moving, and nobody had as much fun in the cellar as he did.

For all his success and wine knowledge, what I remember most was Gerry's genuine concern for others and kindness of spirit. I met Gerry and Brenda at the Triangle Wine and Food Experience, a charity auction that benefits The Frankie Lemmon School for children with disabilities in Raleigh. Though not from North Carolina, he and Brenda met the organizers at another event and decided to support their meaningful cause. Gerry was incredibly generous and loved not only the event itself, but his visits to the school, and became a true ambassador and cheerleader for this remarkable place. His giving inspired others to step up, and he will be remembered for the impact he had on the lives of many Frankie Lemmon students.

There are numerous large format bottles in the collection, but they were among many more. Gerry loved to open bottles for friends and family to share his incredible treasures. I hope you will enjoy the cellar and share some of these remarkable bottles from The Schwartz Collection.

- Paul Hart, Chairman & CEO

WINES OF A SEASONED COLLECTOR

The span of my warm friendship with this consignor can be measured in decades, through most of the iterations of my career. I'm honored to have another opportunity to work with him. His knowledge and passion for wine runs deep, and he has always been quick to share a great bottle. Highlights are extensive and include great names such as Bernard-Bonin and J.F. Mugnier. All wines have been carefully sourced and professionally cellared. Bid with confidence!

Lot 1515

THE CELLAR OF AN EFFERVESCENT COLLECTOR PART IV

Hart Davis Hart is honored to once again represent this cellar on behalf of a generous collector and very dear friend. A consistent presence at HDH auctions, the consignor behind this monumental collection regularly contributed to an exciting sale room. He continues to collect while reducing volumes and sharing his passion with bidders.

Virtually all wines were acquired from HDH; the very small remainder were sourced from highly reputable sources and have always been housed in perfect temperature- and humidity-controlled conditions. Featured here are multiple exceptional lots of Bordeaux in owc, an impressive showing of Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, and a deep selection of vintage Champagne from iconic houses such as Dom Pérignon (a personal favorite of the collector) and Krug. Effervescent indeed, these lots are not to be missed.

We here at Hart Davis Hart have had the genuine pleasure of sharing a table, a laugh, and many a glass with this collector. Place your bids with confidence on this remarkable selection.

FURTHER SELECTIONS FROM THE AMETHYST CELLAR

We are honored to present this offering from the vast cellar of one of the most knowledgeable and widely respected collectors in America. All wines were carefully sourced through the most reputable of channels, most on initial release, and have been secured in a home cellar that maintains a constant 48 to 52°F. Though focused on Burgundy, the collection is rich with variety and is deeply personal. He and his wife are among my closest friends, and I'm keenly aware of his passion for many things, particularly his cellar. Bid with confidence.
